

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1843.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 21, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 26th of April next, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend the Levees at Saint James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levees, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

St. James's-Palace, March 31, 1843.

On Saturday the 25th of March 1843, the new Chapel, at Buckingham-Palace, was consecrated by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Lord Bishop of London and the Lord Bishop of Norwich (Clerk of the Closet). The Morning Service was read by the Reverend Dr. Sleath, Sub-Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal.

The Very Reverend the Dean of Carlisle, Rector of St. George's, Hanover-square; the Reverend Benjamin Harrison, Chaplain to His Grace the Archbishop; the Right Honourabl.

J. Nicholl (Vicar General); and F. Dyke, Esq. Deputy Registrar; were in attendance. The Reverend John Vane officiated as Deputy Clerk of the Closet.

Her Majesty the Queen and His Royal Highness Prince Albert, attended by the Great Officers and other Members of the Household, were present during the ceremony.

WHEREAS Edward Jones, of the Blossoms Inn, in Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, Innkeeper, did, on the 14th day of February 1843, by indenture, bearing date the same day, and executed in the presence of William Denson Jones, of Wrexham aforesaid, Attorney at Law, assign over all his estate and effects unto John Richards, of Wrexham aforesaid, Wine Merchant, therein named, for the equal benefit of such of his creditors as shall execute the same within one calendar month from the date thereof; notice is hereby given, that the said deed of assignment now lies at the office of the said William Denson Jones, in Wrexham aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of such of the creditors as shall choose to avail themselves of the benefit thereof; and such of them as shall not execute the same, or signify their assent thereto in writing, within the time above mentioned, will be excluded from all benefit to be derived therefrom.—Wrexham, March, 1843.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wright, of the city of Edinburgh, and Richard Burgess and Ralph Taylor, both of Tunstall, in the county of Stafford, carrying on business together in partnership as Earthenware Manufacturers, at Tunstall aforesaid, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 25th day of April next, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Sneyd's Arms Inn, in Tunstall aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, and effects of the said bankrupts, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such and so many lots, at such times and places, and generally in such manner as the said assignees shall think fit; and with power to make all such sale or sales for ready money or on credit, and, if the latter, with such security for payment as the assignees may think proper, without being answerable for any loss or damage that may be sustained thereby; and, in case of any such sale or sales by auction, to authorise and empower the said assignees, from time to time, to buy in the said stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, and effects, or any part thereof, and afterwards to sell the same, respectively, by tender or private contract, for such prices, and in such manner, as the said assignees shall deem expedient, without being answerable for any diminution of price or loss arising thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees having the said stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, and effects, or any part thereof, appraised and valued at the expense of the said bankrupts' estate, for the use and government of the said assignees in the sale and disposition thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees converting and working up the unfinished stock and raw materials at the manufactory lately occupied by the said bankrupts, in Tunstall aforesaid; and for that purpose to engage and hire workmen and servants, and pay their wages, and to purchase and pay for coals, and other articles necessary, in order to the working up and completing of such unfinished stock and materials; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging the rents now due, or claimed to be due, for the manufactory and dwelling-houses, respectively, occupied by the said bankrupts; and to authorise the said assignees to pay such rent and taxes as shall hereafter become due for the premises, or any of them, or any other buildings or premises which the said assignees may think it necessary to use and occupy until the unfinished stock can be completed, and the stock in trade and effects of the said bankrupts can be advantageously disposed of; and also to consider, and, if they so decide, then to sanction all such acts, matters, and things as the said assignees shall and may have done prior to the said meeting, in and about or concerning the estate and business of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the said bankrupts' estate, or giving time or taking security for the payment of any debt or debts due to such estate, or submitting any dispute relating to such estate to the determination of arbitrators; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, relative to the estate or affairs of the said bankrupts, or answering and opposing any petition or application to the Court of Review, which may be preferred by or on behalf of the said bankrupts, or any of them, for annulling the said fiat, or reversing the adjudication made by the Commissioner under the same; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupts in such manner, and in all respects as to them shall seem expedient.

Declaration of Dividend under a Fiat, dated 16th September 1841, against William Hitchcock, of Regent-street, Linen Draper and Silk Mercer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Third Dividend, at the rate of 1s. in the pound, is now payable, and that warrants for the same may be received by those legally entitled, at my office, No. 12, Abchurch-lane, in the city of London, on Wednesday the 29th instant, and the two following Wednesdays, between the hours of eleven and two on each day. No warrants can be delivered unless the securities exhibited at the proof of the debt be produced, without the special directions of a Commissioner. Executors and administrators of deceased creditors will be required to produce the probate of will and letters of administration.—27th March 1843.

J. F. GROOM, Official Assignee.

In the Matter of James Taylor and James Butterworth, both of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Painters, Oil and Colour Men, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy was issued, bearing date 28th December 1842.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the joint estate of the above bankrupts, may receive a First Dividend of 1s. 9d. in the pound, and those creditors who have proved under the separate estates may receive a First Dividend of 12s. 6d. in the pound under each separate estate, upon application at my office, between the hours of eleven and one o'clock, on Tuesday the 4th April next, and every following Tuesday. No Dividend can be paid to any creditor holding any security for his debt until such security shall be produced to me, without the special direction of the Commissioner on that behalf.—22d March 1843.

JAS. S. POTT, Official Assignee,
No. 5, Town-hall-buildings, Cross-street, Manchester.

In the Matter of Charles James Townley, of Liverpool, Share Broker and Commission Agent, lately carrying on business at Liverpool, with Gerald Atkinson, as Share Brokers and Commission Agents, under the name, style, and firm of G.
