FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1843.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of February 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Order in Council, made at a Court at Windsor, on the first day of February instant, relating to the assizes to be holden in the county of Warwick from time to time, it was ordered, amongst other things, that, "in cases of commitment for trial, or recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence at the assize for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said Warwick division, such commitment shall be to the gaol at Warwick, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes at Warwick; and for all offences supposed to have been committed in the Coventry division, the commitment shall be to the gaol at Coventry aforesaid, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes at Coventry, unless the justice or justices of the peace making any such commitments, or taking such recognizances, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitments for trial, or recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes to be holden in the division other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitments shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly; and in such special case such justice or justices shall and may commit prisoners charged with any offence supposed to have been committed in the Warwick division to the gaol at Coventry, for trial at the assizes to be holden at Coventry; and that all prisoners now or hereafter in custody in the gaol at Warwick for trial at the next ensuing assizes, after the date of this Order, for offences appearing by the respective commitments to have been committed in the said Warwick division (other than such prisoners, if any, as may have been committed by such justice or justices as aforesaid, in such special case as aforesaid, or as may have been removed to the said gaol at Warwick from the said gaol at Coventry by a court or judge, as hereinafter provided for), shall be removed by the sheriff of the said county to the said gaol at Coventry for trial at the said next assizes to be held at Coventry, and shall be tried there: provided always, and it is further ordered, that a list of the names of such prisoners, with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, shall, by the said sheriff, be inserted in one or more of the newspapers published in the said county (so far as the same list can be then made out), ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the commission at the assizes at Coventry, with a notice, that all persons bound by recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence against such prisoners so removed, shall appear and give evidence at the said next assizes to be held at Coventry; and the persons so bound shall so appear and prosecute, and give evidence accordingly:"

And it was further ordered, "that all other prisoners, now or hereafter in custody in the gaol at Warwick for trial at the assizes, shall be tried at the assizes held at Warwick; and all prisoners, hereafter in custody for trial at the assizes in the gaol at Coventry, shall be tried at the assizes held at Coventry; but such prisoners, as shall be in custody in the said gaol at Coventry for trial at the sessions, shall remain therein for trial as heretofore:"

And whereas it was thereby further ordered, "that every such justice of the peace and coroner shall certify his examinations, informations, bailments, and recognizances, in respect of offences which are, pursuant to this Order, to be tried at the assizes at Warwick, to the clerk of the crown at Warwick; and, in respect of those to be tried at the assizes at Coventry, to the clerk of the crown at Coventry, at the usual time and in the like manner heretofore used in the county of Warwick:"

And whereas it was thereby further ordered, "that no further alteration shall be necessary in the commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for the said county, other than to extend the same to the two divisions of the said county of Warwick; and that two commissions of assize be issued by the clerk of the crown, one for each of the divisions of the said county of Warwick, in the same manner as one has heretofore issued, directed to the sheriff of the said county; and the sheriff shall return one writ at the assizes at Warwick, and the other at the assizes at Coventry, with the proper schedules or panels annexed, and a schedule of the nominatorum for the whole county; and it is also ordered, that writs of subpoena do issue as heretofore, with the proper alteration, and do name the assizes either at Warwick or Coventry, as the case may be, where the attendance of the witnesses is to be given; and that all writs of jury process, and all other writs, be altered in like manner; but that no alteration be necessary in any mittimus to the said county of Warwick, for the trial of any issue joined in any of Her Majesty's courts at Westminster; and further, that the assize writs and subpoenas, to be hereafter issued for the next assize, may be vested on the day of the date of this Order, or afterwards, as the case may require, and, for any subsequent assizes, may be tested in manner heretofore used and accustomed:"

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered and declared, that this present Order shall be substituted for, and in lieu of, the said recited parts of the said Order of the first day of February instant:

And it is hereby ordered, that in cases of commitment for trial, or recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence at the assize for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said Warwick division, such commitment shall be to the gaol at Warwick, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes at Warwick; and for all offences supposed to have been committed in the said Coventry division, the commitment shall be to the gaol at Coventry aforesaid, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes at Coventry, unless the justice or justices of the peace making any such commitments, or taking such recognizances, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitments for trial, or recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer at the assizes to be holden in the division other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitments shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly; and in such special case such justice or justices shall and may commit prisoners charged with any offence supposed to have been committed in the Warwick division to the gaol at Coventry, for trial at the assizes to be holden at Coventry; and that all prisoners now or hereafter in custody in the gaol at Warwick for trial at the next ensuing assizes, after the date of this Order, for offences appearing by the respective commitments to have been committed in the said Coventry division (other than such prisoners, if any, as may have been committed by such justice or justices as aforesaid, in such special case as aforesaid, or as may have been removed to the said gaol at Warwick from the said gaol at Coventry by a court or judge, as hereinafter provided for), shall be removed by the sheriff of the said county to the said gaol at Coventry for trial at the said next assizes to be held at Coventry, and shall be tried there: provided always, and it is further ordered, that a list of the names of such prisoners, with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, shall, by the said sheriff, be inserted in one or more of the newspapers published in the said county (so far as the same list can be then made out), ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the commission at the assizes at Coventry, with a notice, that all persons bound by recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence against such prisoners so removed, shall appear and give evidence at the said next assizes to be held at Coventry; and the persons so bound shall so appear and prosecute, and give evidence accordingly: and it is further ordered, that all other prisoners, now or hereafter in custody in the gaol at Warwick for trial at the assizes, shall be tried at the assizes held at Warwick; and all prisoners, hereafter in custody for trial at the assizes in the gaol at Coventry, shall be tried at the assizes held at Coventry; but such prisoners, as shall be in custody in the said gaol at Coventry for trial at the sessions, shall remain therein for trial as heretofore:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such justice of the peace and coroner shall certify his examinations, informations, bailments, and recognizances, in respect of offences which are, pursuant to this Order, to be tried at the assizes at Warwick, to the clerk of the crown at Warwick; and, in respect of those to be tried at the assizes at Coventry, to the clerk of the crown at Coventry, at the usual time and in the like manner heretofore used in the county of Warwick:

And it is hereby further ordered, that no further alteration shall be necessary in the commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for the said county, other than to extend the same to the two divisions of the said county of Warwick; and that two precepts of assize be issued by the clerk of the crown, one for each of the divisions of the said county of Warwick, in the same manner as one has heretofore issued, directed to the sheriff of the said county; and the sheriff shall return one writ at the assizes at Warwick, and the other at the assizes at Coventry, with the proper schedules or panels annexed, and a schedule of the nominatorum for the whole county; and it is also ordered, that writs of subpoena do issue as heretofore, with the proper alteration, and do name the assizes either at Warwick or Coventry, as the case may be, where the attendance of the witnesses is to be given; and that all writs of jury process, and all other writs, be altered in like manner; but that no alteration be necessary in any mittimus to the said county of Warwick, for the trial of any issue joined in any of Her Majesty's courts at Westminster; and further, that the assize writs and subpoenas, to be hereafter issued for the next assize, may be tested on the day of the date of this Order, or afterwards, as the case may require, and, for any subsequent assizes, may be tested in manner heretofore used and accustomed:

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
