The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for endowing the archdeaconries of Exeter and Cornwall in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that in the cathedral church of Exeter, the canonry secondly vacant shall be subject to the provisions thereafter contained, respecting the endowment of archdeaconries by the annexation of canonries thereto; and it is further enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation, either of an entire canonry or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as shall be determined on, towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, provided that no canonry shall be so charged with the payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after the payment of such portion as aforesaid, shall amount to or exceed five hundred pounds:

"And whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that, upon the endowment of any archdeaconry by either of the modes of endowment therein provided, and with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the said Act, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment, may be vested in us for the purposes of the said Act:

"And whereas the canonry in the said cathedral church of Exeter, held by the late dean of the said church, is vacant, and is the canonry so secondly vacant according to the said recited Act; and it has been made to appear to us, that the future average annual income of a canonry in the said church will exceed seven hundred and fifty pounds:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said canonry in the said cathedral church of Exeter shall become and be annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Exeter, and be held by the archdeacon of Exeter for the time being, so long as he shall hold such archdeaconry, and no longer; and that the Venerable John Moore Stevens, the present archdeacon of Exeter, being one of the prebendaries of the said cathedral church, and every future archdeacon of Exeter, although he may not be a prebendary of the said church, shall, as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with, and so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Exeter, and no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon residentiary of the same church, subject, nevertheless, to the charge upon the income of such canonry hereinafter mentioned :

“ And whereas the only property now belonging to the said archdeaconry of Exeter is the sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, being the produce of the sale of a house formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry ; we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said John Moore Stevens, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon his installation as aforesaid, the said sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock shall become and be vested in us for the purposes of the said recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Henry Bishop of Exeter, testified as aforesaid, that from and after such annexation as aforesaid, all sums of money, whether arising from rents, fines, compositions, dividends, stipends, or other emoluments whatsoever, from time to time payable, according to the statutes and customs of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, to the canon of the canonry so annexed, shall, as the same respectively become due and payable, be, by the treasurer or other proper officer for the time being, divided into three equal parts, and two only of such parts shall be paid to such canon, and the remaining third part shall be paid to the archdeacon of Cornwall for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to any of the matters, to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the said Act.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill endowed parishes or districts, by means of such exchange of advowsons, or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage, as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop in every such case :

“ And whereas the perpetual curacy of Morley, in the said parish of Batley, is in the alternate patronage of the Right Honourable James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy is a district parish, having a population exceeding two thousand, and an income below one hundred and fifty pounds, and, in all other respects except as to the patronage thereof, possesses the requisites for augmentation specified in our resolutions, as set forth in an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April last :

“ And whereas, in order to enable us to make an unconditional grant in augmentation of the income of the said perpetual curacy, in conformity with such resolutions, the said patrons are desirous and have agreed, that such their patronage shall be transferred to, and permanently vested in, the Vicar of Batley aforesaid :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton, and of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of the Reverend Andrew Cassels, the present Vicar of Batley aforesaid, testified by their having, respectively, signed and sealed this scheme, that the patronage and right of nomination or presentation to the said perpetual curacy of Morley shall become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, the said Andrew Cassels and his successors, Vicars of Batley, for ever.”

hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Register of the diocese of Ripon.

Whitehall, August 30, 1842.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen by the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. Secretary of State for the Home Department, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the county palatine of Durham, in county meeting assembled, beg leave to tender to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the escape of your Majesty from the late deplorable and traitorous attempts on your Majesty's invaluable life.

We are not induced thus to approach your Majesty, merely because we see in your Majesty the firm and unwavering supporter of those great principles which originally established the family of your Majesty on the throne of these realms, and which still insures the devotion of your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects to the monarchy, and their attachment to your Majesty's sacred person, but we desire to express our admiration of the heroic self-possession, and the lofty courage which induced your Majesty, notwithstanding the second attempt on the life of your Majesty, to continue your Majesty's confidence in the loyalty and love of the people, by persevering in coming among them; and we no less admire the considerate care extended by your Majesty to the attendants on your Majesty's person, in the contemplation of probable danger.

We are happy to express our gratification, that the loyalty we entertain for your Majesty on public grounds, is thus strengthened and confirmed by such services of well founded and personal devotion to your Majesty; and we, therefore, with the most affectionate sincerity, as well as with the most unfeigned loyalty, congratulate your Majesty, and humbly and fervently pray, that it will please God still to protect the life of your Majesty, and to continue for many years the blessings of your Majesty's example and reign to your Majesty's faithful and devoted people.

Signed, in the name and on behalf of the meeting,
