Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1843.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 21, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold Levees, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 29th instant, and on Wednesday the 26th of April next, both days at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend the Levees at Saint James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levees, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Buckingham-Palace, March 25, 1843.

THE following Address, having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, was presented accordingly by the Marquess of Exeter to His Royal Highness, which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE ALBERT of Saxe Coburg, Duke of Saxony, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Governor and Council of Her Majesty's Province of South Australia.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Governor and Members of Council of Her Majesty's province of South Australia, having heard of the birth of your Royal Highness's august Son, the Prince of Wales, would humbly beg to assure your Royal Highness, that we share in the joy with which so auspicious an event has been hailed by all classes in every part of Her Majesty's dominions.

We beg to offer our respectful congratulations to your Royal Highness on that event; and, at the same time, to record the high respect and attachment which we feel for the Consort of our Most Gracious Queen, and the Father of the Heir Apparent to the British Throne.

Dated at Adelaide this 27th day of July 1842.

Whitehall, March 7, 1843.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Slade Butler, of Rye, in the county of Sussex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

In the matter of Letters Patent granted to David Stead, formerly of Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, and now of No. 250, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Merchant, for "Making or paving public Streets and Highways, and public and private Roads, Courts, and Bridges, with Timber or Wooden Blocks," bearing date at Westminster, 19th May 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of the second section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions," I, David Stead, the patentee of the said letters patent, bearing date the 19th May 1838, for making or paving public streets and highways, and public and private roads, courts, and bridges, with timber or wooden blocks, intend to petition Her Most Gracious Majesty in Council, to confirm the said letters patent, or to grant new letters patent.

And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made, on the 26th day of April next (or so soon afterwards as Counsel can be heard), to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition.—Dated the 30th day of January 1843.

D. Stead, No. 250, Strand.

Southampton Cemetery.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to a special resolution of the House of Commons, that application has been made to Parliament, in the present session, and leave given to bring in a Bill for making, establishing, and maintaining a cemetery or burial-ground on extra-parochial land, being part of Southampton Common, in the town and county of the town of Southampton, the property of the Council of the borough, subject to certain rights of common thereon, containing fifteen acres or thereabouts, and situate near the south west corner of the said common, bounded on the north, the south, and the east, by a trench, recently dug, separating the same from part of the said common, and on the west by a similar trench, or by Hill-lane; in which Bill powers will be contained for extinguishing all rights of common and other rights and privileges over the said piece of land; and for enabling the Town Council to raise money for the purposes of the said cemetery or burial-ground, and to levy rates, duties, or fees in respect thereof, and for conferring such rights and privileges as may be necessary or are usual in similar cases.—Dated this 17th day of March 1843.

By order of the Council of the borough of Southampton,

Charles E. Deacon, Town Clerk.

Valuable Tin Mines, called the Royal Polocrou Consols, in the parish of Saint Agnes, within eight miles of Truro, Cornwall, with the Engines, Machinery, and Materials thereon.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Firmin de Tastet and another are plaintiffs, and William Carne and others are defendants, and wherein the said Firmin de Tastet and another are plaintiffs, and Edward Bryant Garey is defendant, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in one lot, at the Public Sale-rooms, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, on Friday the 31st day of March instant, at twelve o'clock at noon;

All those extensive and valuable tin mines, well known as the Royal Polberou Consols Mines, situate in the parish of Saint Agnes, in the county of Cornwall, which have for many years last past averaged the monthly produce of thirty tons of black tin, of excellent quality.

These mines extend under a surface of upwards of two hundred acres, and contain twenty-four shafts, nine of which are now in full working, with about three thousand fathoms of levels, and are held under grants or setts, of which thirteen years and upwards are unexpired, at the very moderate dues of one twentieth; together with the steam engines, machinery, erections, buildings, and other mining effects thereto belonging, comprising two steam pumping engines of sixty inches cylinder each, five boilers, balance bobs, &c. complete; two steam whims; respectively twenty-two and twenty inches cylinder, with four boilers, to one of which is attached a crusher; a thirty inches cylinder steam stamping-engine, with three boilers, sixty-four heads, frames, passes, pits, &c. complete; two sixteen heads stamping mills, with two wheels, each thirty feet in diameter, and three feet abreast, with lifters, passes, &c. complete; every requisite for dressing and calcining tin, and a sawing machine and water wheel.

The buildings comprise sump mens' and changing houses, smiths' and carpenters' shops, counting store, captains, gig, engineers, sampling, casting, tin dressers, and changing houses, the latter with one hundred and ninety-three miners' chests; also assay office, with every requisite; two stables, one powder magazine, and covered saw-pit, with frames. The smiths' shop, which has every convenience for five forges, with powerful punching and screw machines, kibble mould, and tools of every description; a large machine turning lathe, and other requisites, in the engineer's house. Also all the pit-work ladders, casings, brass air-pump, ten horse whims, sheaves, kibbles, and drawing and tramping carriages and apparatus; weighing-house, beams, scales, and weights; counting-house and other furniture; three dials, two crab winches, large steel yard, one hundred and fifty barrows, capstans and shears, capstan and other ropes, flat rod and stands, rods, clack seat, pieces, pumps, H and top door pieces, working barrels, plunger poles, stuffing boxes and glands, rod plates, common plates, staples, and glands, block pins, rod pins, connexion rods, blocks, cisterns; nearly two thousand fathoms of wood and iron tramroads, with all the leavings, halvans, and burrows, and other property and effects on the mine (except the stores and other articles hereinafter mentioned, to be taken at a valuation).

The store yards &c. contain large quantities of iron, boiler and kibble plates, candles, gunpowder, hilts, leather, tallow, grease, old copper and lead, about four thousand pounds of old brass, two horses, gig, and harness, three carts and harnesses, debenture, and other timber, coals, rope, &c. and other materials of daily consumption, which, with the tin stuff and tin ores on the mines at the time of completing the sale, are to be taken at a fair valuation by the purchaser.

The outlay on this property has been upwards of £100,000, and the setts, which are very large and extensive, are now in full working, and are well found in every respect.

Particulars may be had (gratis) upon application at the chambers of the said Master, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. E. B. Garey, Solicitor, 24, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Messrs. Annesley and Reade, Solicitors, 64, Lincoln's-inn-fields; of Messrs. Hughes, Kearsley, and Masterman, Solicitors, 17, Bucklersbury, London; of Mr. C. K. Vigers, Truro, Cornwall; of Mr. J. G. Beckerleg, 8, Alderman's-walk, London; at the principal inns in Saint Austell, Truro, Redruth, Camborne, and Penzance, in Cornwall; and at the mines.

The property may be viewed on application to the said Mr. C. K. Vigers, Truro, the manager and receiver of the mines.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in four several causes, Dean against Hall, all persons claiming to be the heir or heirs at law of Mary Batty and of John Goodear, both deceased, at their respective deaths, and at the present time, and claiming to be the next of kin of the said Mary Batty at the time of her death, or the personal representative or representatives of any of such next of kin as may have since died, are, on or before the 29th day of April 1843, to come in, by their Solicitors, before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out and substantiate their claims and prove their kindred, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
