Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1843.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 4th day of January 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade to China and "India," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should and might be lawful for His said Majesty, by any such Order or Orders as to His said Majesty in Council should appear expedient and salutary, to create a court of justice, with criminal and Admiralty jurisdiction, for the trial of offences committed by His said Majesty's subjects within the dominions of the Emperor of China and the ports and havens thereof, and on the high seas within one hundred miles of the coast of China; and to appoint one of the superintendent, in the said Act mentioned, to be the officer to hold such court, and other officers for executing the process thereof:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, and in execution of the powers thereby in His said late Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, it was by an Order, dated the ninth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, ordered by His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that there should be a court of justice, with criminal and Admiralty jurisdiction, for the purposes aforesaid; which court should be holden at Canton, in the said dominions, or on board any British ship or vessel in the port or harbour of Canton; and that the said court should be holden by the chief superintendent, for the time being, appointed, or to be appointed, by His said late Majesty under and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament:

And whereas it is expedient, that the said court of justice should henceforth be holden in the island of Hong Kong; now, therefore, in further pursuance of the said Act, and of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, and of all other powers to Her Majesty belonging or in any wise appertaining, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said court shall henceforth be holden in the island of Hong Kong; and that the same shall have and exercise jurisdiction for the trial of offences committed by Her Majesty's subjects within the said island and within the dominions of the Emperor of China, and the ports and havens thereof, and on the high seas within one hundred miles of the coast of China: and it is hereby further ordered, that the said court shall be holden by the chief superintendent, for the time being, appointed, or to be appointed, by Her Majesty under and in pursuance of the said Act :

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, doth hereby confirm, in all other respects, the said Order of His said late Majesty in Council, dated the ninth December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three :

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Meeting of the Shareholders in the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway Company will be holden, on Tuesday the 10th day of January instant, at the King's Head Inn, in Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, for the purpose of considering the propriety of the said Company entering into an arrangement or contract with the Great Western Railway Company for the leasing to the said Company of the line of railway from Kemble to Cheltenham, either alone or jointly with the line of railway from Swindon to Cirencester, and connected with such leasing to consider of the propriety of authorizing the Directors of the said first-mentioned Company to enter into an arrangement with the Great Western Railway Company for the raising of the money which may be requisite for the completion of the railway from Kemble to Cheltenham, and for the repurchase from the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway Company of a moiety of the line of railway between the depôts at Gloucester and Cheltenham, and of the Cheltenham tramway, on the said Great Western Railway Company, agreeing to guarantee the payment of the interest of such money; and also to consider the terms of the security for repayment of such interest to the said Company; and also separately, or in connexion with the matters aforesaid, to consider the propriety of selling and conveying to the said Great Western Railway Company the whole or any part of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway; and, if the said Meeting shall think proper, to authorize the Directors of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway Company to enter into any contract or contracts with the said Great Western Railway Company for effecting all or any of the said purposes, either alone or connected with each other; and to make and execute all such leases, conveyances, or other instruments, as shall be deemed requisite to carry into effect any of the objects which may be agreed on at the said Meeting.

C. F. Sage, Chairman of the Board of Directors.
Board-Room, Cirencester, Dec. 27, 1842.

Great Western Railway.

London, 2d January 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Meeting of the Proprietors in the Great Western Railway Company will be holden, on Thursday the 19th day of January instant, at the Company's Office, No. 2, Princes-street, in the city of London, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of considering whether the said Great Western Railway Company shall enter into an arrangement or contract with the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway Company for taking a lease of the said Company of the line of railway from Kemble to Cheltenham, or any portion thereof, when completed, including therein a moiety of the line of railway between the depôts at Gloucester and Cheltenham, and of the Cheltenham tramway, when and if the same shall be repurchased of the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway Company by the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway Company, under the powers of the Acts relating thereto; and also for taking a lease for an extended term of the line of railway of the said last-mentioned Company from Swindon to Kemble, with the branch line to Cirencester, or for the purchase of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway of the said railway, or any part thereof, and connected with such lease or purchase to consider the propriety of authorizing the Directors of the said Great Western Railway Company to secure the payment of interest on the sum of money which may be raised or borrowed by the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway Company for the purpose of their completing the said line of railway from Kemble to Cheltenham, and to enable them to make such repurchase as aforesaid, or otherwise to empower the Great Western Railway Company to raise such funds as may be necessary for the purchase and completion of the said line of railway, and for the repurchase of the moiety of the line of railway between the depôts at Gloucester and Cheltenham, and also of the Cheltenham tramway as aforesaid; and if the said Meeting shall so think fit, to authorize the Directors of the said Great Western Railway Company to do all things which may be requisite or necessary for effectuating all or any of the purposes aforesaid, which may be agreed upon at the said Meeting, either partially or wholly, and upon such terms as to them may seem proper; and also, in the event of such lease or purchase taking effect, to authorize the said Great Western Railway Company to enter into any contract or contracts with any corporation or corporations, person or persons, for the letting or use, or for the passage of any traffic over any portion of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, or for working the traffic of any other corporation or corporations, person or persons, in connection with the trains of the said Great Western Railway Company, over any portion of the said railway.

And the said Meeting is also made special, to consider the propriety of authorizing the Directors of the Great Western Railway Company to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for a Bill for the making a railway from the Great Western Railway, at or near Didcot, to the city of Oxford, or to join or be parties with any other corporation or corporations, person or persons, in applying to Parliament for such Bill, or to agree with any person or persons who shall apply to Parliament for such Bill, for the construction of, or for taking on lease or use of such railway, or any part thereof, when made, upon such terms and conditions as may seem proper.

The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

Charles Russell, Chairman.
Robert Bright, Deputy Chairman.
