India Board, November 8, 1842.

THE following Notifications, issued by the Governor General of India, have this day been received at the East India House :

NOTIFICATION.—SECRET DEPARTMENT.

Kurnaul, September 3, 1842.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General of India has directed the publication of the following copy of a dispatch from Major-General England, K.H. dated the 19th ultimo.

By order, &c.

T. H. MADDOCK, Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor General.

*From Major-General R. England, K.H.
To T. H. Maddock, Esq.*

*Camp, near Killa Abdoolia,
August 19, 1842.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor General in Council, that the British force, at Candahar, having evacuated that city on the 7th and 8th, I moved from my encampment, near its walls, on the 10th, pursuant to instructions, with the detachment mentioned in the margin,* en route to Quetta; and that I arrived on this ground yesterday.

2. It was communicated to me on the 9th and subsequently, that the insurgents were preparing to attack the column and convoy under my charge in its passage, and especially that they would make efforts to intercept it in the strong country of the Kojuck range, at the northern extremity of which I arrived, with little molestation, on the morning of the 16th.

3. Whatever might have been the intention of the enemy, it was ascertained, by reconnoitering, that the highest points of the mountain were not yet occupied by them, and I thought it right, therefore, notwithstanding that the troops had just completed a night march of twenty-four miles, to push forward a light column to seize the summit at once.

4. This operation was perfected by three battalions, and the most important ridge, and all the peaks commanding the principal passes, were gained by the troops before dark.

5. On the following morning, the insurgents began to appear in small bodies on different hills, but, the route being flanked, they did little mischief, and the baggage, artillery, and immense retinue under the protection of this camp, including 9,000 or 10,000 beasts of burden, began the ascent, covered by a rear guard of two battalions and the cavalry; and I was soon made aware of our good fortune in having seized the heights on the previous evening, for the number of the enemy gradually increased, but all their efforts to capture the baggage, or indeed to interrupt us to any serious extent, were frustrated, and the passage across the Kojuck mountains may be said to have been perfected by noon on the 18th.

6. I have had the highest reason to be gratified with the exertions of all the officers and troops on this occasion, and it is entirely owing to their incessant efforts in duties of great fatigue, under a privation of water, both in climbing up the extreme points of the range to drive off the enemy whenever they appeared, and in dragging thirteen pieces of artillery over the ridge, that this service has been ac complished with so little loss, on our side, of life or of convoy.

7. I beg to enclose a list of the casualties in killed and wounded of this column which have occurred since I left the immediate vicinity of Candahar.

8. My last accounts of Major-General Nott were of the 13th, three marches north of Candahar.

9. His Highness Prince Timoor and his family are in my camp, and every possible attention is paid to his comfort and safety.

10. The Right Honourable the Governor-General will have been informed that the Chief Saloo Khan, who had taken service with us after the affair with the enemy of the 28th of April, near Hykulzie, suddenly absconded from the military post held by us at this place on hearing of our abandonment of Candahar; and it was presumed, therefore, that he was at the head of the insurgents in the Kojuck Hills, but I am not inclined to believe that he was thus employed, and I think it more probable that he may have proceeded to join Prince Suftur Jung, who had placed himself at the head of affairs at Candahar.

11. I have no information to warrant the expectation of any serious opposition between this and Quetta, especially as the Brahoe connexion with the Affghans seems severed for the present, and I hope to be enabled to report my arrival at Quetta to his Lordship on the 27th or 28th instant.

12. Pursuant to the instructions of Government of the 19th of March, I have assumed the political responsibilities as well as military command, vacated by the casualty therein contemplated in the departure from these countries of Major-General Nott.

I have, &c.

R. ENGLAND, Major-General, Commanding Sinde Force.

Return of Casualties among the Troops under the Command of Major-General R. England, K. H. since leaving Candahar up to this date inclusive.

NOTIFICATION.—SECRET DEPARTMENT.

Kurraul, September 4, 1842.

THE Right Honourable the Governor General of India is pleased to publish, for general information, the following dispatch and its inclosures from Major General Pollock, C. B. dated the 25th ultimo.

By order, &c.

T. H. MADDOCK.

From Major General Pollock, C. B. commanding in Affghanistan, to T. H. Maddock, Esq.

SIR, Mammoo Khail, August 25, 1842.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor General, a copy of a dispatch which I have this day forwarded to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, detailing the operations carried into execution yesterday, to dislodge the enemy from positions in this and the adjoining village of Koocele Khail.

I have, &c.

GEO. POLLOCK, Major General,
Commanding in Affghanistan.

From Major-General Pollock, commanding in Affghanistan, to Major-General Lumley, Adjutant-General of the Army.

*Camp, Mammoo Khail,
August 25, 1842.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander in Chief, that I reached Gundamuck on the morning of the 23d instant, with the troops as per margin*.

On approaching the ground, a few horsemen appeared, but retired as we advanced. I soon learnt that the enemy, under the Chiefs Hadji Ali and Khyroollah Khan, occupied the village and fort of Mammoo Khail, about two miles from Gundamuck, and I determined upon attacking them the following morning.

I ordered up a squadron of the 3d Dragoons and Captain Broadfoot's corps of Sappers from General Sale's camp, and they joined before day-light the following morning.

At four A. M. yesterday morning I moved towards the enemy with the troops as per margin†. On clearing the broken ground in front, I divided the infantry into two columns, with a wing of Her Majesty's 9th Foot at the head of each, and skirmishers in front. I directed Captain Broadfoot, with his corps, to go to the right. The cavalry also advanced on the right, to cut off the retreat of the enemy.

Captain Abbott's battery accompanied the

* One squad. 5th Light Cavalry, head quarters and one squad. 10th Light Cavalry, No. 6, Light Field Battery, 5th company Sappers and Miners, H. M. 9th Foot, 26th Native Infantry, 60th Native Infantry.

† One squadron 5th Light Cavalry, one squadron 10th Light Cavalry, No. 6, Light Field Battery, 5th company Sappers and Miners, H. M. 9th Foot, 26th Native Infantry, 60th Native Infantry, and Broadfoot's Sappers.

columns, and, as we advanced, occasionally opened on the enemy, who continued in position so long we hoped they would oppose us with their whole force, but they retired on our approach, and we entered the village.

The fields in front of the village were purposely flooded to prevent our advance. The left column then went towards the fort of Mammoo Khail, and the right column proceeded to Koocee Khail; the ground was impracticable for cavalry, nearly the whole distance, but on one or two occasions an opportunity did offer, and the enemy suffered accordingly. Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, with some companies of the 9th Foot and the 26th Native Infantry, occupied part of the heights in front of the village of Koocee Khail, while Captain Broadfoot, and some of the 26th Native Infantry, cleared the hills to the left of Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor's position. As Koocee Khail is about two miles from Mammoo Khail, and as a position there might have been attended with risk, unless very strongly supported, I directed Major-General M'Caskill to retire on Mammoo Khail. As I considered it of importance to hold Mammoo Khail, which was the enemy's position, I wrote for the whole camp to be brought here, and it arrived in safety yesterday afternoon.

I left the camp standing, and selected Major Davis, of Her Majesty's 9th Foot, to command the party as per margin* for its protection. The duty was one of considerable importance, as it was by no means improbable that the enemy would take advantage of our advance to send a party to the camp. The squadron of dragoons having arrived just as I was starting, their horses would not have been equal to a day's hard work, which induced me to leave them in camp. The overthrow of this party of the enemy must, I conclude, have been very unexpected, as the whole of their camp equipage, with its carriage cattle, was captured by Captain Broadfoot's corps and the 3d Irregular Cavalry.

I have much gratification in reporting that the troops, both European and Native, of each branch and department, well supported the character of British soldiers.

Where all are equally zealous in the cause, and devoted to their duty, my thanks are equally due to all; but I may be permitted to mention the names of corps and departments employed. Major-General M'Caskill, K.H., commanding the right column; Brigadier Tulloch, commanding the left column; Captain Abbott, commanding light field battery; Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, K.H., commanding Her Majesty's 9th Foot; Major Huish, commanding the 26th Native Infantry; Captain Napleton, commanding the 60th Native Infantry; Major Blair, commanding the 10th Light Cavalry; Captain Oldfield, commanding a squadron of the 5th Light Cavalry; Captain Tait, commanding the 3d Irregular Cavalry; Captain Abbott, Field Engineer; Lieutenant Becher, commanding Sappers and Miners; and Superintending-Surgeon Steven, and Captain Nugent, officiating Sub-assistant Commissary-general. The officers of the staff who conveyed my orders to the different columns, and otherwise aided in the movements of the day, were Captain Havelock, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General; Captain Smith, Major of Brigade; Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant-general; Captain Lane, Commissary of Ordnance; Lieutenant Sir R. Shakespear, Military Secretary; Captain Codrington, Assistant Quartermaster-General; Lieutenant Mayne, officiating Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, who was most active throughout the day; Lieutenant Tytler, Baggage-master; Lieutenant Pollock, Aide-de-Camp, and Captain Macgregor, Aide-de-Camp; to the last mentioned officer I am not only indebted for services in the field, but for valuable information, and for constant exertions to obtain supplies for the force, which his local knowledge and personal acquaintance with the Mullicks enabled him to do.

