IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge;" and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £36, the remaining part of an annuity or annual sum of £200, granted in respect of the sum of £5000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 3d day of May 1832, and numbered 11—9; and also the sum of £600, the annuity granted in respect of the sum of £15,000, secured by three bonds or obligations of £5000 each, and numbered 11—10, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the said 3d May 1832, and No. 12—1 and 2, bearing date the 3d August 1832; and also the annual sum of £36, part of the annuity or annual sum of £200, granted in respect of the sum of £5000, secured by one bond or obligation, numbered 12—3, under the common seal of the said city, and bearing date the said 3d August 1832; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sums of £900, £15,000, and £900, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £36, £600, and £36, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sums of £36, £600, and £36 will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons, at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said Office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said Office the said sums of £900, £15,000, and £900, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £36, £600, and £36, up to the day expressed in such decla-tation for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £36, £600, and £36 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing certain waste grounds and commonable lands, called Horder's-wood, otherwise Walthamchase, Sherrill-heath, and Shidfield-green, situate in the parish of Droxford, in the county of Southampton; and for extinguishing all rights of common and other rights in, upon, and over the same; and that it is intended to make provision in the said Act for defraying the expences of applying for and passing the same, and making compensation for any existing rights, payments, or fees, now payable in respect of such waste grounds and commonable lands, or the timber growing thereon, and carrying the said Act into execution by sale of a portion of the said waste grounds and commonable lands, and in case the moneys to be raised by such sale shall not be sufficient to defray such expences, then by a rate on the proprietors or persons entitled to allotments of the said waste grounds and commonable lands for the deficiency, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Act.—Dated this fourteenth day of October 1842.

W. and C. J. Gunner, Solicitors.

Scarborough Harbour.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the Commissioners for improving the pier and harbour of Scarborough, for a Bill to continue, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enlarge the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to enlarge the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York,' and for making the said Act more effectual;" another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the duties, and enlarging the powers granted by two Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties granted by three Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the third year of His present Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties and altering the powers granted by four Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the third and eighteenth years of His present Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of several Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of King George the Second, and in the third, eighteenth, and forty-first years of His present Majesty, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties and altering the powers granted by six several Acts of their late Majesties King George the Second and King George the Third, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of the third year of His present Majesty, for continuing and altering six former Acts of their late Majesties King George the Second and King George the Third, for enlarging the piers and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant other powers, provisions, and authorities in lieu thereof, for the government and regulation of the said piers and harbour, and the several works belonging thereto or connected therewith.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill powers will be contained for deepening and improving the said harbour, and for making and maintaining certain additions to the present piers, and also one or more new and additional pier or piers, jetty or jetties within the said harbour, and particularly for taking down the present west pier, and erecting another on or near the site thereof. All which new works will be situate wholly within the township of Scarborough, in the parish of Scarborough, in the north riding of the county of York. Duplicate plans and sections of which intended works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the north riding of the county of York, at his office at Northallerton, in the same county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Scarborough and the liberties thereof, at his office in the said borough of Scarborough, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of Scarborough aforesaid, at his usual place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that in the said Bill provision will be made for levying new, and altering the existing, tolls, rates, or duties; for varying or extinguishing exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and certain rights and privileges, and for conferring others; and for fixing the period at which the several tolls and duties now authorized to be taken and collected shall cease to be payable.—Dated this fourth day of October 1842. By order,

John Cook, Clerk to the Commissioners of the Scarborough piers and harbour.

Hull and Selby Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Kingston-upon-Hull to Selby;" and to enable the Company incorporated by the said Act to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking, either by the creation of new shares, or by mortgage, or in part by each of those means, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Act.

And it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for, to enable the said Hull and Selby Railway Company to pay off the money which the said Company have borrowed, or part thereof, by the creation of additional shares or capital.—Dated the twenty-fourth day of October 1842.

Chas. H. Phillips, Law Clerk of the said Company.

Oriental, Colonial, and General Life Assurance Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate the legal proceedings of the Oriental, Colonial, and General Life Assurance, Endowment, and Loan Annuity, and Reversionary Company; and to enable the said company to sue and be sued in the name of its manager or any one of its directors; and to grant other powers and privileges to the said company.—Dated this fifteenth day of October 1842.

Edward Strick, 52, Lincoln's-inn-fields;
J. Beardmore Wathen, 28, St. Swithin's-lane; joint Solicitors of the said Company.

