TUESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1842.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for endowing the archdeaconries of Exeter and Cornwall in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that in the cathedral church of Exeter, the canonry secondly vacant shall be subject to the provisions thereafter contained, respecting the endowment of archdeaconries by the annexation of canonries thereto; and it is further enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation, either of an entire canonry or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as shall be determined on, towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, provided that no canonry shall be so charged with the payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after the payment of such portion as aforesaid, shall amount to or exceed five hundred pounds:

"And whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that, upon the endowment of any archdeaconry by either of the modes of endowment therein provided, and with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the said Act, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment, may be vested in us for the purposes of the said Act:

"And whereas the canonry in the said cathedral church of Exeter, held by the late dean of the said church, is vacant, and is the canonry so secondly vacant according to the said recited Act; and it has been made to appear to us, that the future average annual income of a canonry in the said church will exceed seven hundred and fifty pounds:

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said canonry in the said cathedral church of Exeter shall become and be annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Exeter, and be held by the archdeacon of Exeter for the time being, so long as he shall hold such archdeaconry, and no longer; and that the Venerable John Moore Stevens, the present archdeacon of Exeter, being one of the prebendaries of the said cathedral church, and every future archdeacon of Exeter, although he may not be a prebendary of the said church, shall, as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with, and so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Exeter, and no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon residentiary of the same church, subject, nevertheless, to the charge upon the income of such canonry hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the only property now belonging to the said archdeaconry of Exeter is the sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, being the produce of the sale of a house formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry; we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said John Moore Stevens, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon his installation as aforesaid, the said sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock shall become and be vested in us for the purposes of the said recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Henry Bishop of Exeter, testified as aforesaid, that from and after such annexation as aforesaid, all sums of money, whether arising from rents, fines, compositions, dividends, or other emoluments whatsoever, from time to time payable, according to the statutes and customs of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, to the canon of the canonry so annexed, shall, as the same respectively become due and payable, be, by the treasurer or other proper officer for the time being, divided into three equal parts, and two only of such parts shall be paid to such canon, and the remaining third part shall be paid to the archdeacon of Cornwall for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to any of the matters to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the said Act.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the “ Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and “ Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Batley, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill endowed parishes or districts, by means of such exchange of advowsons, or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage, as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop in every such case :

“ And whereas the perpetual curacy of Morley, in the said parish of Batley, is in the alternate patronage of the Right Honourable James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy is a district parish, having a population exceeding two thousand, and an income below one hundred and fifty pounds, and, in all other respects except as to the patronage thereof, possesses the requisites for augmentation specified in our resolutions, as set forth in an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April last :

“ And whereas, in order to enable us to make an unconditional grant in augmentation of the income of the said perpetual curacy, in conformity with such resolutions, the said patrons are desirous and have agreed, that such their patronage shall be transferred to, and permanently vested in, the Vicar of Batley aforesaid :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and

propose, with the consent of the said James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton, and of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of the Reverend Andrew Cassels, the present Vicar of Batley aforesaid, testified by their having, respectively, signed and sealed this scheme, that the patronage and right of nomination or presentation to the said perpetual curacy of Morley shall become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, the said Andrew Cassels and his successors, Vicars of Batley, for ever.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Register of the diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at “ county elections,” it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Westmorland, in quarter sessions assembled, on the eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, shewing, that at the last contested election of Members to serve in Parliament for the county of Westmorland, great inconvenience arose from the number of townships in the Kendal ward, in the said county, the poll for which was appointed to be taken at Kendal; the petitioners, therefore, humbly pray, that the town of Milnthorpe, in the said ward, in the said county, be made an additional polling place in future, and that the poll for certain of the townships which have hitherto polled at Kendal be taken at the town of Milnthorpe, at all succeeding contested elections for Members to serve in Parliament:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, declare, order, and direct, that the said place named in the said petition, namely Milnthorpe, shall be an additional polling place for the said county, at all succeeding contested elections for Members to serve in Parliament for the said county of Westmorland; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Westmorland, assembled at the general quarter session or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned

Act, divide the said county of Westmorland into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a consolidated district to the chapel at Wingate Grange, in the parish of Castle Eden, taken from contiguous parts of the said parish of Castle Eden, and from the adjoining parish of Kelloe, all being situate in the county of Durham, under the 6th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d of June 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division; and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:”