I have this morning heard from several quarters, that the two Chiefs Hadji Ali and Khyroollah Khan, have gone to Cabool, attended by about 60 men. If I had removed to camp at Gundamuck yesterday, there can be little doubt that the enemy would have reoccupied this place, and he would have announced to the Cabool authorities he had beaten us back. Koocee Khail has been destroyed by fire; the fort and village of Mammoo Khail have been also destroyed by fire; and, before I quit this place, the trees, to which much value and importance are attached, will be cut down.

I have the honour to enclose a return of casualties. I regret I shall be deprived of the services of Major Huish, 26th Native Infantry, and Captain Edmonds, Her Majesty's 9th Foot, for some time, though I hope not long. Lieutenant Robertson, of the 37th regiment Native Infantry, doing duty with the 26th Native Infantry, is slightly wounded, and will, I trust, soon return to his duty.

I have the pleasure to enclose reports from Major-General M'Caskill, K. H., and Captain Broadfoot.

I have, &c.

G. POLLOCK, Major-General,
Commanding in Afghanistan.

From Major-General John M'Caskill, K. H., Commanding Infantry Division, to Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant-General.

*Camp, Mammoo Khail,
Aug. 25, 1842.*

SIR,

I BEG to detail to you, for the information of Major-General Pollock, C. B., the operations of the right column in the affair of yesterday, after it had become separated from that of the left, on the complete success of the combined attack on the enemy's position in advance of Mammoo Khail.

You are aware that this force consisted of four companies of Her Majesty's 9th Foot, and six of the 26th Regiment Native Infantry, under the immediate command of Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, K.H. of the former corps. The enemy had fled before our troops, and abandoned the village of Koocee Khail, but re-inforced strongly by the fugitives driven back by Brigadier Tulloch's column, he assumed a menacing attitude, and occupied in force a range of heights and detached summits in the Soofaid Koh. The most salient of these was a spur of the mountain within long musket range of the buildings of Koocee Khail. From this and from other eminences of the most precipitous character the Ooloose were dislodged with the utmost spirit and gallantry by the details under Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, aided in the most effective manner by a party of Capt. Broadfoot's corps of Sappers and Miners. The enemy were reinforced from time to time, and made many bold attacks, and kept up a sharp fire of jezails from the loftiest peaks of the mountain, but our troops, though so much pressed as to be compelled to recede from ground which they had gained in one direction, maintained an advanced position among the hills, until withdrawn by order of Major-General Pollock, first into the plateau in front of the village of Koocee Khail, which they burnt down, and then back upon the present site of encampment. In retiring over the plain between the two principal villages the movement was covered by a squadron of the 5th, and another of the 10th light cavalry, but the attempts of the Ooloose to annoy were timid and feeble in the extreme, and our troops did not sustain a single casualty from their effects. Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor speaks in high terms of the support which he received from Major Huish, commanding the 26th regiment Native Infantry, who was wounded, and afterwards from Capt. Handscomb of the same corps, and from Capt. Ogle, commanding Her Majesty's 9th Foot; and I beg to be permitted to bear my testimony to the merits of the Lieutenant-Colonel's own exertions on this occasion, as well as to express my sense of the gallantry of all the troops engaged, and to acknowledge the able assistance which I received from Captain Havelock, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General, Lieutenant Mayne, 37th Regiment Native Infantry, Officiating Deputy-Assistant-Quarter-Master-General, and Lieutenant Bethune, Her Majesty's 9th Foot, my Aide-de-Camp. The intrepidity also with which Captain Broadfoot's Sappers and Miners aided in the attack on one of the advanced heights deserves my marked commendation.

I have, &c.

JOHN M'CASKILL,

Major-General, Commanding Infantry Division.

From Captain G. Broadfoot, Sappers and Miners, commanding Right Column, to Captain G. Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General.

SIR, Camp Mammoo Khail, August 25, 1842.

