TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1843.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 21, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 26th of April next, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend the Levees at Saint James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levees, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting; in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

India Board, April 7, 1843.

THE Notification, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received at the East India House, from the Governor in Council at Bombay:

NOTIFICATION.

Bombay Castle, February 27, 1843.

1. THE Honourable the Governor in Council has the highest gratification in announcing, for general information, that Major James Outram, Commissioner in Sindh, has this day arrived in Bombay, with dispatches from Major-General Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B., commanding the forces in Sinde and Beloochistan, dated Hyderabad the 20th instant, announcing a most complete and signal victory which was gained, on the 17th instant, by the European and native troops, as detailed in the margin,* under the command of that distinguished and gallant Officer, over the combined armies of the Ameers of Upper and Lower Sinde.

2. On the morning of the 15th instant, a body of 8000 men, with six guns, under the command of Meer Shadad Khan, one of the principal Ameers, his cousin, Meer Mahomed Khan, and many of the principal Chiefs, took up a position on three sides of the British residency at Hyderabad, and attempted to force an entrance into the enclosure, which was surrounded by a low wall of from four to five feet in height, and defended by Major Outram's escort, composed of 100 men, the light company of Her Majesty's 22d regiment, under the command of Captain Conway, of that regiment, assisted by the Officers mentioned in the margin.† After effectually keeping the enemy at bay for nearly four hours, and after almost the whole of their ammunition was expended, Major Outram and his brave associates effected their retreat, in the best possible order, to the iron steamers Planet and Satellite, and ultimately formed a junction with Major-General Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B. at Hala.

3. The loss sustained in this heroic defence, reflecting so much honour on the defenders, is stated in the margin,‡ whilst that of the enemy was 90 killed and many wounded.

4. On the following day, the 16th instant, Major-General Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B. marched to Mutharee, and, on his arrival there, ascertained that the Ameers were in position at Meeanee, distant about ten miles, to the number of twenty-two thousand men. Being aware that any delay for reinforcements would both strengthen the confidence of the enemy and add to their numbers, although his own force was not one seventh part of that of the enemy, Sir Charles Napier resolved upon making an immediate attack, and accordingly marched towards Meeanee at 4 o'clock in the morning (the 17th).—At 8 o'clock A.M. the advanced guard of Major-General Sir C. Napier's force discovered the enemy's camp, and at 9 o'clock

* 9th regiment Bengal light cavalry; Sinde irregular horse; detail Poona irregular horse; 2d company 2d battalion camel battery; 8d ditto 3d battalion Golundauze horse and mule battery; C. company Madras sappers and miners; Her Majesty's 22d regiment; 1st grenadier regiment, 12th regiment, 25th regiment, Bombay native infantry.

† Lieutenant Harding, Ensign Pennecfather, Her Majesty's 22d regiment; Captain Green, 21st regiment Bombay N. I.; Captain Wells, 15th regiment Bombay N. I.; Captain Brown, Bengal engineers.

‡ 2 privates of H. M.'s 22d regt. killed; 4 privates of H. M.'s 22d regt. wounded; 1 conductor wounded; 1 European writer wounded; 1 camp follower killed; 2 camp followers wounded; 2 men of steamer's crew wounded.

the British troops formed in order of battle, being composed of about two thousand and eight hundred men, of all arms, and twelve pieces of artillery. The enemy opened a most determined and destructive fire upon the British troops, and, during the action which ensued, with the most undaunted bravery, repeatedly rushed upon them sword in hand. After a most resolute and desperate contest, which lasted for upwards of three hours, the enemy was completely defeated and put to flight, with the estimated loss of about 5000 men, 1000 of whom were left dead on the field, together with the whole of their artillery, ammunition, and standards, a considerable quantity of stores, and some treasure.

5. The following day, Meer Roostom Khan, Meer Nusseer Khan, and Meer Wullee Mahomed, of Khyrpore; Meer Nusseer Khan, Meer Shadad Khan, and Meer Hoossein Khan, of Hyderabad, came into the camp of Major-General Sir C. Napier, and unconditionally gave themselves up as prisoners of war, and the British colours were hoisted over the city of Hyderabad on the 20th instant.

