And whereas by the said Act, such regulations have been made and provided for the prevention of frauds by the admixture of spirits made from rice, grain, or other substances, not being the produce of the sugar cane, or of the date or palm tree, with the rum or rum shrub to be exported under the Act of Parliament hereinafter men-

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord FitzGerald, President of

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Chester, at a general quarter session of the peace holden at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on Monday the twenty-seventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and, therefore, praying that Grappenhall and Altrincham, severally situated within such division, may henceforth be additional polling places for the said northern division of the said county of Chester:
