An Act for making a branch railway, from the London and Birmingham Railway, to Northampton and Peterborough.

An Act to enable the South Eastern Railway Company, in conjunction with the London and Croydon Railway Company, to make a railway, from the London and Croydon Railway, to Swanstreet, near the Bricklayers' Arms, in the Old Kent-road, and to provide a new station there.

An Act to provide for the improvement of the town and harbour of Borrowstounness, in the county of Linlithgow; for paving, lighting, and cleansing the streets of the said town; and for regulating the police thereof.

An Act to convert the shares, in the capital authorized to be raised by the Acts for making a dock or docks at Southampton, into stock; to raise a further sum of money; and to alter and amend some of the powers of the said Acts.

An Act to establish a cemetery, for the interment of the dead, near the town and within the borough of Southampton.

An Act for better cleansing, sewerage, and draining the town of Topsham, in the county of Devon, and for other purposes connected therewith.

An Act for amending and rendering more effectual several Acts, for draining and preserving certain fen lands and low grounds in the isle of Ely, and counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, near Mildenhall river, so far as relates to the several lands in the second district therein described, and for extending the limits of the said second district.

And one private Act.

Whitehall, July 1, 1843.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Lieutenant Collingwood Dickson, of the Royal Artillery, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the supernumerary cross of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles the Third; the cross, of the first class, of the National and Military Order of San Fernando; and the cross of a Knight of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic, which Her Majesty the Queen of Spain hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of Her Catholic Majesty's approbation of his services in the field in 1840, at Morella and Berga, and during the late civil war in Spain; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's writ of ad quod damnum has been lately issued forth to the Sheriff of the county of Middlesex, in these words, Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of our county of Middlesex, greeting, we command you, that, by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently inquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Lord Archbishop of York, the Right Honourable William Earl of Devon, and James Loch, devisees under the will of the Most Noble Francis Duke of Bridgewater, deceased, and the Right Honourable Francis Egerton, commonly called Lord Francis Egerton, tenant for life in possession of the estates devised by the said will, licence that they, the said Lord Archbishop of York, Earl of Devon, James Loch, and Lord Francis Egerton, may enclose and stop up a common street or public highway, situate in the several parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields, and Saint James's, Westminster, in the said county of Middlesex, and called or known by the name of Catherine Wheel-yard, leading from Cleveland-row, in the said parish of Saint James's, Westminster, to Little Saint James's-street, in the said parish, in the said county of Middlesex; the said common street or public highway, so to be inclosed and stopped up, beginning at the north west corner of a garden belonging to a house, the property of the said devisees and Lord Francis Egerton, and late in the occupation of the Right Honourable Thomas Grenville, situate on the west side of Cleveland-square, and ending at the north-eastern corner of certain coach-houses and stables, situate in Catherine Wheel-yard aforesaid, the property of the Right Honourable John Charles Earl Spencer, and containing in length 380 feet or thereabouts, and in breadth 20 feet or thereabouts; and that the said devisees may hold the said way, so enclosed and stopped up, to them and their heirs for ever; so that, instead of the said way, the said devisees and Lord Francis Egerton do make in their own land another carriage way, or carriage ways, as convenient and commodious for carriages, passengers, and travellers, as the said way so to be stopped up and enclosed as aforesaid; and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or any other, then to what damage, or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom and how, and in what manner, and how much that way, to be held by the said devisees as aforesaid, doth contain by number of perches or feet of land, as well in length as in breadth; and that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made without delay unto our Chancery, under your seal, and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.

Witness ourself at Westminster, the 11th day of April, in the sixth year of our reign.

Bentall.

By Sir Frederick Pollock, Knight, Attorney-General of our Lady the Queen.

Notice is hereby given, that the inquisition on the said writ will be taken at the Tavern, called Fenton's Hotel, in St. James's-street, Westminster, on Saturday the 8th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, when and where all parties interested are to attend.

Gatty and Turner, Solicitors, No. 2, Red Lion-square.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, COCOA, SUGAR, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 5, 1843.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 13th July instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles, viz.

Rum, the produce of the British possessions, and not less than half to be the produce of the British possessions in the West Indies, 100,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Cocoa, 70 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Sugar, the produce of the British possessions, 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Tobacco, 15 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

All the articles to be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), and of the sugar intended to be supplied, must be produced by the parties tendering, and a sample of the tobacco, and of the description of sugar admissible, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts for rum, cocoa, and sugar.

London, July 6, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that warrants for the dividend declared on the nominal capital stock of the Corporation called the Governor and Company for working of Mines, Minerals, and Metals, in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be ready to be delivered to the Proprietors, on Thursday the 13th instant, and every Thursday thereafter, till the whole is paid, at the Sun Fire Office, in Threadneedle-street; and that the transfer books, which are now shut, will be opened on the 13th instant.

Henry Pittet, Clerk.

Inspector General's Office, Custom-house, London,
6th July 1843.

WILLIAM IRVING.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, Elizabeth Clay and Robert Thomas Clay, of Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, as Wine and Spirit Merchants, was this day dissolved by mutual consent; and the said business will in future be carried on by the said Elizabeth Clay, of Bury St. Edmunds aforesaid, by whom all debts owing by or to the said partnership will be paid and received.—Witness our hands this 5th day of July 1843.

Elizabeth Clay.

Robert Thomas Clay.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, carrying on the business of Lamb's Wool, Yarn, Worsted, and Angola Spinners, at Leeds, in the county of York, under the firm of Dearlove and Fentons, was this day dissolved by mutual consent; and notice is hereby further given, that all debts due to and owing by the said firm will be received and paid by the said George Dearlove.—Dated this 30th day of June 1843.

