LIVERPOOL, Lord Steward.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us that great quantities of the gold coin of this realm deficient in weight are now in circulation, contrary to the tenor of two Proclamations issued, one by His late Royal Highness George Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, bearing date the first of July one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and the other issued by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, bearing date the sixth of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one; and there being reason to believe that due attention is not paid to the weighing of the said gold coin, and the directions given in the Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the cutting, breaking, or defacing such pieces thereof as are found to be of less weight than those declared by the last of the aforesaid Proclamations to be current, and to pass and be received in payment; We do by this Our Royal Proclamation declare and command that from and after the date hereof every gold sovereign of less weight than five penny-weights two grains and a half, and every gold half sovereign of less weight than two penny-weights thirteen grains and one eighth, be not allowed to be current or pass in any payment whatsoever: and We do hereby strictly require and command all Our loving subjects, and particularly all the officers, collectors, and receivers of Our revenues, strictly to conform to the orders hereby given, and to the directions and regulations enacted and established in the several Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the cutting, breaking, and defacing such pieces of the said gold coin as shall be found deficient in weight: and We do hereby further ordain, declare, and command, that the said gold sovereigns and half sovereigns of the weights last above described shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this third day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of June 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for relieving the present canons of the cathedral church of Winchester from the performance of additional duty, by reason of the suspension of canonries in the said cathedral church.

"Whereas, it was by the said Act enacted, that out of the proceeds of the suspended canonries, in any chapter, provision might from time to time be made, by the authority therein provided, for relieving the then existing canons of such chapter from the performance of any additional duty by reason of such suspension, by the employment of substitutes, to be approved by the respective bishops:

"And whereas, application has been made to us, by the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester, to make provision for a substitute or substitutes, to be employed and approved according to the said Act, to perform the duties which, by reason of the present suspension of one canonry, and of the future suspension of six other canonries, in the said church, would otherwise be imposed on the remaining canons:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said Dean and Chapter be empowered, from time to time, to appoint a substitute or substitutes, to be approved by the Bishop of Winchester for the time being, to perform the duties of a Canon in residence, for such calendar month or months in this present and each succeeding year, as shall remain unprovided for, after the periods of statutable and customary residence by all the existing canons shall have been fixed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that until the said Chapter shall consist exclusively of Canons to be appointed after the passing of the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer or other officer for the time being of the said Dean and Chapter, to retain, out of the monies payable to us as such proceeds as aforesaid, in each year, the sum of fifty pounds for every calendar month to be so provided for as aforesaid, and to pay the same to the person or persons so appointed and approved, in such proportions if more than one person as shall be equal to the period of residence and duty by each of them actually kept and performed.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said cathedral church of Winchester, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in the Cathedral Church of Gloucester.

“Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that, so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided, regulations shall be made for fixing the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in each Cathedral and Collegiate Church, provided that there shall not in any case be more than six nor less than two, and that the stipend of each such Minor Canon hereafter to be appointed shall not be less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum; and that arrangements may from time to time be made, by the like authority, for securing to any Minor Canon, not otherwise competently provided for, such annual sum as shall make up to him an income, as Minor Canon, not exceeding in any case the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds:

“And whereas application has been made to us by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, to fix the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in the said Church as hereinafter mentioned:

“And whereas it has been represented to us, by the said Dean and Chapter, that the number of Minor Canons in the said Church has hitherto been four, but is now reduced to three, and that it is expedient that there should continue to be three Minor Canons only therein; and it has been further represented to us by the said Dean and Chapter that they have assigned to the junior of the present Minor Canons, who has been appointed since the passing of the said recited Act, a fixed annual stipend, as such Minor Canon, of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that the senior of such Minor Canons, although receiving a smaller stipend as Minor Canon, is otherwise competently provided for; but that the Reverend Edward Vaughan, who is the second of the present Minor Canons, receives an annual stipend of ninety pounds only, and is not otherwise competently provided for; and it has been further represented to us, by the said Dean and Chapter, that the collective amount of the stipends so paid to the three present Minor Canons exceeds the aggregate annual sum which has heretofore been paid out of the revenues of their Church to the Minor Canons thereof:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their Chapter seal, that the number of Minor Canons in the said Cathedral Church of Gloucester shall from henceforth be three, and that there shall be paid to each Minor Canon appointed in the said Church, after the passing of the said recited Act, a fixed annual stipend, as such Minor Canon, of one hundred and fifty pounds out of the revenues of the said Church.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so long as the said Edward Vaughan shall continue to be a Minor Canon in the same Church, and shall not hold any other office therein or any benefice, there shall be paid to him by the Treasurer of the said Church, in addition to his aforesaid stipend of ninety pounds, the annual sum of sixty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the expiration of six calendar months from the day of the general audit of the said Dean and Chapter now last past, and that the said Treasurer shall and may from time to time retain, out of any monies payable to us in respect of any Canonry or Canonries suspended in the said Church, such sum of money as may have been so paid to the said Edward Vaughan.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Gloucester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for uniting the two mediocrities of the rectory of Claypole, in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that, with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, and so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parishes; and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority herein-after provided;

