FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1842.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of November 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of November instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the thirteenth day of December next.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of November 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law of bankruptcy," it was enacted, amongst other things, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, after the passing of that Act, by a Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal, to appoint as many persons as Her Majesty should think fit, not exceeding twelve persons, being Serjeants, or Barristers at Law of not less than seven years' standing at the Bar, to be Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, in addition to the present Commissioners of the said Court, to act in the prosecution of fiats in bankruptcy in the country; and that any one or more of such additional Commissioners should and might form a District Court of Bankruptcy, for the purpose of the said Act; and that every such Court should be authorized to act in the prosecution of fiats in bankruptcy in the country, at such place, and in and for such district, as Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, should be pleased to direct; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, to describe and, from time to time, to alter the limit and extent of every such district as to Her Majesty should seem fit: and whereas Her Majesty has appointed twelve additional Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy to act in the prosecution of fiats in bankruptcy in the country, and it is expedient to settle the districts in and for which such Commissioners shall so act, and to describe the limit and extent of every such district; Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that, for the purpose of the said recited Act, there shall be seven districts in the country, and that such several districts shall be called, respectively, by the names following, that is to say,

And the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District shall comprehend all places locally situated in any of the several counties hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,

The county of Northumberland,
The county of Durham,
The county of Cumberland, and
The county of Westmoreland;
And also the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed;

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered and directed, that if any part of any county hereinbefore mentioned, which is detached from the main body of such county, but for which no sufficient provision is hereinbefore made, shall be surrounded by two or more counties, or divisions, or ridings, or parts, then every such detached part shall be considered as forming part of that county or division, riding or parts, with which such detached part shall have the longest common boundary.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of November 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting that, by the Law of Navigation, foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is enacted, that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not, in all respects, be fulfilled by such foreign country; and it is thereby provided, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Orders to be by Him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges :

And whereas it hath been made to appear to the satisfaction of Her Majesty in Council, that the Government of Portugal hath fulfilled the conditions hereinbefore mentioned :

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Her Majesty in Council by the said recited Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared accordingly, that the Government of Portugal hath fulfilled the conditions hereinbefore mentioned; and that Portuguese ships may import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the Portuguese dominions, goods, the produce of the Portuguese dominions, and may export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent Portuguese ships from trading with any of the British possessions in Europe, to such extent and in such manner as they lawfully may under the Law of Navigation now in force :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Windsor-Castle, November 3, 1842.

THE following Addresses, upon the second attempt to assassinate Her Majesty, having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, were presented accordingly by the Marquess of Exeter to His Royal Highness, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town and county of Southampton.

From the Inhabitants of the town of Southampton.

At the Court at Windsor-Castle, October 31, 1842.

The Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, hath been graciously pleased, by letters patent under Her royal sign manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to grant unto His Majesty Frederick Augustus King of Saxony, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, at Dresden, on the 8th October instant, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Majesty had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whitehall, November 3, 1842.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend George Butler, D.D. the deanry of Her Majesty's cathedral church of Peterborough, void by the resignation of the Reverend Doctor Thomas Turton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for effecting an exchange between the Most Noble William Spencer Duke of Devonshire, and the Reverend Bernard Moore, Rector of the rectory of Staveley, in the county of Derby, of certain pieces or parcels of land, in the parish of Staveley aforesaid, the property of the said Duke, for the mines and minerals under certain lands in the same parish, belonging to the said Bernard Moore, as Rector of the rectory of Staveley aforesaid.—Dated this twentieth day of October 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for the division of the parish of Darfield, in the west riding of the county of York, into two parishes or districts for ecclesiastical purposes, by separating the townships of Worsborough and Wombwell from the other portions of the parish of Darfield, and converting those two townships into a distinct and separate parish or district; and for the endowment of such separate parishes or districts out of the proceeds of the present rectory of Darfield; and for vesting the patronage of the same in the patron of the rectory of Darfield; and also for providing one or more parsonage house or houses for the incumbents of such separate parishes or districts, or one of them; and for extending to the said Bill the provisions of the several Acts for promoting the building of additional churches; and for raising money by rates or pew rents, or by such other means as may be deemed advisable.

