India Board, December 6, 1842.

DISPATCHES, of which the following is a copy, have been transmitted by the Governor General of India, and received at the East India House, this day :

From Major-General G. Pollock, C.B. Commanding in Affghanistan, to Major-General Lumley, Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp, Cabool, September 22, 1842.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that, having received intimation from Bameean, that the European officers and soldiers, prisoners there, had made arrangements by which they hoped to effect their own liberation, I, at the suggestion of Mohun Loll, with the concurrence of Khan Sheereen Khan, Chief of the Kuzzulbashas, sanctioned the speedy departure of 700 of his horse on the 15th instant, the day of our arrival here, to meet the party. Some difficulty occurring on the score of money, I advanced 10,000 rupees, which were delivered by Sir R. Shakespear, who accompanied the Kuzzulbashas. Being apprehensive that attempts would be made to intercept the prisoners, I detached Major-General Sir R. Sale, with the troops named in the margin*, on the 19th instant, to the Urghundee pass, and the circumstance proved fortunate, as a delay of twenty-four hours would have enabled Sultan Jan, who was in pursuit, to overtake our people. I am happy to state, that the whole who were in confinement, (as per subjoined roll) with the exception of Captain Bygrave, who is with Mahomed Akbar, arrived in my camp yesterday evening.

I cannot conclude without recording my opinion, that to Khan Sheereen Khan and Mohun Loll may be attributed the safety of the prisoners, and I have reason to believe the chief of the Kuzzulbashas to be a steadfast adherent to the British Government. I have, &c.

Commanding in Affghanistan.

From Major General W. Nott, Commanding Field Force, to Major General Pollock, C.B., Commanding West of the Indus.

SIR, Camp, Urghundee, Sept. 16, 1842.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that Shumshoodeen, Sultan Jan, and other Affghan Chiefs, having assembled about 12,000 men, occupied a succession of strong mountains intercepting my march upon Boence Badam and Mydan, on the 14th and 15th instant. Our troops dislodged them in gallant style, and their conduct afforded me the greatest satisfaction.

The artillery distinguished themselves; and I beg to mention the names of Captain Leslie, Bombay horse artillery; Captains Blood, Bombay foot artillery, and Anderson and Turner, of the Bengal horse artillery; and the 38th and *43d Bengal native infantry. I beg to bring under the favourable notice of Government, Captain White, of Her Majesty's 40th regiment, in command of the light companies of Her Majesty's 40th and 41st regiments, and of the 2d, 16th, 38th, 42d, and 43d Bengal native regiments, for the able manner in which he carried my orders into effect, and for the gallantry displayed by him and the companies under his command, in ascending the mountains and driving the enemy from their positions. I had every reason to be pleased with the conduct of all the troops, European and Native. I forward a list of killed and wounded.

I am, &c.

Exd. THOS. POLWHELE, Captain Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General.

From Major-General G. Pollock, C.B. Commanding in Afghanistan, to Major-General Lumley, Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp, Cabool, Oct. 1, 1842.

I HAVE the honour to forward a copy of a letter from Major-General McCaskill, K.H. commanding the force which I detached under his command, for the purpose of dispersing the enemy collected in the vicinity of Charekar, as stated in my letter of the 28th instant.

The success of the Major-General's operations against Istalif is most gratifying, that place being considered by the Affghans as totally inaccessible to our troops.

I have, &c.

G. POLLOCK, Major-General, Commanding in Afghanistan.

From Major-General M. Caskill, K.H. Commanding a detachment in Kohistan, to Captain Pensonby, Assistant Adjutant-General.

SIR, Camp, Istalif, Sept. 30, 1842.

I HAVE the satisfaction to acquaint you, for the information of Major-General Pollock, C.B. that the troops under my command yesterday made themselves masters of the strong and populous town of Istalif, totally defeating the numerous levies collected for its defence, under the infamous Ameenollah Khan Loguree, Khaojie Ameer Kotwal, Hazin Khan (an assassin of Sir Alexander Burnes) Hazir Alee Khan, Khuleefa Ibrahim, and many other chiefs of Cabool and the Kohistan.

The Major-General is aware that the force detailed in the margin* was placed at my disposal for operations in these valleys, on the 25th. The two brigades formed a junction near Khowja Rawash on the 26th; moved to an encampment near Zimuree on the 27th, and pitched their tents within four miles of this place on the 28th. The same evening I reconnoitred the enemy's position; it is impossible to conceive ground naturally stronger. The town of Istalif, consisting of masses of houses and forts, is built on the slope of a mountain, in the rear of which are yet loftier eminences shutting in a defile which leads to Toorkistan, and in no way can this place of abode of 15,000 people be approached but by surmounting ranges of hills separated by deep ravines, or traversing, by narrow roads, its gardens, vineyards, and orchards, fenced in with strong enclosure walls; the whole of them, with the mountain side and tops of the houses, were occupied by Jezailchies, and the strongest proof is afforded that the enemy, after this disposition, considered the place unassailable, by their having retained within the town the wives and children, not only of the inhabitants, but of thousands of refugees from Cabool.

* Artillery—Captain Backhouse's mountain train, Captain Blood's battery of 9-pounders (Bombay), two 18-pounders.—Cavalry—Head quarters and 2 squadrons H. M.'s 3d light dragoons, 1st squadron 1st light cavalry, Captain Christie's (late S. S. 2 regiment) corps of cavalry.—Infantry—Brigadier Tulloch's brigade, (with the addition of Captain Broadfoot's sappers and miners, and the exception of the 60th native infantry), Brigadier Stacy's brigade.

The observations which I was enabled to make under a sharp jezail fire, and the report of Major Pottinger, induced me to determine to assault the next morning the right of the enemy's extensive position, as it was there that I could hope to bring the artillery most effectively into battery. Arrangements were made with this view. The troops were formed into two columns of attack and reserve; Brigadier Tulloch's brigade and the mountain train composed the right; Brigadier Stacy's and Captain Blood's battery and the 18-pounders the left; these were supported by the third column, under Major Simmons, Her Majesty's 41st, consisting of a wing of his regiment and the cavalry under Major Lockwood: Captain Christie's corps protected the baggage.

The troops moved soon after daylight, and, traversing the plain in perfect order, passed nearly from the left to the right of the enemy's position. Our light troops and guns repressed the occasional attacks of their jezailchies from the gardens, who were numerous and most audacious; but when the column arrived in front of the village Ismillah, I resolved to make a combined attack on this point; Brigadier Tulloch's brigade assailed its left, and Brigadier Stacy, making a longer detour, attacked the right.

I cannot express in adequate terms my admiration of the style in which the former column, covered by skirmishers, rushed upon the gardens filled with bold and skilful marksmen. Her Majesty's 9th foot, the 26th native infantry, and Captain Broadfoot's sappers, vied with each other in steady courage; and their rapid and unhesitating advance soon left the enemy no resource but flight. Very shortly after this assault, the three light companies of Her Majesty's 41st, the 42d and 43d native infantry, covering their own column, got into action, and, on their side, stormed the village and vineyard with distinguished gallantry. The combination was steadily persevered in, and, though I had few opportunities of using the artillery with effect, I had soon the gratification of seeing the enclosures, forts, heights, suburbs and town successively won by the two columns. The enemy were driven from them, and pursued with a rapidity which left no time to rally; and a singular spectacle was then presented in the escape up the mountain side of the women and children from the place, to which no interception was offered; but, as detached parties of the beaten Affghans still occupied some very lofty heights, the mountain train ascended them by a dizzy pathway, and dispersed the fugitives by its effective fire. Our reserve was now established on the lower heights, and the whole of the place, filled with property of every description, much of it plundered from our army in 1841, was in the hands of our force; two guns, brass field pieces, were also taken, and one of them was seized with such promptitude that its captor, Lieutenant Elmhirst, Her Majesty's 9th foot, turned its fire upon the fugitives with some effect. I directed the town to be set on fire in several places, after taking out various supplies which might be useful to our troops, and the work of demolition is still proceeding under the direction of Major Sanders, of the engineers. Our loss has been trifling, for the advance of our officers and men was too rapid and decisive to allow of the sharp fire of the enemy telling much upon them, and, deceived by the direction of the reconnoissance of the 28th, the Affghans had expected the attack on their left, and posted their guns and the elite of their force in that quarter.

I have now the pleasing task of expressing the amount of my obligations for their exertions in the field to Brigadiers Tulloch and Stacy, commanding brigades and columns; to Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, K. H., Her Majesty's 9th foot; Major Huish, of the 26th native infantry; and Captain Broadfoot, of the sappers, commanding corps on the right, which bore the brunt of the action; to Major Simmons, Her Majesty's 41st foot, commanding the reserve; to Captain Backhouse, commanding the mountain train, and Captain Blood, commanding the battery of 9-pounders; the last was ably aided by Lieutenant Terry. I have received valuable assistance throughout our operations from Major Pottinger, C. B., and Major Sanders, engineers, and yesterday from Captain Mackenzie and Lieutenant Airey, Her Majesty's 3rd buffs, and Lieutenant Webb, 30th regiment Madras native infantry, temporarily attached to me, and, since we marched from Cabool, as on former occasions, from my own staff, departmental and personal, viz. Captain Havelock, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General; Lieutenant Mayne, Deputy-Assistant Quarter-Master-General; Lieutenant Pollock, artillery, Aide-de-Camp to the Major-General, who volunteered his services with me; and to Lieutenant Bethune, Her Majesty's 9th foot, my own Aide-de-Camp. Regarding the last-mentioned officer, I take the opportunity of rectifying an oversight on my part: I ought specially to have reported to Major-General Pollock, Lieutenant Bethune's valuable services in the recent affair at the Huft Kotul, in which I was entrusted with the command of the main column. Brigadier Tulloch reports in very strong terms the good conduct on the present occasion of Captain Smith, Her Majesty's 9th foot, his Brigade-Major. I enclose a return of the killed and wounded, and of the two guns captured.

I have, &c.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or Inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant; and, from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof; and, from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas by a warrant, dated the 1st day of September 1840, under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the said Commissioners, in exercise of the power for such purpose vested in them by the said Act, directed, amongst other things, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post passing between Germany (not via France), Denmark, Sweden, or other parts of the north of Europe, or any country through Belgium or Holland or Germany, and any of the countries or places mentioned in the third schedule thereto, through the United Kingdom, there should be charged and taken the rate of British postage set opposite the name of every such country or place in such schedule; and further, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, passing through the United Kingdom between Foreign countries, or between any Foreign country and Her Majesty's colonies, which should be forwarded to the United Kingdom by packet boat, and from the United Kingdom by private ship, or forwarded to the United Kingdom by private ship, and from the United Kingdom by packet boat, there should be charged and taken for the conveyance of every such letter by private ship, an uniform rate of eight pence; and for the conveyance thereof by packet boat, the rate payable on such letter under the said Act; and further, that on every letter transmitted, as is mentioned in such warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there should be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates in the said Act contained, as to letters estimating and charging each additional rate at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under the said warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight; and power was thereby reserved to the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time thereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates thereby altered, or the regulations thereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and, from time to time, to appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas, in consequence of a communication opened with the Post Office of Oldenburg, it is considered expedient to alter the rates of postage payable under the said Act, on letters conveyed by packet boat or private ship, between the United Kingdom and Oldenburg, either direct or via the territories of Hamburg, Hanover, and Bremen, or any of them; and also the rates payable under the said warrant on letters posted in or addressed to Oldenburg, conveyed by packet boat or private ship between the United Kingdom and Oldenburg direct, or via the territories of Hamburg, Hanover, and Bremen, or any of them, and passing through the United Kingdom to or from the British colonies or Foreign countries.

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Act and warrant, direct, that, on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to the Duchy of Oldenburg, transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and Oldenburg, conveyed between the United Kingdom and Oldenburg direct by packet boat or private ship, or via the territories of Hamburg, Hanover, and Bremen, or any of them (conveyed direct by packet boat or private ship between the United Kingdom and the territories of Hamburg, Hanover, and Bremen, or any of them), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage payable on such letters under the said Act, an uniform rate of British postage of six pence; and that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to the Duchy of Oldenburg, transmitted by the post between Oldenburg and any of the British colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom (conveyed by packet boat or private ship between the United Kingdom and Oldenburg direct, or via the territories of Hamburg, Hanover, and Bremen, or any of them), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage payable on such letters under the said recited warrant, an uniform rate of British postage of six pence for the conveyance of every such letter between Oldenburg and any part of the United Kingdom, and also such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, as shall, from time to time, be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and such colony, or foreign country.

And we further direct, that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates in the said Act contained, as to letters estimating and charging each additional rate at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any post letters passing between the United Kingdom and the Principality of Birkenfeld, or the possessions of the Duchy of Oldenburg, in Holstein.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post Office;" and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct, that the terms and expressions used in this present warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of January 1843.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and, from time to time, to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
