TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1842.

Whitehall, August 2, 1842.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen by the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. Secretary of State for the Home Department, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of Cornwall, in county meeting assembled, desire to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late escape from the traitorous attempt on your royal person; and while we return our grateful thanks to the Divine Providence who has again preserved your Majesty from danger, we fervently pray that the same protecting hand may continue to be extended for your Majesty's future safety and protection during a long and happy reign.

Given at the borough of Bodmin, in the county of Cornwall aforesaid, this 29th day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1842.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,
William Molesworth, Sheriff.