Geo. Dearlove.

Josh. Thompson Fenton.

Richard Fenton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between Edward Bradley and Christopher Bradley, of Cowbridge, in the county of Glamorgan, Coach Proprietors and Farmers, was dissolved by an indenture, bearing date the 7th day of June 1843, as on and from the 31st day of May last; which said indenture was duly executed by the said Edward Bradley and Christopher Bradley.

Edwd. Bradley.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Clutterbuck against Wilkins, with the approbation of Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, certain freehold premises, situate on Holywell-hill, and in Watson's-row, St. Alban's, Herts, late the property of Mr. George Wilkins, of St. Alban's, Coach Maker, deceased, and consisting of a dwelling-house and premises, out-buildings, workshops, a yard, two gardens, and a close of pasture land adjoining; and also of four cottages, with a yard and two barns, common to the four, by Mr. John Horner Rumball, the person appointed to sell the same, at the Woolpack Inn, St. Alban's, Herts, sometime in the month of August 1843 (of which due notice will be given), in two lots.

Printed particulars may in a short time be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Bridger and Blake, Solicitors, 32, Finsbury-circus; and Messrs. Roche and Co. Solicitors, Charles-street, Covent-garden, London; and also of Mr. Francis James Osbaldeston, and Mr. Thomas Ward Blagg, Solicitors, and of the Auctioneer, all of St. Alban's aforesaid.

The premises may be viewed at any time before the sale.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Morris v. Herbert, and Morris v. Morris, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, by Henry Brown, Auctioneer, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose, at the Craven Arms Hotel, in the city of Coventry, on Friday the 21st day of July 1843, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in eleven lots;

Several very desirable freehold and copyhold estates, situate in the manor and parish of Barksell, the parish of Foleshill, and in the city of Coventry, in the county of Warwick, consisting of eight closes of freehold land, situate in the said parish of Barksell, containing 45A. 2R. 22P., in the occupation of Mr. William Smith.

A newly erected dwelling-house, with out-buildings, yard, garden, orchard, homestead, and several closes of copyhold meadow and pasture land, situate in the said manor and parish of Barksell, containing 10A. 1R. 25P., and six closes of copyhold arable land, situate in the same manor and parish, containing 19A. 1R. 19P., in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Cattell.

Four dwelling-houses, with out-buildings, gardens, and two closes of land, containing 13A. 3R. 20P., situate at Rowley's-green, in the parish of Foleshill aforesaid, in the occupation of Mr. William Masser and his undertenants, and one half of the brook adjoining thereto.

A dwelling-house, out-buildings, and gardens, and two closes of land, containing 6A. 2R. 15P., situate in the said parish of Foleshill, in the occupation of the said Mr. William Masser and his undertenants, and one half of the brook adjoining thereto.

Two closes of Michaelmas pasture land, containing 11A. 1R. 27P., situate on the south side of the road leading from Spon-end to Warwick-road, in the said city of Coventry, in the occupation of John Herbert, Esq.

Four dwelling-houses, situate on the west side of Crow, in the said city, in the occupations of Mr. Mallett and others, and a piece of building land lying near thereto, and eighteen dwelling-houses, with the ground adjoining thereto, situate in Thomas-street, in the said city of Coventry, in the occupation of John Cooke and others.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Woodcock, Twist, and Son, Solicitors, Coventry; of Messrs. R. M. and C. Baxter, Solicitors, 48, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; and of Mr. Henry Brown, Auctioneer, Coventry.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bloor v. Bloor, and others, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, sometime in the month of August next;

Two small but desirable freehold estates, situate at Bagillt and Newmarket, in the county of Flint.

Also four valuable pieces of freehold land, situate in the parish of West Kirby, in the county of Chester, the property of the late Thomas Bloor, of Frankley, deceased.

Printed particulars may be obtained at the office of the said Master, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; at Mr. J. V. Horne, Solicitor, Denbigh; Mr. Peacock, Solicitor, Liverpool; Mr. J. Molyneux Taylor, Furnival's-inn, London; and of Mr. Dean, Essex-street, Strand, London.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause of Glyn v. Glyn, and another cause, it was ordered, that it should be referred to the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, who, at the time of the decease of Robert Thomas John Glyn, late of Cavendish-place, Bath, Esquire, deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of March 1836), was or were the person or persons who, in the event of the said Robert Thomas John Glyn having died intestate, as to any part of his personal estate, would have been entitled to a distributive share or shares of such undisposed of personal estate; and whether any and which of such persons had since died, and, if so, when they died respectively; and who was or were the personal representative or representatives of such person or persons so dead; therefore, all persons who would have been entitled to a distributive share or distributive shares of such undisposed of personal estate as aforesaid, or the personal representative or representatives of any of such persons who have since died, are, on or before the 7th day of August 1843, to come in and make out their claims before me, at my chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

G. ROSE.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Savory v. Hodson, Savory v. Savory, and Savory v. Hodson, it was, amongst other things, referred to Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, who were the next of kin of Henry Savory, late of the Adam and Eve, Hampstead-road, in the county of Middlesex, Victualler, deceased (who died on the 12th day of May 1822), living at his decease, and, if any of them have since died, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said Henry Savory, living at the time of his decease, or, in case any of them have since died, the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of September 1843, to bring in their claims, and are, on or before the 11th day of November 1843, to establish such their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and of the General Orders of this Court.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Savory versus Hodson, Savory versus Savory, and Savory versus Hodson, the creditors of Henry Savory, late of the Adam and Eve, Hampstead-road, in the county of Middlesex, Victualler, deceased (who died in the month of May 1822), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of September 1843, to leave their claims of debts before Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 11th day of November 1843, to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.