Cliffe-cum-Lund intended Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the commons, commonable lands, open common fields, ings, meadows, pastures, oxgangs, wastes, and waste grounds in the township of Cliffe-cum-Lund, in the parish of Hemingbrough, in the east riding of the county of York; and it is intended to defray the expences of obtaining the Act and carrying the same into execution by sale of part of the said commons, and also by a rate on the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed.—Selby, October 1, 1842.

Matt. Pearson, Solicitor, Selby.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Commissioners for executing the provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King James the First, intituled "An Act for making the river of Thames navigable for barges, boats, and lighters, from the village of Bercot, in the county of Oxon, unto the University and city of Oxon;" to sell certain wharfs, buildings, and hereditaments, vested in them, and for authorizing the appropriation of the money arising from such sale, and all other the money in the hands of the said Commissioners; and for altering and amending some of the powers and provisions of such Act.—Dated this tenth day of October 1842. By order,

H. and J. Walsh, Clerks and Solicitors to the Commissioners.

The Liverpool New Gas and Coke Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting with oil gas the town of Liverpool, and certain places adjacent thereto;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to empower the Liverpool oil gas-light company to produce gas from coal and other materials, and to amend the Act relating to the said company."

And it is intended by the said Bill to empower the Liverpool New Gas and Coke Company, incorporated by the said two several recited Acts, to light with gas the several townships and places of Walton-on-the-Hill and Bootle-cum-Linacre, respectively, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and the several townships or places of Litherland and Great Crosby, in the parish of Sephton, in the said county; and the several townships and places of Childwall, Much Woolton, Little Woolton, Wavertree, Allerton, and Garston, in the parish of Childwall, in the said county, or some of them, and to make and levy rates, rents, or charges for the furnishing of such light. And generally to exercise such powers, rights, and privileges within the said townships and places as the said company is or may be empowered to exercise within the town and parish of Liverpool, in the said county, and the several townships or places of Toxteth-park, Everton, Kirkdale, and West Derby, in the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill.

And further it is intended to insert in the said Bill provisions enabling the said company to raise a further sum of money, and to increase their present capital by the creation of new shares, or by such other means as may be deemed expedient.—Dated this 26th day of October 1842.

John Buck Lloyd, Solicitor to the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge, or to repeal some of the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the town of Lancaster to the town of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and of another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Company to raise a further sum of money, and to amend the Act relating to such railway." And to enable the said Company to lease their railway, works and other property to any Company or person, and to enable such Company or person to accept such lease, and also to specify and limit the amount of rates to be charged for the carriage of passengers upon the said railway; and otherwise to amend the said Acts.—Dated this 28th day of October 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a turnpike road from the town of Cromford to the town of Belper, and for making a branch of road from and out of the said road, near the river Amber, to join the turnpike road, at Bull-bridge, all in the county of Derby;" or to repeal the said Act, and grant more effectual powers instead thereof; and in the said Bill provision is intended to be made to alter or increase the existing tolls authorised to be collected by the said Act, and to levy additional tolls upon the said roads, and to vary or extinguish certain exemptions from payment of toll contained in the said Act, and to adopt wholly or in part, the exemptions, rights, and privileges contained in the Acts now in force, relating to turnpike roads in England; and also to repeal certain restrictions as to the position of the toll gate, near the said town of Belper, and to make certain alterations in the application of the tolls and sums of money collected upon or in respect of the said roads.—Dated this twenty-seventh day of October 1842.

James Milnes, Clerk to the Trustees or Commissioners of the above turnpike roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for establishing a Company for better supplying with water the inhabitants of the several townships and places of Saint Helens, otherwise the hamlet of Hardshaw within Windle, Windle, Parr, Sutton, Eccleston, and Prescott, all within the parish of Prescott, in the county of Lancaster; and, for such purposes, power will be applied for to enable the Company so to be established, to obtain a supply of water from certain springs or streams, and to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs, and other proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and also to make aqueducts and other works; such springs, streams, reservoir or reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works being, or to be, situate in, and to pass from, through, or into the said several townships and extra-parochial or other places of Saint Helens, otherwise Hardshaw within Windle, Windle, Parr, Sutton, Eccleston, and Prescott, all in the said parish of Prescott; and to enable such Company to rent or purchase any existing watercourses, reservoir or reservoirs, waterworks or pipes, and to take and collect rates or rents for such supply of water.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the before-mentioned reservoir or reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at Preston, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of such plans, sections, and books of reference, with the Parish Clerk of the said parish of Prescott, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this first day of November 1842.

Rowson and Cross, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the better drainage of the marshes and low lands within the several parishes of Postwick, Brundall, Witton, Bradeston, Strumpshaw, Buckenham, Hasingham, Cantley, Limpenhoe, and Reedham, or some of them, in the county of Norfolk; under which Act powers will be applied for of levying rates upon the owners or occupiers of the said lands, in respect of the drainage thereof.

And it is intended by the said Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, entitled "An Act for making a railway from Great Yarmouth to Norwich, in the county of Norfolk;" and to enable the company thereby incorporated to erect engines, and to do, or participate in or contribute towards the doing of all such other acts as may be necessary for carrying into effect the drainage aforesaid, and to raise a further sum of money for such purpose.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorize the appointment of a stipendiary magistrate in and for the parishes, townships, or hamlets of Merthyr Tydvil, Gellygare, Brithdir, Aberdare, Ystrad-y-fodog, and Rhigos, or some of them, or some parts thereof, in the county of Glamorgan, and Penderin, or part thereof, in the county of Brecon; and to provide for the payment, by salary, of such magistrate, and his officers and assistants; and also for the erection and maintenance of a proper court-house, offices, and other conveniences; and to amend and enlarge the powers and duties of the magistracy, and of the police within the said parishes, townships, and hamlets, or parts thereof.

And, for carrying the objects of the said intended Act into execution, it is proposed thereby to obtain powers of levying rates to be assessed on the occupiers of houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the before-mentioned parishes, townships, and hamlets, or such parts thereof as may be included within the limits of the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to authorise certain alterations or deviations of the line of the Great North of England Railway, as at present authorised to be made, and the making and maintaining of new lines of railway within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, in lieu of those parts of the original line of the said railway, so proposed to be altered and deviated, that is to say;

One of such deviations or new lines of railway, commencing on the line of the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway, as authorised to be made by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, in a field numbered 31 on the plan of the said railway referred to in the said Act, and being in the parishes of Saint Oswald and Shincliffe, or one of them, and township of Shincliffe, in the county of Durham, belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Durham, passing thence in or through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint Oswald, Shincliffe, Sunderland-bridge, Kelloe, Cassop, Quarrington, Bishop Middleham, Cornforth, Merrington, Ferryhill, Hett, and Thrislington, or some of them, in the said county of Durham, and terminating on the line of the said Great North of England Railway, in a field numbered 3 on the plans of the said last mentioned railway, referred to in the Act authorising the construction thereof, and being in the parishes of Merrington and Ferryhill, or one of them, and township of Ferryhill, in the said county of Durham, belonging to Marmaduke Salvin, Esquire.

Another of such deviations or new lines of railway, commencing on the line of the said Great North of England Railway, in a field numbered 8 on the said plans of the said last mentioned railway, in the township of Chilton, in the said parishes of Merrington and Ferryhill, or one of them, belonging to Mrs. Ann Surtees and Robert Lambton Surtees, Esquire, passing thence in or through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places of Merrington, Ferryhill, Bishop Middleham, Mainsforth, Chilton, Great Aycliffe, Woodham, Sedgfield, Bradbury, Morden, Preston-le-Skerne, and Heighington, or some of them, in the said county of Durham, and terminating on the line of the said Great North of England Railway, in a field numbered 2 on the said last mentioned plans, in the parish of Great Aycliffe and township of Preston-le-Skerne, belonging to James Watson, Esquire.