6. It belongs to the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India, to eulogise in suitable terms, the gallantry and devotion displayed by the British troops engaged on this occasion; but the Honourable the Governor in Council cannot now refrain from stating, that Major-General Sir C. Napier speaks in the highest terms of the heroism and distinguished bravery which were evinced by the troops of all arms, and which enabled that gallant Officer, after a most desperate and hard fought battle, to add to his former high character and renown, by the achievement of one of the most decisive victories recorded in the history of India.

7. The Honourable the Governor in Council deeply laments to state, that considerable loss* has attended this brilliant victory; in particular he has to deplore the following gallant Officers, who, after having conspicuously distinguished themselves, nobly died on the field of battle:

Major H. C. Teaslale, commanding 25th regiment, Bombay N. I.

Captain W. W. Tew, H. M. 22d regiment.

Brevet Captain and Adjutant Cookson, 9th regiment Bengal Light Cavalry.

Captain and Brevet Major W. H. Jackson, 12th regiment Bombay N. I.

Lieutenant and Brevet Captain R. N. Meade, 12th regiment Bombay N. I.

India Board, April 7, 1843.

THE General Orders, published by the Governor-General of India, of which the following is a copy, have been this day received at the India House:

GENERAL ORDERS,

By the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Kurnaul, January 27, 1843.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General has been pleased to direct the following report of the operations of the troops, under Major-General M'Caskill, K. H. on the march to and from Cabool, to be published for general information.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secretary to the Government of India,
with the Governor-General.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India.

Head-Quarters, Camp, Esa-khan-Ke-kote, SIR, January 12, 1843.

I HAVE the honour, by direction of his Excellency the Commander in Chief, to forward, for the purpose of being laid before the Right Honourable the Governor-General, a copy of a letter from Major-General G. Pollock, C. B. No. 606, of the 28th ultimo, forwarding copies of Major-General M'Caskill's dispatches, dated the 16th September and 20th October last,* reporting the operations of the troops under his orders on the march to and from Cabool.

I have, &c.
J. R. LUMLEY, Major-General,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

Major-General G. Pollock, C. B. commanding Troops returned from Affghanistan, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Ferozepore, December 28, 1842.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward, for submission to his Excellency the Commander in Chief, the original reports of Major-General M'Caskill, K. H. and those of the Officers under his orders, during the advance on, and subsequent march from, Cabool, as there is every reason to believe the copies transmitted to head-quarters never reached your office.

Major-General J. M'Caskill, K. H. Commanding Infantry Division, to the Assistant-Adjutant-General.

Camp, near Cabool, September 16, 1842.

SIR,

I BEG to report, for the information of Major-General Pollock, C. B. that the column detailed in the margin,* which he entrusted to my command on the 6th instant, completed its advance from Gundamuck to Soorkhab, and again its forced march from Kuttur Sung to Tezeen, with little interruption from the enemy; but on the route from Soorkhab to Jugdulluck, and from the latter place to Kuttur Sung, the Ghilzies showed themselves in considerable force and attacked our columns and baggage with much boldness and perseverance. All their efforts were, however, foiled by the steadiness of the troops, and the good dispositions of Brigadier Monteath, C. B., and the Officers commanding our advanced and rear guards, especially Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, 33d regiment native infantry, and Major Skinner, Her Majesty's 31st. It is gratifying to me to have to state, that a predatory enemy was unable to capture from us the least article of our baggage or stores, and that the only loss sustained of this kind, which could be deemed of importance, arose from the total exhaustion of a portion of our carriage animals, when our march was necessarily doubled, to enable us to rejoin the head-quarters at Tezeen. I beg to enclose a return of casualties on the 9th, 10th, and 11th instant.

* See London Gazette of March 17, 1843.

Brigadier T. Monteath, C. B., Commanding 4th Brigade, to Captain Havelock, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General, Infantry Division.

SIR, Camp, Tezeen, September 12, 1842.

I HAVE the honour, for the information of Major-General M'Caskill, K. H., to transmit to you reports from Lieutenant-Colonel Bolton, Her Majesty's 31st regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, 33d native infantry; and Major Skinner, Her Majesty's 31st regiment, detailing the occurrences on the rear guards, from Soorkhab to this place.

