

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1843.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 18, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 21st of June next, at two o'clock.

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to the Queen.

Addresses to the Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend the Levee at Saint James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the day but one previous to the Levee, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levee, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 19, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock:

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Regent-street Chapel, situated at Regent-street, in the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, in the district of Lambeth, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 29th day of May 1843, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of May 1843,
William T. Logan, Superintendent Registrar.

Great North of England, Clarence, and Hartlepool Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, since the introduction of a Bill into Parliament in the present session, intituled "A Bill to enable the Great North of England, Clarence, and Hartlepool Junction Railway Company to make a branch railway, and to explain and amend the Acts relating to the said railway, and for other purposes," an alteration in the line and levels of the said intended branch railway has been submitted to, and approved of by, the Committee of the Honourable the House of Commons to whom the said Bill was referred; and that provision was made in the said Bill for enabling the said Great North of England, Clarence, and Hartlepool Junction Railway Company to execute such new branch according to such altered line; which said altered line will commence on the west side of the Sherburne branch of the Clarence Railway, in a field belonging to the Reverend Robert Hopper Williamson, in the township of Thrislington, in the parish of Bishop Middleham, in the county of Durham; will thence pass from, in, through, or into the townships of Thrislington and Ferryhill, and the parishes of Bishop Middleham and Merrington, in the said county, and will terminate at or near to, and by a junction with, a certain other railway, called or known by the name of the Byer's-green Branch of the Clarence Railway, in or near to certain other fields, in the occupation of Robert Parker, which are, respectively, situate in the said township of Ferryhill, in the said parish of Merrington.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of such proposed alteration, on the same scale, and containing the same particulars, as the original Parliamentary plan and section, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham in November last, together with a book of reference thereto, has been, or will be, deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, at his office, at Durham; and that a copy of the said plan and section, so far as the same relates to each of the said parishes of Bishop Middleham and Merrington, together with a book of reference thereto, has been, or will be, deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.—Dated this 28th day of May 1843.

IN CHANCERY.—Between Helen Solomon, Widow, and others, Plaintiffs; and Beatrice Daniell, Spinster, Defendant.

TAKE notice, that this Honourable Court will be moved before his Honour the Vice Chancellor of England, on Thursday the 8th day of June next, or so soon after as Counsel can be heard, on the part of the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs' bill, in this cause, may be taken, pro confesso, against the above-named defendant, Beatrice Daniell, Spinster.—Dated this 4th day of May 1843.

EDWD. BRYT. GAREY, Solicitor for the plaintiffs in this cause.

To the above-named Defendant, Beatrice Daniell, Spinster.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, entitled, respectively, the Attorney General versus the Governors of Dedham School, the Attorney General versus Ellis, and the Attorney General versus Taylor, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether there is any heir male of the body of Charles Cardinal, in the pleadings in the said causes named, now living, and of what age; and whereas the said Charles Cardinal was the brother of William Cardinal, formerly of Egmonton, in the county of Nottingham, Esq. and is named in the will of the said William Cardinal, in the pleadings in the said causes mentioned, bearing date the 16th day of January 1595; pursuant, therefore, to the said Decree, any person claiming to be the heir male of the body of the said Charles Cardinal is, by his Solicitor, on or before the 3d day of July 1843, to come in before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, and make out his heirship.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Farr versus Sheriffe, and other causes, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who were the next of kin of Susan Dykes, living at her death (which happened on or about the 8th day of March 1821), who would, by virtue of the Statute of distribution of intestates' estates, have been entitled to her personal estate if she had died intestate, without having been married; and whether any of them were since dead, and, if so, who was or were his or her or their legal personal representative or representatives; therefore, all persons, claiming to be such next of kin, or the personal representative or representatives of such next of kin, are forthwith to come in and prove their kindred and make out their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Susan Dykes was the wife of Philip Dykes, late of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, deceased, formerly Susan Farr, Spinster, the daughter of John Farr, of North Cove, in the county of Suffolk, Gentleman, deceased.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Farr versus Sheriffe, and other causes, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who was or were the heir at law, and customary heir or heirs as to the several copyhold hereditaments comprised in the deed of 1779, of Philip Dykes, at his death, and who is or are now such heir at law or customary heirs respectively; therefore, all persons, claiming to be such heir at law or customary heir, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The copyhold hereditaments, comprised in the said deed, are held of the manor or lordship of Roydon-hall, with Tuffs in Roydon, in the county of Norfolk.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Lewis against Lewis, it was, amongst other things, referred to Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Frederick Fordham and Edward Fordham, of North Audley-street, Oxford-street, mentioned in the will of Samuel Shephard Warner, late of King-street, Holborn, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the year 1829), or either of them, is or are living or dead, and, if they or either of them are or is living, what are or is their respective ages or age, and if they or either of them be dead, then the said Master was to enquire and state at what age or ages they or he respectively died, and if they or either of them died after attaining the age of twenty-one years, and also to ascertain who are or is their or his personal representatives or representative; any person or persons, claiming to be such representatives or representative, are forthwith to come in before the said Master and establish their claim, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hepworth against Heslop, the creditors of John Heslop, late of Ripon, in the county of York, Wine Merchant, deceased (who died in the month of January 1842), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 15th day of June 1843, to leave their claims of debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 15th day of July 1843, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Sharp versus Brown, the creditors of Jane Brown, late of Little Bowden, in the county of Northampton, Spinster, deceased (who died in the month of August 1842), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of June 1843, to leave their claims of debts before Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 24th day of July 1843, to establish such claims before the said Master; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hingston against Lyne, the creditors of George Drake, late of Ipplepen, in the county of Devon, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of March 1842), are, on or before the 3d day of July 1843, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes of Robinson and others versus Ellis, and Robinson versus Ellis, the creditors of William Holtby, late of Bridlington, in the county of York, Banker (who died on the 24th day of June 1823), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Cox and others against Knapman and another, the creditors of Henry Knapman, late of Sydney-terrace, Marlborough-square, Chelsea-road, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of July 1840), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
