Whitehall, April 1.

THE following Address was Presented to His Majesty by Richard Verney Esq (upon whom His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood) and several other of the principal Gentlemen of the County of Warwick, being Introduced by the Right Honorable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The Humble Address of your most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, of the Grand Inquest for your Majesties County of Warwick at the Assizes there held on the 23. of March in the First Year of your Majesties Reign.

Grief and Tears though a Duty to the Sacred Althes of our late Dread Sovereign, are too mean and transcient a Tribute to that invaluable loss.

That Grace of God which hath placed his Scepter in your hands, hath taught your Subjects the best way to Testifie our Sorrows is by a steady Obedience to you, Sir, our Sovereign Leige Lord, his undoubted Heir and Successor, according to the Rights of that Hereditary Monarchy which hath ever been in England since our Ancestors were civilized by Government.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to prostrate our selves at your Sacred Feet; acknowledging a full acquiescence in your Gracious Promises, not doubting, but that the Church of England, shall flourish in all her Legal Priviledges, and Establishments, and that your Crown shall enjoy all that Fame and Power, both at home and abroad, which it ever had in the best days of your most renowned Ancestors.

This Sir, you being our Monarch is our Belief and Hope, we therefore with faithful Hearts, cheerfully offer the willing Sacrifice of our Lives and Fortunes, to serve your Majesty, with a most entire obedience and exact fidelity.

We desire the Concurrence of the Honorable Bench and each of the Nobility and Gentry as are present at the said Assizes.

Whitehall, April 1. There have been likewise presented to His Majesty very Loyal Addresses, From the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Inhabitants of the County of Berks. From the two Grand Juries for the County of Suffolk at the Assizes holden at Ipswich the 18th of March 1684. From the Grand Jury for the County of Kent at the Assizes holden at Rocheſter the 24th of March 1684. From the Bayliff and Burghers of the Borough of Knaresbrough in Yorkshire. From the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Macclesfield in the County of Cheſter. And from the Mayor, Justices of the Peace, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Tenby in the County of Pembroke, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

Venice, March 17. The 13th Instant a Vessel arrived here from the Levant, by which we had an account that the Turks make great preparations for the Campaign; That the Grand Signior had sent Orders to the Dey of Tripoli to fit out a certain number of Men of War to joyn the Turkish Fleet; And that the Caimacam had caused several Merchant Ships, that were at Constantinople, to be stopp'd, intending to employ them for the Transporting the Troops from Asia to Theſſalonique. We have advice that General Morofini is gone from Preveſta to Sanſta Maura to viſit that Fortreſs and to haſten the new Fortifications that are making there. Vessels are providing to Transport severl Companies of Dragoons and 500 Foot, raised in Germany, to Dalmatia. The Republick hath made a Treaty with the Elector of Saxony, for 3000 Men, which it's hoped will be here by the beginning of May. His Electoral Highness parted from hence this Week in his return home.

Genova, March. 24. The Doge and the four Senators begun their Journey the 21 Instant for France; They will pass through Plisiri, Mazone, Aqui and Carignan, without entering into the great Towns to avoid Ceremony; The Eldest Senator is to supply the place of the Doge during his absence. This Week sailed from hence the Fly for Naples; and the Vine for the Riviera. The London Merchant; The Britton; and the Daniel, are arrived in this Port.

Warsaw, March 13. The Dyet hath not yet made choice of their Marschal or Speaker, the Deputies of Lithuania insiſting to have it first declared that the two next Dyets shall be held at Grodno, which the Nobility of Poland are willing to agree to, so that their time has been hitherto spent very fruitlessly. We have advice that the Turks and Tartars are preparing to bring a great Army into the Field.

Vienna, March 20. The Garrison of Newbusel, as we understand by the Prisoners, lately taken by Colonel Heusler, are notwithstanding the several supplies of Provisions they have received this Winter, in great want; which the Turks are so sensible of, that they are drawing what Troops they can together, to relieve the place. At the same time all imaginable care is taken on this side to frustrate their Design. The Preparations for the Campaign advance very successfully; The general rendezvous of the Emperors Troops and those of the Empire is appointed to be on the 27th of May. The Count de Staremberg Governor of this City and Marschal de Camp General, will part from hence the beginning of the next Month, for Croatia, to Command the Emperors Forces there in the place of Count Lſlie, who is to Command the Imperial Infantrie under the Duke of Lorraine. The Ingenier that came from Flanders made the 16th Instant a Second Tryal, in the presence of the Emperor, of his Bombes and Carcasses of a new Invention, with which his Imperial Majesty was very well satisfied. The Letters from Hungary tell us that the Turks have prepared a Convoy of 1200 Wagons laden with Ammunition and Provisions for Newbusel; and that they have drawn together 20000 Men near Buda.

Hamburg, March 16. The Endeavours that have been used for the composing the differences between the Duke of Zell and this City have not as yet had any success; The Goods belonging to some Merchants of this Place that were lately seized at Harbourg and Lunenbourg have by Order of the Duke of Zell been sold there; And these Magistrates have thereupon Published an Order for the securing the effects his Highnesses Subjects have at present here. The Troops which the Princes of Lunenbourg send to the Emperors assistance will begin their their March the 5th of the next Month ; The Foot will March to Ratisbonne, and embark there on the Danube ; and the Horse will take two different ways, that they may less incommode the Subjects of those Princes who have granted them passage through their Territories.

Hague, April 3. The Princes de Conti, and de la Roche Sur Ton arrived here the first Instant, and parted again the next day for Amsterdam. The Prince of Orange is gone to spend three or four days at Dieren. The States of Holland and West-Frizeland will reassemble to morrow, when it's believed they will come to a resolution about the reduction of the Troops.
