FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1842.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Representation from the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, dated the tenth August instant, and in the words following, viz.

“ The Lords of the Judicial Committee having taken into consideration the scale on which the costs of Appeals, and other matters referred by your Majesty to this Committee, are usually taxed by the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench, or other persons to whom their Lordships have, from time to time, referred the same; their Lordships agree humbly to represent to your Majesty, that it is expedient that the scale of costs hitherto allowed in the said proceedings before this Committee, should be reduced; and their Lordships recommend that, provisionally, and until further consideration, such costs in all Appeals, or matters not being Appeals, from the Courts of Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Jurisdiction, should be taxed and allowed by all such taxing officers as shall hereafter be directed to ascertain and report the same to the Board, according to the Schedule hereunto annexed; and that this rate of charges should be observed by Solicitors conducting business before this Committee.”

Her Majesty, having taken this representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and of what is therein recommended, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the same be duly and punctually observed, complied with, and carried into execution. Whereof all persons whom it may concern are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for assigning a district chapelry to St. Saviour's Chapel, in the parish of Upper Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d of June 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:”

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, “that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:”

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken the parish of Upper Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London contained a population of thirteen thousand one hundred and thirty-seven persons; that, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to one thousand four hundred and twenty persons, there is one chapel in the said parish, called St. Saviour's Chapel (built partly by a grant from your Majesty's said Commissioners), which affords accommodation to one thousand one hundred and eighty-eight persons, including five hundred and eighty-seven free seats appropriated to the use of the poor;

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The District Chapelry of St. Saviour, Upper Chelsea," with boundaries as follow:

"The boundary of the district chapelry of St. Saviour, Upper Chelsea, commences opposite the end of Pavilion-street, and proceeds in a northerly direction, up the centre, to the top of Sloane-street, where it joins the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, and the district parish of Brompton; it then proceeds, in a south westerly direction, along the boundary of that parish, to Marlborough-road (which is the boundary between the parishes of St. Luke and Holy Trinity, Chelsea); and, proceeding down the centre of that road, in a south easterly direction, till it reaches James-street; then, proceeding in an easterly direction, at the backs of the houses on the south side of that street to Princes-street (which it crosses, and proceeds by an imaginary straight line in an easterly direction, towards Pavilion-street, across the Nursery-grounds, till it joins the Pavilion-grounds of Sir Francis Shuckburgh, Bart., and including the mansion, reaches Pavilion-street); then proceeds down the centre of that short street to Sloane-street, where the boundary commenced, as shewn on the map hereunto annexed, and therein tinted pink:

"That marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel, until which time they shall belong to the Rector of Upper Chelsea:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

*Church Commissioners' Office,
August 6, 1842.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning ecclesiastical districts to the church of St. Mary Magdalene, at Peckham, and to Emanuel Church, Camberwell, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, under the 21st section of the 58th Geo. 3., cap. 45:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th of June 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which

It is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:”

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” and by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches;” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, contained a population of thirty-nine thousand six hundred and seventy persons; that the parish church, which afforded accommodation to one thousand five hundred persons, has been destroyed by fire, and is about to be rebuilt:

“That there are four consecrated churches in the said parish, namely, the district parish church of St. George, which affords accommodation to one thousand seven hundred and thirty-four persons; Christ Church, which affords accommodation to one thousand one hundred persons; the church of St. Mary Magdalene, lately erected by your Majesty’s Commissioners, which affords accommodation to one thousand one hundred and ten persons, including three hundred and forty free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and Emanuel Church, also lately erected by your Majesty’s Commissioners, which affords accommodation to one thousand and eleven persons, including five hundred and eleven free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

“That the two said last-mentioned churches have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

“Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that ecclesiastical districts should, under the provisions of the twenty-first section of the said Statute, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, be divided from the said parish of Camberwell, and assigned to the said churches of St. Mary Magdalene and Emanuel, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said districts respectively, and for enabling the spiritual persons serving the said churches respectively to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to the said churches respectively, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such districts should be respectively named "The District Parish of St Mary Magdalene, Peckham," and "The District Parish of Emanuel, Camberwell."

The district parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Peckham, is to consist of the south eastern part of parish of Camberwell, and is bounded on the east by the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, on the south east by the parish of Lewisham, to where the hamlets of Camberwell and Peckham meet that parish, then proceeding in a northerly direction along the centre of Forest-hill-road, and the boundary line that divides the said two hamlets as far as South-street or Rye-lane, then up the centre of Rye-lane, including all the houses on the east side thereof, as far as Peckham-lane, then east along the centre of that lane, including all the houses on the south side thereof, as far as Meeting-house-lane, then north east along the centres of Meeting-house-lane and Asylum-road, including all the houses on the south east sides thereof, as far as George-street, in the Asylum-road, then down George-street to the Kent-road, including all the houses on the southermost side thereof, then in a south easterly direction along the centre of the said road, including all the houses on the westermost side thereof, as far as the point where the parishes of Camberwell and Deptford meet on that road, near to the Cobourg Public-house, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon tinted yellow.

The district parish of Emanuel, Camberwell, is to consist of the north western part of the parish, the boundary thereof, commencing at a point marked A opposite the Red Cap Public-house, and being the boundary line of Lambeth parish, and proceeding along the centre of the road north side of the Green, in an easterly direction to Waterloo-street, then proceeding down the centre of that street easterly in a direct line to the fence at the back of the mews behind the gardens of the houses in Havil-street, then returning northwards along the line of the said fence, and through the party-wall, between the houses, numbers one and two, Frederick-place to the centre of the road in Rumball-street, then running eastward along the centre of Rumball-street to the centre of John-street, then running northward along the centre of John-street to Southampton-street, then in a north west direction up the centre of Southampton-street to Martha-street, then south west up the centre of Martha-street to Edmond-street, opposite the Infant Schools, then north westerly along the centre of Edmond-street to Southampton-street, then proceeding in a westerly and south westerly direction up the centre of Southampton-street to the Camberwell Old-road, then returning southward up the centre of that road to the Wyndham-road, Bowyer-lane, then returning westward up the centre of the Wyndham-road to the point where the said road meets the boundary which divides the parishes of Camberwell and Lambeth, and proceeding along such boundary line as far as the point A on Camberwell-green, where the boundary commenced, as shewn on the map tinted green.

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed divisions and assignments be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

PROPERTY AND INCOME TAX.

Stamps and Taxes, Somerset House, London, August 10, 1842.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, for granting relief from the duties of assessed taxes in certain cases, and to provide for the assessing and charging the Property Tax on dividends payable out of the revenue of Foreign States, it is enacted, "that all persons intrusted with the payment of annuities, or any dividends or shares of annuities, payable out of the revenue of any Foreign State to any persons, corporations, companies, or societies in Great Britain, or acting therein as agents, or in any other character, shall, without further notice or demand thereof, deliver, or cause to be delivered, into the head office for Stamps and Taxes in England, an account in writing, containing their names and residences, and a description of the annuities, dividends, and shares intrusted to them for payment, within one calendar month, after the same shall have been required by public notice in the London Gazette," in order that an assessment may be made thereon, at the rate prescribed by the Act of the 5th and 6th Vict., cap. 35. Her Majesty's Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes do hereby give notice to all persons intrusted with the payment of any annuities, dividends, or shares of annuities, as above stated, that the accounts of the said annuities, &c. required by the said Act, are to be delivered, in writing, into the office for Stamps and Taxes, at Somerset House, in the county of Middlesex, addressed to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, within the space of one calendar month from the date hereof; and that any person who shall neglect or refuse to deliver such account, is, by the said Act, made subject to the forfeiture of one hundred pounds, over and above the duty chargeable on such annuities, shares or dividends.

By order of the Board,
Charles Pressly, Secretary.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 30th of August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards with Train or Pilchard and Pale Seal Oil.

A distribution of the oil and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Oil," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.

Calls.

Northern Coal Mining Company, King-Street, Norwich, August 8, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a call of £2 per share was this day made by the Directors, and payment thereof is required to be made, on or before the 28th day of September next, at either the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Joint Stock Bank, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; the East of England Bank, Norwich and Yarmouth; or the London and Westminster Joint Stock Bank, London.

Henry Harrod, Secretary.

Hayle Railway Company.

Rectory-House, London-Wall, London, August 10, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Meeting of the Proprietors of the Hayle Railway Company will be held, at their Offices, on Thursday the 1st day of September next, at one o'clock precisely, to receive the report of the Directors with reference to the proposed extension of the main line to Penzance; and the required alterations in the present line as connected therewith.

Immediately afterwards the usual Half-yearly General Meeting will be held, pursuant to the Company's Act.

By order of the Board,

R. S. F. Pike.

NOTE.

The Weekly Average Price of Wheat, for the Week ending 16th July, which was published in the Gazette of the 22d July as 65s. 8·006*d.* should have been 65s. 6.930*d.*; and the Weekly Average Price of Wheat, for the Week ending 23d July, which was published in the Gazette of the 29th July as 65s. 4.251*d.* should have been 65s. 3·563*d.* These differences arise from certain Returns of Wheat made to the Inspector of Corn Returns, at Leeds, which have been expunged as untrue and fraudulent, by authority of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, from the Returns of the above Weeks, in consequence of facts which have become known since the above mentioned Averages were published.

These errors in the Weekly Averages do not affect the Aggregate Weekly Averages of Wheat of 64s. 5*d.* and 64s. 7*d.* published in the Gazettes above referred to.

GEORGE JOYCE, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

Board of Trade, August 10, 1842.
