

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Footscray Chapel, situated at Footscray, in the parish of Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, in the district of Bromley, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of October 1842, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 11th day of October 1842,

Henry Nottingham, Superintendent Registrar.

In the matter of Letters Patent granted to David Stead, formerly of Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, and now of George-street, Adelphi, in the county of Middlesex, Merchant, for "Making or Paving Public Streets and Highways, and Public and Private Roads, Courts, and Bridges, with Timber or Wooden Blocks," bearing date at Westminster, 19th May 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of the second section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;"

I, David Stead, the patentee of the said letters patent, bearing date the 19th May 1838, for making or paving public streets and highways, and public and private roads, courts, and bridges, with timber or wooden blocks, intend to petition Her Most Gracious Majesty in Council, to confirm the said letters patent, or to grant new letters patent.

And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made, on the 19th day of November next (or so soon afterwards as Counsel can be heard), to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition.—Dated the 14th day of October 1842.

D. Stead, George-street, Adelphi.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the trustees of John Kendrick's charity, in the borough of Reading, under the sanction of the High Court of Chancery, to sell or exchange all or any part or parts of the lands, hereditaments, and other property vested in them as such trustees; and to purchase other lands, or to grant building leases of all or any part of such lands and hereditaments, for such terms, and to take such fines, and reserve such rents on the said leases, as may be deemed proper; and to pay and apply the moneys to arise by such sale or fines, and the rents reserved upon any of such leases; and to hold the said lands, or any lands purchased or taken in exchange, to and for, and upon such objects, trusts, intents, and purposes, consistently with the nature of the said charity, as shall be sanctioned and ordered by the said Court of Chancery.

Gregory, Faulkner, Gregory, and Bourdillon, Bedford-row, Agents for the Bill;
J. J. Blandy, Reading, Solicitor and Clerk to the Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, or alter, amend, and enlarge, so as to consolidate in one Act of Parliament, the powers and provisions of a certain Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Second, c. 26, intituled "An Act for cleansing and enlightening the open places, streets, and other passages, and regulating the nightly watch and bedels in the parish of Saint Mathew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex;" and also of another Act, passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 88, intituled "An Act for paving and repairing certain streets, lanes, and other publick passages and places in the parish of Saint Mathew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for paving and regulating such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" and also another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 113, intituled "An Act for the better relief and maintenance of the poor, and for making a more adequate provision for the rector of the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for more effectually lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the streets and other public places of and within the said parish;" and also of a general Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, c. 50, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the highways of that part of Great Britain called England," so far as relates to the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

By which Bill it is intended to repeal the rating clauses in the said Acts, and in lieu thereof to authorize the laying of different graduated rates on various descriptions of property in the said parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, whereby the present authorized assessments of such rates will be altered; and generally to remodel the existing system of rating such property, and to consolidate and extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts for assessing and levying the rates so amended, so that the commissioners to be appointed may, by such intended Act, have the sole control of paving, lighting, and cleansing the