AGREEABLY to orders, I have the honour to report the proceedings of the column intrusted to me by the Major-General commanding, in the action of yesterday.

I moved, as directed, with the Sappers (about 220 men) and the 3d Irregular Cavalry (250 men), across the ravine on the right of the force. We found the enemy strongly posted in an orchard, with some enclosures; and the usual field works of loose stones in their front, were also occupied. This position flanked the approach of the main body.

Having formed an attacking party in front, I sent the rest of the Sappers in column under Lieutenant Orr, to turn the enemy's left flank, and Captain Tait's horse still more to the right, and in advance, to cut off their retreat. While we waited in this order the advance of the force, the enemy reinforced the orchard, and moved out to attack us. I was therefore obliged to advance before the force arrived. The enemy's positions were quickly carried in succession. One party was driven towards the 3d Irregular Cavalry, who pursued, and the remainder fled to the village of Mammoo Khail, into which the main body of the enemy were at this moment driven by the fire of our artillery; they opened a fire on us, ill directed, but so heavy that we were obliged to attack the village. They fled when we reached it, and the sappers pursued to the fort, but were so exhausted by the march from Futteabad and the previous operations, that the enemy was able to enter and barricade the gate. Their fire was kept down by one party of the sappers, while the rest climbed on each other's shoulders over a half-repaired bastion, about eight feet high, and covered with thorns. The enemy fled over the walls on the other side, leaving the rear gate barricaded. This, and descending from the walls, lost so much time that pursuit was nearly hopeless, so far as our now exhausted men were concerned. We pressed on with the least fatigue, however, and, keeping to the hills, forced the enemy into ground. Our cavalry were approaching, and we had the satisfaction of seeing the cavalry overtake and attack them.

Parties were directed to destroy the forts abandoned on the cavalry approaching, while with a few men I pushed on to the last village near the hills. There we surprised the enemy, whose head-quarters were there, driving them out of the village and adjoining camp, and obtaining their tents, cattle, and ammunition, and a good quantity of provisions. The enemy (who were evidently the Jezailchees from Cabool) fled to the hills, the fire of which swept the village.

I was now directed to take a party of Her Majesty's 9th Foot, the Sappers being now worn out, except about six men, and attack the hills; the first and second heights were carried at the point of the bayonet, and flanking parties having turned the shoulders of the high range, we were advancing up it when the main force arrived, and our further progress was stayed. My separate command now ceased, and I was soon after ordered with the Sappers to head-quarters.

The conduct of the troops, officers, and men, European and Native, was admirable; and it is due to the 26th Native Infantry to mention, that, in storming the second height with a party of her Majesty's 9th Foot, a party of the former corps joined us, and behaved with the same spirit as the rest.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a district chapelry to the chapel of St. John the Evangelist, at Spittlegate, in the parish of GrantHAM, in the county of Lincoln, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134 :

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th of August 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division."

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:”

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches;” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Grantham, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, contained a population of eight thousand six hundred and eighty-four persons:

“That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to eighteen hundred persons, there is a chapel lately built at Spittlegate, which affords accommodation to eight hundred persons, including four hundred and fifty free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

“That the said chapel has been dedicated to St. John the Evangelist, has likewise been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

“Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel at Spittlegate, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that the said district should be named, “The Chapelry District of Spittlegate,” with boundaries as follow:

“The Chapelry District of Spittlegate is to consist of the township of Spittlegate and the hamlets of Houghton and Walton, and is bounded on the north by part of the parish of Grantham, from which it is separated by a line running in an easterly direction down the centre of a road, called the Wharf-road, and extending from the river Mowbeck, until it meets the river Witham; then, following the course of that river, in a south easterly direction, till it meets a road leading to an occupation road, called Cold-harbour-lane, which divides it from part of the parish of Somerby; and proceeding along that lane, in an easterly direction, as far as Cold-harbour toll-gate; it then proceeds, in a southerly direction, down an old Roman road, called High Dyke-road, which separates Spittlegate from the other part of the parish of Somerby, till it enters the parish of Little Ponton; and then following, in a westerly and south westerly and north westerly direction, the boundary line which separates the parish of Grantham from the parish of Little Ponton, Stroxtan, and Harlaxton, as far as the stream known by the name of the river Mowbeck; and following, in a northerly direction, the course of the said Mowbeck stream up to the line drawn therefrom, down the wharf road, where the boundary commenced, as is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

“That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

“That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Lincoln has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