In regard to those circumstances that came under my own observation and arrangement, I beg to say that, immediately on leaving Soorkhab, the enemy began to shew themselves on the heights and to fire on the troops, and as we approached the Jugdulluck pass, observing that their numbers were becoming formidable, and that they were gradually closing in upon our left, it occurred to me that their object was to allow the main column to get through the pass, and then to attack the baggage when it should be collected at the gorge.

This opinion (and I found it fully confirmed afterwards) induced me to send and direct Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, commanding the advance, to halt on arriving at the entrance of the pass, and there wait my further instructions.

Having halted the main column, I allowed the ammunition and the whole of the baggage to pass on, and when every thing was up, I then directed

* 2 guns, 3d troop 1st brigade H. A.; 2 guns, 3d troop 2d brigade; head quarters, and two squadrons 1st light cavalry; rissallah 2d irregular cavalry; Her Majesty's 31st regiment; right wing 33d N. I.; right wing 60th N. I.; Captain Ferris' corps of Jezailchees; detachment of cavalry and infantry, and camel guns of the Lahore contingent.

Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond to proceed with the advance down the pass and to occupy the heights on each side, which was very properly done by that Officer.

On this operation being completed, I then passed every thing down, and on the rear guard joining me, I moved off with the main column through the pass, to the great disappointment of the enemy, no doubt, (as they did not get a single thing) and arrived in camp at half past 8 P. M., a sharp fire having been kept up on the column throughout the pass.

On the march from Jugdulluck to Kutter Sung, from the circumstance of the enemy being in force all round the camp, I directed the advanced guard to move off and allowed the baggage to proceed in its rear, and when about two thirds of it had left the ground, I followed with the main column, leaving the remainder to the care of the rear guard.

On this occasion no loss was sustained, except what is detailed in Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond's report; the main column arrived in camp at 20 minutes after 4 P. M.

On the march from Kuttur Sung to this place, I despatched the whole of the baggage immediately after the advance guard, then moved in rear of it with the main column, leaving the godown bullocks to be looked after by the rear guard.

During the march very little molestation was experienced from the enemy; but I am sorry to say, that in consequence of the two marches having been performed in one, an elephant, the camp equipage of Major Delafosse's troop of artillery, many camels, bullocks, and some private property were lost, owing to the cattle, from their previous exhausted state, not being equal to the work.

The waggons of Captain Alexander's troop required to be pulled nearly the whole way by the men of Her Majesty's 31st regiment, and one waggon was dragged altogether (the horses having been taken out) by the sepoy's of the 33d and 60th regiments; the main column arrived in camp at 20 minutes past 7 P. M. It may not be unnecessary for me to report that the sepoy's, when called upon to perform the labour of dragging the waggon, came forward with a cheerfulness, and did the work with a spirit that was remarkable and deserving of the highest praise.

The march from Gundamuck to Saorkhab was conducted in the ordinary manner, and nothing deserving of mention occurred.

Enclosed I beg to send a return of casualties.

Major Thomas Skinner, H. M.'s 31st Regt. in Command of Rear Guard, to Lieutenant Lugard, Brigade Major, 4th Brigade.

SIR,

*Camp, Tezeen,
September 11th, 1842.*

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier Monteath, C. B., that when the ground we occupied at Kutter Sung was quite clear of baggage, I withdrew the picquets from the heights above it, and advanced them to those nearest the ascent to the road above until the guns and waggons were passed up, which was accomplished by half past 11 A. M. I then withdrew my posts by the heights on my flanks and continued towards Seh Baba, where I arrived without any molestation about 3 P. M. the necessity of dragging the guns up the many hills on the road rendering our progress slow. From Seh Baba to Tezeen, the rear guard was very much delayed by the many animals who fell exhausted from the heaviness of the march. I am afraid there was much loss of grain and baggage cattle. I destroyed, I hope, every thing that had been left in the rear, and that the enemy gained nothing by the failure of our cattle.

On ascending the hill at the entrance to the Tezeen valley, a party of the enemy, from the base of the hills on our left, fired into us, but without effect; two shrapnell shells, thrown among them with great precision, silenced their fire, and they fled to the heights out of shot, leaving, I think, some killed or wounded below. I pushed on when these people were dispersed, and reached camp at a little before eight, without casualty.