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” reciting that a considerable population is frequently collected together at the extremities of, and locally situate in, parishes or extra-parochial places contiguous to each other, at a distance from the respective churches or chapels of such respective parishes or extra-parochial places, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such consent as is required by the said recited Act in the case of district parishes, to unite and consolidate any such contiguous parts of such parishes and extra-parochial places into a separate and distinct district for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to cause such district to be named, ascertained, and marked out by described bounds, and such name, and the description of such bounds, when approved by His Majesty in Council, to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese to which such district shall belong, under the provisions of this Act; and to make grants or loans for or towards the building of, or to build any chapel or chapels, with or without cemeteries, in and for the use of the inhabitants of any such district, in such manner, and under such regulations as may, in the judgment of the Commissioners, appear from the circumstances to be most expedient, and to constitute any such district a consolidated chapelry; and every such chapelry shall be under the superintendance of such spiritual person as shall be appointed under the provisions of this Act to serve any such chapel, and such spiritual person shall have cure of souls in such district; and the right of presentation and appointment of such spiritual person shall thenceforth belong to such person or persons, and be exercised in such manner as may be agreed by the several patrons of the churches or chapels of such parishes and extra-parochial places respectively, with the approbation of the Commissioners; and banns of marriage may be published, and marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials may be solemnized and performed in any such chapel, immediately and at all times after the consecration thereof, and the pew rents in such chapel shall be fixed, and salaries to the minister and clerk assigned therefrom, in such manner as is directed in the said recited Act or in this Act, concerning pew rents and salaries in separate or district parishes; and all fees and offerings which may arise and accrue within such chapelry, according to such table of fees as the Commissioners shall make, with the approbation of the bishop, may be demanded, received, sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, by the spiritual person having cure of souls therein, and by the clerk and sexton of such chapelries, in like manner as if every such chapelry was a distinct parish; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required in every such case, to ascertain and make compensation, in manner directed in like cases under the said recited Act, for any loss which may be sustained by the incumbent of any contiguous parish or extra-parochial place, which shall form part of any such district, by reason of any fees, oblations, and offerings, being transferred to the spiritual person serving any such chapel; and all such chapelries shall be deemed to be benefices, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop and archdeacon within whose diocese and archdeaconry the altar of such chapel shall be locally situate, and to all the laws in force concerning presentation and appointment to benefices and churches, and lapse, and all other laws relating to the holding of benefices and churches ; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital ; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church ; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates ; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate ; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not ; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding ; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding : ”

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; ” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘ An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; ’ ” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “ An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; ” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect :

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; ” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; ” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches ; ” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Castle Eden, in the county and diocese of Durham, contained a population of five hundred and fifty-eight persons ; and the adjoining parish of Kelloe, in the same county and diocese, contained a population of eleven thousand two hundred and twenty-three persons ; that the parish churches of Castle Eden and Kelloe together afford accommodation for seven hundred and thirty persons ; that a new chapel has been erected at Wingate, at the extremity of, and situate in, the said parish of Castle Eden, where it adjoins to the said parish of Kelloe, and which affords accommodation for four hundred and forty persons, including two hundred and ninety-three free seats appropriated to the use of the poor ; that the said chapel is distant two miles from the parish church of Castle Eden, and three miles and a half from the parish church of Kelloe, which are the places nearest to the said chapel appropriated to the celebration of divine service according to the rites of the Church of England ; that the extremities of the said parishes of Castle Eden and Kelloe, which lie contiguous to each other, at Wingate, and are delineated in the accompanying plan, contain a population of two thousand six hundred and twenty-five persons :

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances above mentioned, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the said contiguous parts of the said parishes of Castle Eden and Kelloe into a separate and distinct district, to be assigned to the said chapel at Wingate for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to constitute such district a consolidated chapelry, under the sixth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named "The Consolidated Chapelry District of Wingate Grange;" and consist of that portion of the parish of Castle Eden which forms the site of the church and church-yard, and those two portions of the township of Wingate, in the adjoining parish of Kelloe, which are called or known by the name of Wingate Estate and Wingate Grange Estate, being bounded on the north by the Durham and Castle Eden lane and the remaining part of the said township of Wingate in the said parish of Kelloe; on the east and south east by the said parish of Castle Eden and the enclosure walls of the church-yard which divide the same church-yard from the remainder of the said parish of Castle Eden, and by the township of Hutton Henry, in the parish of Monk Hesleton; on the south by another part of the said township of Wingate, in the said parish of Kelloe, and by the parish of Trimdon; and on the west by the townships of Kelloe and Thornley, in the said parish of Kelloe, as the same is more particularly described on the accompanying map or plan, and thereon tinted red and blue:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; and, in testimony of such his approbation, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
