

is intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, either to incorporate a company for executing the said proposed undertaking, or to authorize the Eastern Counties Railway Company so to do, and for that purpose to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions of the following Acts relating to the said Eastern Counties Railway Company, viz : one thereof, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from London to Norwich and Yarmouth, by Romford, Chelmsford, Colchester, and Ipswich, to be called the Eastern Counties Railway ; another, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the Eastern Counties railway ;" and another, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge some of the provisions of the Acts relating to the Eastern Counties railway, and to authorize the company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking ;" and also to alter the existing rates, tolls, or duties authorized to be levied under the said first recited Act.

And notice is hereby also given, that plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said proposed railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, were deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March, in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office in Chelmsford, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, at his office in Bury Saint Edmunds ; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes through which the said railway is proposed to be made, were deposited, on or before the first day of April in the present year, with the Parish Clerks of each such parish ; and which several plans, sections, and books of reference are now in the custody of the said Clerks of the Peace and Parish Clerks, and are open for inspection, and, having been deposited with the view to an application to Parliament, in the session 1843, in conformity with notices given in the months of February and March last, in compliance with the standing orders then in force, are the same plans, sections, and books of reference of the railway specified in this notice, and for which application is intended to be made.

And notice is hereby further given, that power will be sought by the said Bill to deviate laterally in the construction of the proposed works in any town, or in lands covered with buildings, to an extent not exceeding ten yards from the centre of the line laid down on the said plans respectively, and in all other parts to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards from the said centre of the line ; but such power of deviation is not intended to apply to any lands not shewn and numbered upon the said plans, and whereof the name of the owner shall not be contained in the said books of reference in respect of such lands, or to any lands as to which it shall be expressly denoted in the said plans that no deviation is intended to be made, and in every case in which a limit to such deviation is expressly denoted on the said plans as to any lands, no power of deviation beyond such limits is intended to be applied for.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be sought by the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of the proposed new works, and to alter and divert, for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, certain turnpike, parish, township, and other roads, rivers, canals, streams, and drains within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places hereinbefore mentioned ; or some of them.—Dated the 11th day of November 1842.