And another of such deviations or new lines of railway, commencing on the line of the said Great North of England Railway, in a field numbered 7 on the said last mentioned plans, in the parish of Great Aycliffe, and township of Preston-le-Skerne, in the county of Durham, belonging to James Watson, Esquire, passing thence in or through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Great Aycliffe, Preston-le-Skerne, Brafferton, Haughton-le-Skerne, Coatham Mundeville, and Heighington, or some of them, in the said county of Durham, and terminating on the line of the said Great North of England Railway, where the same crosses the road leading from Coatham Mundeville, to Brafferton, in the parish of Great Aycliffe, and township of Brafferton, in the said county of Durham.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act or Acts, to take powers to deviate in the construction of the said new lines of railway, to such extent as will be shewn on the plans thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to abandon so much of the original line of the said Great North of England Railway, and of the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway, as will be rendered useless, by reason of the said deviations thereof; and also power to alter the levels and gradients of the Great North of England Railway as at present authorised to be made within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saint Oswald, Shincliffe, Merrington, Ferryhill, Cornforth, Bishop Middleham, Thrislington, Mainsforth, Chilton, Great Aycliffe, Preston-le-Skerne, Brafferton, Coatham Mundeville, Haughton-le-Skerne, Heighington, and Darlington, or some of them, in the said county of Durham, to such extent as will be shewn on the sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And it is further proposed to take powers of levying tolls for and in respect of the use of the said altered or new lines of Railway; and notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended deviations in the line of the said Great North of England Railway, or new lines of railway, proposed to be made as aforesaid, and sections shewing the levels and gradients of the said Great North of England Railway as proposed to be altered, together with books of reference to the said plans, shewing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said intended deviations or new lines of railway, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Durham, at his office in the city of Durham; and that copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, respectively, as relate to the several parishes, in or through which such deviations or new lines of railway, or such alterations of the levels and gradients of the said Great North of England Railway are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the Parish Clerks of those parishes respectively; and notice is hereby lastly given, that by the Act or Acts so to be applied for, it is intended to alter and amend some of the provisions of the Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, incorporating the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company, and to enlarge the powers thereby conferred on the said company; and also to alter and amend, or repeal the provisions of the several Acts relating to the said Great North of England Railway Company, respectively passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the Fourth, and the first, second, fourth, and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, or some of them, so far as the same relate to that portion of the said Great North of England Railway, which the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company are authorised to purchase by their said Act of Incorporation; and to revive the powers originally granted to the said Great North of England Railway Company, and extend the period limited by the said Acts for the purchase and taking of lands for the purposes of the said last mentioned portion of railway, or to confer new and extended powers for such purpose on the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, empowering the Reverend Hector Davies Morgan, of Castle Heddingham, in the county of Essex, Clerk, or the said Hector Davies Morgan, together with other persons named in the said Bill, to erect and maintain a new market place, in Saint Mary's-street, in the town of Cardigan, in the county of Cardigan, with all necessary buildings, and to regulate the markets to be held therein; and also to authorise the said Hector Davies Morgan, his heirs and assigns, or the said Hector Davies Morgan, and the said other persons in the said Bill named, their heirs and assigns, to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the said market.

Evans and Morgan, Solicitors for the said Bill.

Berwick-upon-Tweed Corporation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for settling and establishing the rights of the resident freemen and resident widows of freemen of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in the property vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of that borough, and for other purposes relative thereto: in which Bill powers will be contained authorizing the council of the said borough to sell such part or parts as they shall think proper, of certain lands and hereditaments, called or known by the name or description of Treasurer's Farms, and situate within the parish of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and to apply the produce of such sales (after payment of costs, charges, and expences) in discharging the principal moneys due upon or in respect of certain existing bonds under the common seal of the mayor, bailiffs, and burgesses, or of the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or any bonds which shall be given by the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, under the sanction of the Court of Chancery; and, if any surplus shall remain, in the purchase of land, or in such other manner as may be deemed expedient.

And in which Bill provision will also be made declaring the trusts upon which certain lands and hereditaments, respectively called or known by the name or description of Meadows, Stints in lieu of Meadows, Stints, and Treasurer's Farms, shall in future be held by the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, and the mode of applying the rents, issues, and profits thereof: and provision will also be made for varying or extinguishing certain existing rights and privileges, and for conferring others; and in the said Bill will be contained such other powers and provisions as may be considered proper or expedient with reference to the several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or referred to.—Dated this twenty-fourth day of October 1842.

Meggison, Pringle, and Co. 3, King's-road, Bedford-row, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's woods, forests, land revenues, works, and buildings, to widen and improve the carriage road and south side footway of so much of the street called Piccadilly, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, as lies between Bolton-street on the east, and Park-lane on the west; and to take and use for that purpose (by Her Majesty's permission) so much of Her Majesty's park, called the Green-park, in the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, as will make the said street, called Piccadilly, from Bolton-street to Park-lane, of an uniform width of seventy feet, or thereabouts: and that it is intended by the said Act to sever the portion of the said park so to be taken and used as aforesaid, from the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, and to annex the same to the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square; and to provide that, after the said street shall have been widened and improved, and the ground proposed to be added thereto from the said park shall have been first levelled and paved by the said Commissioners, the same shall thereafter be maintained and kept in repair by and at the expence of the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square.—Dated this 28th day of October 1842.

By order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings,

Pemberton, Crawley, and Gardiner,
20, Whitehall-place, Westminster.
