

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1842.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of June 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a prison at Pentonville," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint any number of fit persons, not being less than seven or more than eleven, to be Commissioners for governing the said prison; now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint

James Archibald Lord Wharnccliffe, Lord President of the Council;

Charles Duke of Richmond, K. G.;

William Earl of Devon;

Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester;

Lord John Russell;

The Speaker of the House of Commons;

Sir Benjamin Brodie, Bart.;

Robert Ferguson, Esq. M. D.;

Major Jebb, of the Royal Engineers;

William Crawford, Esq.;

and
The Reverend Whitworth Russell;

And they are hereby nominated and appointed, Commissioners for governing the Pentonville Prison accordingly. Wm. L. Bathurst.

Buckingham-Palace, June 29, 1842.

This day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Dublin waited upon Her Majesty to present to Her Majesty the following Address; which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of your ancient and loyal city of Dublin, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our horror at the traitorous attempt which has been made upon your sacred and invaluable life; and our joy and heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God, for the merciful preservation to Her people of a Sovereign so deeply and so justly beloved.

No words can express the feelings which pervaded all ranks and classes of the inhabitants of this, the capital of Ireland, when they were apprised of the peril to which your Majesty's sacred Person had been exposed. Whatever manifestations of deep and generous devotion, of enthusiastic and chivalrous attachment it has been your Majesty's happiness to witness among your Majesty's British subjects, they might equal, but they cannot have exceeded, the expression of feeling which this occasion called forth from your faithful Irish people.

In the name of all the inhabitants of the city which we represent, we lay at the foot of your