

The above large and important range of property was all late in the personal occupation of the said Mr. Landon; a great part of it has been recently built, and the whole is constructed in the most substantial and workmanlike manner, and is in complete repair. The entire cost its late proprietor between £8000 and £9000, and it will be put up in one lot. To merchants it obviously presents a commanding situation for conducting an extensive and lucrative business, and, to capitalists generally, an opportunity for advantageous investment seldom occurring.

Lot 2. Also a life policy, granted by the London Assurance Corporation, dated 21st March 1840, whereby £3000 stands assured to be paid at the death of the said Mr. Landon (now aged 54), under the premium of £156. 15s. due annually on the 1st January.

Lot 3. Also a life policy, granted by the West of England Insurance Company, dated 25th March 1840, whereby £2000 stands assured to be paid at the death of the said Mr. Landon, under the premium of £89. 10s. due annually on the 21st March.

The premises may be viewed, and further particulars obtained, by application to Mr. Surr, No. 80, Lombard-street, London; Mr. Edmonds, or Mr. J. E. Elworthy, of Plymouth, the Solicitors to the Assignees; or Messrs. G. and J. Pridham, Solicitors, Plymouth.