Lieutenant-Colonel A. F. Richmond, 33d Regiment Native Infantry, Commanding Rear Guard of the 2d Division, to Lieutenant Lugard, Major of Brigade, 4th Infantry Brigade.

*Camp, Kuttur Sung,
September 10th, 1842.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier Monteath, C. B., commanding the 4th infantry brigade, that the rear guard this morning, under my command, did not leave Jugdulluck until the whole of the baggage had cleared the ground, about eleven o'clock A. M.

As the enemy appeared in great numbers all around, and gradually closing on us, I directed the guns to be placed in a commanding position on our line of route, to cover the picquets, which soon after withdrew, on signals previously arranged, and formed on the low ground in front, in skirmishing order, slowly retiring, and ultimately forming on both flanks of the guns. The enemy, as I expected, instantly rushed forward from all directions, except our rear, but were checked by the very effective fire of the guns, ably directed by Captain Lawrence, Political Agent, who volunteered his services, and by Lieut. Abercrombie.

As the high ground we occupied afforded good cover, I determined to hold it with two companies of infantry, until the guns could be withdrawn, and dragged up the steep hill in our rear, an operation which required the aid of the remainder of the infantry.

At this time the enemy kept up a sharp fire, but all I desired was accomplished in good order; and having secured new positions in the rear, I recalled the two companies left in position, and commenced my march, occupying new posts where necessary, which were withdrawn in succession, until the enemy ceasing to annoy us, and the country becoming a little more open, enabled me to recall all the covering parties and prosecute my march towards camp, where I arrived about five o'clock, P. M., bringing every thing safely in, excepting one bullock-load of commissariat grain found on the road, which was given to the men of the irregular cavalry, also a few bullocks and two camels left on the road, which were destroyed, being unable to proceed.

The troops, both European and native, were very steady, and exerted themselves cheerfully in dragging the guns.

Our casualties, I am glad to say, were few, one Officer (Lieut. Brooke), two men of Her Majesty's 31st foot, and two sepoys of the 60th regiment native infantry, were wounded.

Major of Brigade, 4th Brigade.

Brigadier T. Monteath, C. B. Commanding 4th Brigade, to the Assistant-Adjutant-General.

SIR,

*Camp, Seh Baba,
October 15th, 1842.*

I HAVE the honour of addressing you, to report, for the information of Major-General Pollock, C. B., that in consequence of the great delay created by the captured guns, which it was necessary, with extreme labour, to drag almost the whole way from Khoord Cabool to Tezeen, on account of the badness of the bullocks, and which work was performed in a most admirable manner by the men of Her Majesty's 31st regiment, I did not enter the Huft Kotul pass, with the force under my command,* until late yesterday evening.

For about one half of the way through, the troops met with no molestation, but, as the pass narrowed and became more difficult for the passage of the guns, the enemy took advantage of the stoppages occasioned by them, and from their positions, which the darkness rendered it impossible to perceive, except by the flashing of their fire arms, opened a sharp fire on the troops, which was checked, in a considerable degree, on the right flank of the column, by two companies of the 2d regiment, and a party of Her Majesty's 31st regiment, detached by me for the purpose.

As this latter party, from the immediate necessity that existed for their services, was taken by me from the fatigue detail at the guns (with which I happened to be at the time), I sent it out under Brigade Major Lugard, who, in returning from the duty on which he was employed, had his horse severely wounded.

The enemy having in the end come down sword in hand upon the rear and left flank of the column, I ordered Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, with the wing of the 33d regiment, and the picquets of the old ground that had joined on the march, to keep them in check, which was satisfactorily done until we had cleared the pass.

Enclosed I beg to send a return of killed and wounded.

SIR, *Camp, Gundamuck,
October 19, 1842.*

I HAVE the honour of reporting, for the information of Major-General M'Caskill, K.H., that on arriving yesterday morning with the main column of the division in the Jugdulluck pass, I observed that the enemy were collecting in force on the heights; therefore, conceiving that an attack would be made upon the baggage, as well as upon the rear guard, I determined upon taking up a position, with the whole of my force, at the head of the pass, until all the baggage and materiel had gone through, and I had been joined by the rear guard under Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond.

In pursuance of this determination, I placed the troops and two 9-pounders in position on the plateau at the head of the pass, from whence the heights on both sides are commanded for a considerable distance.