And in the said Bill will be contained all such clauses, powers, and provisions as may be deemed necessary or advisable for carrying the said division into full and complete effect.—Dated this fifteenth day of October 1842.

Yarborough and Adams, Solicitors, No. 44, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the commissioners acting under the authority of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend an Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, for improving and rendering more commodious the port of Ipswich, and for constructing a wet dock there;" and of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth and fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to enable the Ipswich dock commissioners to raise a further sum of money;" for leave to bring in a Bill to empower the said commissioners to increase the duty imposed by the said first-mentioned Act, upon every ton weight of coals, coke, and cinders, and (in proportion) for any less quantity imported or loaded within the river Orwell, or town of Ipswich, or the harbour thereof, or otherwise brought or delivered within the limits of the said first-mentioned Act, from 1s. per ton to any sum not exceeding 1s. 6d. per ton, and so in proportion for any less quantity; or otherwise to impose an additional duty upon every ton weight of such coals, coke, and cinders, not exceeding 6d. per ton over and above the duty imposed by the said first-mentioned Act; and also to empower the said commissioners to borrow and take up at interest a further sum of money on the credit of the said increased duty, and of the rates and duties already granted by the said several Acts hereinbefore referred to, in order to enable them to complete and improve the works by the said first-mentioned Act authorized and directed to be performed, and otherwise to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said several Acts.—Dated this eleventh day of October 1842.

William Rodwell,
John Chevallier Cobbold, } Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near certain mineral fields, situate at Brymbo, in the parish of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, and terminating at or near lower King's Ferry, situate on the river Dee, in the parish of Hawarden, in the county of Flint; and which railway and works will be situated in, or will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, and Hope and Havarden, in the county of Flint, or some of them; and also to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near the said mineral fields, in the parish of Wrexham aforesaid, and terminating at or near Upper King's Ferry, situate on the river Dee, in the parish of Broughton, in the county of Flint; and which railway and works will be situated in, or will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Wrexham, and Hope, and Broughton aforesaid, or some of them; and also to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near the town of Ruabon, in the parish of Ruabon, in the county of Denbigh, and terminating by a junction with the Chester and Birkenhead railway, at or near Chester, in the parish of Saint Oswalds, in the county of the city of Chester, with a branch therefrom, commencing at or near Wrexham, in the parish of Wrexham aforesaid, and terminating at or near certain mineral fields, situate at Brymbo aforesaid; which said last mentioned railway will be situated in, or will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Ruabon and Wrexham aforesaid, Gresford, in the said county of Denbigh, Pulford, in the county of Chester, Broughton, in the said county of Flint, Saint Mary on the Hill, in the said county of Chester, and Saint Mary on the Hill, Trinity, Saint Martin, and Saint Oswald, in the county of the city of Chester; and it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said railways and other works from the lines or situations thereof, as laid down in the plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to such extent as will be shewn or defined on such plans, and to alter, vary, and divert such highways, roads, railways, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, and watercourses within the parishes and places hereinbefore mentioned, as it may be necessary to divert for the purpose of constructing the said railways, and the works connected therewith respectively.

And it is further intended to take power by the said Bill to incorporate a company, for the purpose of making the said intended railways, or some or one of them, and the works connected therewith respectively, with powers to levy and take rates, tolls, and sums of money upon and in respect of the use thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the before mentioned railways and works, and the lands and hereditaments required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and hereditaments respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November 1842, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, at his office, at Ruthin; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Flint, at his office, at Mold; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office, at Chester; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the city of Chester, at his office, at Chester; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes, through which the said railways would pass, will be deposited, or or before the 31st day of December next, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this 18th day of October 1842.

Timothy Tyrrell, Guildhall, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill to alter and amend an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better lighting with gas the town of Brighton and the several places therein mentioned, in the county of Sussex." Dated this 17th day of October 1842.

8, Ship-street, Brighton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable a certain Company or Partnership, called the Cambrian Iron and Spelter Company, to sue and be sued in the name of a director or some officer of the said Company or Partnership for the time being, for making certain regulations relative to the amount of the capital of the said Company or Partnership, and for conferring other powers, rights, and privileges on the said Company or Partnership.—Dated this 28th day of October 1842.

Tilson, Squance, and Tilson, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh year of the reign of King William the Fourth, and in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act for making a railway from the London and Croydon railway to Brighton, with branches to Shoreham, Newhaven, and Lewes;” and that in the said Bill powers and provisions will be inserted, authorizing the London and Brighton Railway Company to raise a further sum of money.—Dated this 21st day of October 1842.

Sweet, Sutton, Ewens, and Ommanney, 6, Basinghall-street, London; H. Faithfull, Brighton; Solicitors to the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled “An Act for draining and preserving certain fen lands and low grounds in the isle of Ely, and counties of Suffolk and Norfolk, between Mildenhall river, south Plant-lode, and Brandon river north, bounded on the west by the river Ouse, and on the east by Winter-load, Earswell-brooke, and the hard lands of Mildenhall, and for empowering the governor, bailiffs, and commonalty of the company of the conservators of the great level of the fens, commonly called Bedford-level, to sell certain fen lands lying within the limits aforesaid, commonly called Invested-lands,” so far as the same relates to the lands and grounds included in the second district in the said Act described; and also of an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual so much of an Act of the thirty-third year of His late Majesty, for draining certain fen lands in the isle of Ely, and counties of Suffolk and Norfolk, near Mildenhall river, and empowering the conservators of Bedford level to sell certain fen lands, as relates to the lands in the second district described in the said Act;” or to repeal the whole or some of the provisions of the said Acts before referred to, and to grant more effectual powers, rights, and privileges instead thereof.

And it is intended by the said Bill to alter the rates, taxes, and tolls authorized to be levied by the said Acts, or one of them, within the said second district, and to collect additional rates, taxes, and tolls, or to substitute other rates, taxes, and tolls in lieu of some or all of such rates, taxes, and tolls, and to regulate the collection and recovery thereof; and also to confer, vary, and extinguish certain exemptions from rates, taxes, and tolls, and other rights and privileges conferred by the said Acts, or any of the Acts hereinafter mentioned.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to alter the boundary of the said second district, and to include in the said Bill, or to extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts, if the same be not repealed, to all the lands and grounds situate in the said parish of Mildenhall, and in the parishes of Lakenheath and Eriswell, in the said county of Suffolk, as are included within the under-mentioned boundary (that is to say); from the south west end of the Cross-bank of the Burnt fen, first district, by the north bank of the Mildenhall river, to a certain place called Bailey’s-gravel, at West-row, and thence along the skirts of the hard lands of Mildenhall-rows to a drove-way at the south west corner of Littlely field, and from thence by the skirts of the hard lands of Holywell-row and the south east edge of the Poor’s fen to Peavor’s-lode, otherwise Eriswell-brook, and along the east side of the said brook to a bridge over the same on the road leading from Undley to Lakenheath, and thence along the south side of the said road to the north east corner of the Cross-bank by Cupolagate, and thence along the said Cross-bank to the north bank of Mildenhall river and the south west end of the said Cross-bank; and to repeal so much of four several Acts, passed in the thirteenth, thirty-seventh, and forty-seventh years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, for draining certain fen lands in the isle of Ely, and counties of Suffolk and Norfolk, near Mildenhall river, as authorizes the draining of any of the last-mentioned lands and grounds included within the before-mentioned and described boundary; and the collection of certain rates, taxes, and tolls in respect of the same; and to exclude the operation of such last-mentioned Acts from such lands and grounds; and also under certain regulations and restrictions to authorize the levying and collection of rates and taxes upon the occupiers of such last-mentioned lands so to be included as aforesaid.—Dated this seventeenth day of October 1842.

THE creditors under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against James Moody Taylor, of Clement's-lane, in the city of London, Bookseller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 25th day of November instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to decide upon accepting or refusing any offer of composition then and there to be made by the said bankrupt or his friends.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Francis Carey, of Nottingham, in the county of Nottingham, Hatter, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Saturday the 26th day of November instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupt, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees commencing and prosecuting certain actions at law against Messrs. Sambourne and Bell, Messrs. Berry and Son, and Messrs. Sharp and Ojell, to recover certain moneys received by them from the bankrupt or his estate, and paid by the bankrupt or by his direction to them, under the circumstances which will be stated at such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, or adjusting such debts or claims, or submitting the same to arbitration; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Cooper, Edward Peter Cooper, Benjamin Cooper, and John Alexander Cooper, all of Staverton-mills, near Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, Clothiers, Dealers and Chapmen, Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 8th day of November instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Heathcote and Holman, No. 47, Coleman-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the assignees disposing of the remaining outstanding debts of the said bankrupts' estate to the said bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person, at such price and upon such conditions as will be stated at the said meeting.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt duly awarded and issued forth against Charles Bonner, of Spalding, in the county of Lincoln, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving assignee of the estate and effects of the said Charles Bonner, and also the assignees of the estate and effects of one Thomas Pulvertoft, acting under an Order of the Court of Review, dated the 12th day of January 1838, in the winding up and realization of the joint estate and effects of the said Charles Bonner, Thomas Pulvertoft, and John Calthrop, and one Thomas Gaunt, on Thursday the 1st day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting or refusing a certain offer to compromise a certain suit in Chancery now depending, in which the said assignee of the estate and effects of the said Charles Bonner, and the assignees of the said Thomas Pulvertoft, John Calthrop, and Thomas Gaunt, respectively, are complainants, and certain other persons, whose names will be submitted to the said meeting, are defendants, the particulars of which offer will be explained at the said meeting.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Carruthers, of Mitchells, in the parish of Speldhurst, in the county of Kent, and last residing at Shepperton, in the county of Middlesex, lately also carrying on business as a Distiller, in partnership with Frederick Fraser Carruthers, at Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, under the names of Carruthers and Company, and of the Manchester Distillery Company, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 26th day of November instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising, compounding, settling, and adjusting the suit in equity instituted by them against Charles Lancelot Hoggart and others, for the purpose of setting aside a certain deed, dated the 8th day of August 1840, made, or expressed to be made, between the said Charles Lancelot Hoggart, of the first part; the said John Carruthers, of the second part; and the several other parties, who should execute the said indenture, being creditors or claimants against the said John Carruthers, as thereafter mentioned, of the third part; purporting to be a declaration of trust of moneys to arise from the sale of certain freehold and copyhold hereditaments and premises, therein stated to have been conveyed and covenanted to be surrendered to the said Charles Lancelot Hoggart by the said John Carruthers, by indentures of lease and appointment and release, the lease bearing date the day before and the appointment and release bearing date the said 8th day of August 1840, and for setting aside the said indenture of lease and appointment and release, and for rendering available, as assets of the estate of the said bankrupt, the hereditaments and premises thereby conveyed and covenanted to be surrendered, and so directed and authorised by the said first-mentioned deed to be sold; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making an arrangement with the said Charles Lancelot Hoggart and any other parties with respect to any claim on the said bankrupt's estate, and for the realization of the remainder of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to assent to or dissent from the sale of such estate and effects by public auction or private contract, and with such provisions as to the rights and claims of other parties as to the said assignees shall seem meet; and to assent to or dissent from the assignees compromising a suit in equity instituted against them by Mr. Thomas Teed, a creditor of the said bankrupt, or making any arrangement as to the sale of the bankrupt's property mortgaged by him, as to the said assignees shall seem meet.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall “ have been inserted within eight days after such “ Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed ;

 “ and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of “ Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days
 “ next after such insertion in case such Commis-