"And whereas the Right Rev. John Bishop of Lincoln, by virtue of the said recited provisions, has duly prepared and submitted to us a plan in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," it is enacted, that with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, and so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parishes, and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority therein provided; and whereas the parish of Claypole, in the diocese and archdeaconry of Lincoln, is a rectory with cure of souls, and consists of two medieties, one called the North Mediety, and the other called the South Mediety, both of which are in the patronage of John Pemberton Plumptre, of Tredville, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and have hitherto usually been held by different incumbents, and are now so held; and whereas it appears to me to be expedient, and likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties in the said parish of Claypole, that the said medieties should be united and form one benefice; I, John Bishop, of Lincoln, with the consent of the said John Pemberton Plumptre, testified by his having signed and sealed this plan, do hereby recommend and propose, that when either of the said two medieties shall become vacant, if the rector of the other mediety shall be presented and inducted thereto, the said two medieties shall forthwith, after such induction, become and be permanently united, and shall form one benefice to all intents and purposes, and shall for ever thereafter be held by one incumbent, but if the spiritual person presented to the mediety so first becoming vacant, shall be other than the then rector of the other mediety, he shall take the same, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, and every future incumbent thereof shall take the same subject to the same provision, that is to say; that upon the vacancy of the second mediety, the then rector of the first mediety shall forthwith, without any presentation, institution, induction or other proceeding whatsoever, become and be rector of both the said two medieties, and the same shall forthwith become and be permanently united, and shall form one benefice to all intents and purposes, and shall for ever thereafter be held by one incumbent."

J. Lincoln. (L.S.)

John Pemberton Plumptre. (L.S.)

"And whereas the arrangement proposed in the said plan appears to us likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties of the said parish of Claypole; we, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said plan be carried into effect accordingly."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the perpetual curacies of Christ Church, in Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester; of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in the city and diocese of Lichfield; and of Wolviston, in the county and diocese of Durham:

" Whereas by the first-recited Act it is (amongst other things) enacted, that out of the endowments belonging to the suspended prebends in the cathedral church of Lichfield, such provision as shall be deemed fit shall, by the authority therein provided, be made for the perpetual curate of Christ Church in Birmingham for the time being; and it is by the secondly-recited Act declared and enacted, that the last-recited provisions apply to all the lands and tenements, tithes, and other hereditaments and endowments, vested or to be vested in us by or under the provisions of the said first recited Act, by reason of the vacancy of any canonry residentiary, or of any prebend dignity or office not residentiary, in the said Church:

" And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, in Birmingham, was heretofore, in part, endowed with the prebend of Tachbrooke, in the said cathedral church of Lichfield; and the whole property of the said prebend is now vested in us, but the present proceeds thereof are of very small amount; and whereas certain lands tenements and hereditaments, lately belonging to the prebend of Wolvey, in the same church, were, by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend, vested in us by the first-recited Act, and the rents and profits thereof exceed the annual sum required in our opinion as an additional provision for the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church; and, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that it is fit and proper, that the said perpetual curacy should be augmented as herein-after specified:

" And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, issued under the authority of the first-recited Act, we were authorised and directed to make a fixed annual payment of forty-two pounds to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield:

" And whereas the Honourable and Very Reverend Henry Edward John Howard, dean of Lichfield, being seised, in right of his deanery, of certain tithes arising within the township of Elmhurst, in the parish of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield, of the annual value of twenty-five pounds or thereabouts, together with John Haworth of the city of Lichfield esquire, then lessee of the said tithes, did, on the twenty-eighth day of January last, with our consent under the said Acts, join in granting and releasing the said tithes, in immediate augmentation of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe; in consideration of our undertaking to recommend and propose a further augmentation, under the said Acts, of such an amount as, together with our reversionary interest in the said tithes, would be equal to their united then subsisting interest therein; and it appears to us, after due consideration and calculation, to be just and proper, that a further annual grant of twelve pounds should accordingly be made to the said perpetual curacy of Stowe:

" And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston is situate within the parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham, and is in the patronage of the dean and chapter of Durham; and the said dean and chapter did, previously to the passing of the said first-recited Act, grant and assign, in augmentation of the said perpetual curacy, certain lands, tenements and hereditaments, of the annual value of one hundred and twenty-six pounds or thereabouts, subject however to a lease thereof, which will expire in the month of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine:

" And whereas the tithes of the said parish of Billingham are now vested in us, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the proceeds thereof exceed the last-mentioned annual value; and it appears to us, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish, to be expedient, that a temporary annual grant should be made to the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, of equal amount to the prospective augmentation aforesaid:

" And whereas by a Scheme, bearing even date herewith, we have, under the authority of the said recited Act, recommended and proposed to your Majesty in Council, that grants, in augmentation of benefices, should be made in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations therein mentioned; and the grants herein recommended and proposed fall within the provisions of the said Scheme :

" We, therefore, recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the monies and revenues, rents, and profits, from time to time, applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, but in lieu of and in full satisfaction for the said annual payment of forty-two pounds, the fixed annual sum of fifty-four pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, but only for the time hereinafter limited, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds; by equal half-yearly payments in each case, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but in the case of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston not after the first day of May in the said year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine; and that the first of such payments shall in each case be made on the first day of May next; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall in each such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said perpetual curacies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by, and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Durham, Lichfield, and Worcester.

VICE-CHANCELLOR OF ENGLAND.

Thursday the 2d day of June, in the fifth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1842, between Charles William Snow, plaintiff; William Hole and others, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Bigg, of counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff, on the 18th day of January 1841, filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate, now read, appears, and took out subpoena, requiring the defendant, William Whittaker, to appear to and answer the same, but the said defendant, William Whittaker, has not appeared thereto; that it appears, by the joint affidavit of Edmund Boyle Church, Samuel Hewett, and John Cheer, that, upon enquiry at the said defendant, William Whittaker's, usual place of abode, he cannot be found, so as to be served with such process, and there is just ground to believe that the said defendant, William Whittaker, absconds to avoid being served with the process of this Court; and that the said defendant, William Whittaker, has been in England within two years next before issuing of the said subpoena; it is, thereupon, ordered, that the said defendant, William Whittaker, do appear to the said bill, on or before the 1st day of July next.