The fire of these and of the guns completely held the enemy, who were very numerous, in check; and I had the satisfaction of seeing the whole of the baggage out of the pass without a single thing having been obtained by them; and on the arrival of Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond with the rear guard, I resigned the position to him and marched on to protect the baggage, which had then become placed between the advance and the main column.

Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, who had been directed by me to remain in position for a quarter of an hour after my departure with the rear guard, consisting of six hundred and nineteen rank and file and two guns, reports that on his withdrawal, the enemy, to the extent of about six hundred men, came forward in a very determined manner and followed him up for a considerable distance, although frequently driven back by the fire of the troops and guns.

Enclosed I beg to transmit a return of killed and wounded, and ammunition expended in the main column and rear guard during the day.

Brigade, to Captain Havelock, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General.*

Camp, Gundamuck, October 20, 1842.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour of transmitting a report of the occurrences which took place with that portion of the force under my command, in the Jugdulluck pass, on the 18th instant.

As from what I have learnt, I have reason to think, that the reports of the former march from Soorkhab to Tezeen, when the casualties of the force amounted to sixty-two, have not been forwarded to Government; and as I consider it very desirable it should be on record, that the toils, dangers, and deserts of my brigade have not been in any degree less than those of the other portions of the army, I have to request, that Major-General M'Caskill will be good enough to express to Major-General Pollock my wish, that my three reports may be forwarded for the information of the Governor-General.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of February 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for severing the Rectory of Elingham from the Mastership of St. Mary Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, and for authorising the sale of the advowson of the said rectory.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority thereafter provided, such arrangements may be made with respect to benefices which are annexed by Act of Parliament, or otherwise, to the Headships of Colleges in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, as may enable the respective colleges, if they shall think fit, to sell, or themselves to purchase, the advowsons of such benefices, and to invest the proceeds in proper securities, with provisions for the payment of the interest and annual profits thereof, to the respective heads of colleges for the time being; and that, upon the completion of the said arrangements, respectively, the existing incumbents of such benefices, respectively, shall be at liberty, upon resigning the same, to receive the interest and annual profits of the proceeds arising from such sales, respectively;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for confirming the annexation of the Rectory of Elingham, in the county of Norfolk, to the Mastership of Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge," the said rectory of Elingham, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, was annexed to the Mastership of Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, and is now held by the present Master thereof, the Honourable and Reverend George Neville Grenville, according to the provisions of the same Act, and it is expedient that the said rectory should be disposed of, according to the provisions of the said first recited Act:

"We, therefore, recommend and propose, with the consent of the Master and Fellows of the said College, testified by their having sealed this scheme with their common seal, and also with the consent of the Right Honourable Richard Griffin Lord Braybrooke, as Visitor of the said College, and of the said George Neville Grenville, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the advowson of, and perpetual right of presentation to, the said rectory of Elingham shall be severed and disannexed from the said Mastership; and that the said advowson and right of presentation, together with all endowments, rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, may and shall be sold and conveyed to such person or persons, or body corporate, in such manner, and subject to such conditions, and for such price or sum of money, as shall be determined upon and approved by us; but not for a less price or sum of money than shall be approved by the Visitor and Master of the said College for the time being; and that, upon the completion of such sale, the said George Neville Grenville, or his successor, Master of the said College, shall be at liberty to resign the said rectory of Elingham, and, upon the said rectory becoming vacant, the said Master, and his successors in the said Mastership, shall thenceforth become entitled to receive the interest and annual profits of the proceeds arising from such sale:

"And we further recommend and propose, that the moneys arising from such sale shall be paid to us, and shall be invested in such manner as shall be approved by us, with the consent of the said Visitor and Master, or their successors, for the benefit of the Master of the said College for the time being:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the matters to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the dioceses of Norwich and of Ely respectively.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination until the last day for entering opposition, inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

Pursuant to the Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England.

THE COURT FOR RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS.

N.B.—See the Notice at the end of these Advertisements.

The following PRISONERS, whose Estates and Effects have been vested in the Provisional Assignee by Order of the Court, having filed their Schedules, are ordered to be brought up before a Commissioner on Circuit, to be dealt with according to the Statute, as follows:
