

Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith;" or for repealing so much of the said several Acts, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, respectively, as relates to Lastage and Ballastage in the river Thames, and granting further and other powers and provisions in relation to Lastage and Ballastage in the said river, in lieu of such as may be repealed.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is the intention of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the parties applying for the said Bill, to take powers to demand and receive rates and prices, and to alter the existing rates and prices demandable and receivable under the said Acts, and to vary or extinguish the exemptions from the payment of rates and prices, and other rights and privileges, and to confer others; and also to insert in the said Bill various other powers, provisions, and regulations relative to the matters aforesaid.—Dated this third day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

John Teesdale, Solicitor to the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, and other commonable lands and grounds within the township of Leighton Bussard, in the county of Bedford, and the hamlet of Billington, in the parish of Leighton Bussard aforesaid; and also for dividing, allotting, and inclosing a certain tract of land known by the name of the Heath, part of which lies within the said township of Leighton Bussard, and the remainder within the hamlet of Heath and Reach, in the parish of Leighton Bussard aforesaid; and all other the open and commonable lands and grounds within the said hamlet of Heath and Reach; and for extinguishing all right of common in and over the said fields, lands and grounds, and heath respectively, being all within the said parish of Leighton Bussard and county of Bedford aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for defraying the expences of the said inclosure, by a rate on the proprietors of the lands to be inclosed, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill.—Dated this 8th day of November 1842.

Faversham Creek Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving the navigation of Faversham Creek, in the county of Kent;" in which Bill powers will be contained to raise additional sums of money, and to levy tolls, rates, or duties, and to alter the tolls, rates, and duties authorized by the said Act to be collected, and to vary or extinguish the exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and other rights and privileges, and to confer others; and in the said Bill powers will be also contained enabling the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act, to construct and maintain one or more towing-path or towing-paths by the side of, or contiguous to, the said navigation, and to execute other works for the improvement thereof, from the East Swale up to the Ordnance Wharf, and which will be situate in, or be made from, through, or into the several parishes or places of Faversham, Preston, Graveney, Luddenham, and Oare, in the said county of Kent. Duplicate plans and sections of which proposed new works, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in the same county; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish.

Dated this eighth day of November 1842.

Shepherd and Tassell, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, of two several Acts, the one passed in the forty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from the borough of Leicester to Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, and for repealing two Acts for repairing the said road;" and the other passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering, amending, and enlarging the powers, of an Act of His late Majesty's reign for repairing the road from the borough of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, to the town of Uppingham, in the county of Rutland, and to Wansford and Peterborough, both in the county of Northampton;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant further and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof; and in which said Bill or Bills provision is intended to be made for levying certain new tolls, and for altering the existing tolls now authorized by the said Acts, or one of them, to be taken on the said road; and it is also intended to adopt, wholly or in part, the exemptions, rights, and privileges contained in the Acts now in force relating to turn-
