

Kilmersden, belonging to John Moore Paget, Esq. which piece of land is marked three hundred and sixteen on the parish map, and is bounded by the road leading from Wells to Lypeat on the north, and by the parish of Babington on the east; from thence, through the centre of the said road, passing by Cherry-garden to Lypeat; and from thence, continuing through the centre of the same road, to the north east corner of a piece of land, in the said parish of Kilmersden, belonging to Francis Craddock, Gentleman, which said piece of land is number eight hundred and eighty-four in the parish map, and is bounded by the said last-mentioned road on the east, and by the road leading from Kilmersden to Holcombe on the west, through the centre of the said last-mentioned road to the point where the same meets the parish of Holcombe; and from thence along the boundary of the said parish of Kilmersden, against the parishes of Holcombe Leigh on Mendip and Babington, to the north east corner of the said first-mentioned piece of land belonging to the said John Moore Paget, as shewn by the map annexed, and thereon tinted green :

“ That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel :

“ That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; and in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Southampton Cemetery.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to a special resolution of the House of Commons, that application has been made to Parliament, in the present session, and leave given to bring in a Bill for making, establishing, and maintaining a cemetery or burial-ground on extra-parochial land, being part of Southampton Common, in the town and county of the town of Southampton, the property of the Council of the borough, subject to certain rights of common thereon, containing fifteen acres or thereabouts, and situate near the south west corner of the said common, bounded on the north, the south, and the east, by a trench, recently dug, separating the same from part of the said common, and on the west by a similar trench, or by Hill-lane; in which Bill powers will be contained for extinguishing all rights of common and other rights and privileges over the said piece of land; and for enabling the Town Council to raise money for the purposes of the said cemetery or burial-ground, and to levy rates, duties, or fees in respect thereof, and for conferring such rights and privileges as may be necessary or are usual in similar cases.—Dated this 17th day of March 1843.

By order of the Council of the borough of Southampton,
Charles E. Deacon, Town Clerk.
