TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1843.

Foreign-Office, August 4, 1843.

THE Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. George Brown, as Consul in London for the Republic of Chile.

Whitehall, August 7, 1843.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend James Cochrane, M.A. to the charge and office of First Minister of the church and parish of Cupar, in the presbytery of Cupar and county of Fife, vacant in consequence of the Reverend Adam Cairns, late First Minister thereof, having ceased to be a Minister of the Church of Scotland.

The Queen has also been pleased to present the Reverend Thomas Mackintosh to the church and parish of Saint Cyrus, in the presbytery of Fordoun and county of Kincardine, vacant in consequence of Doctor Alexander Keith, late Minister thereof, having ceased to be a Minister of the Church of Scotland.

The Queen has also been pleased to present the Reverend Colin M'Culloch to the church and parish of Denny, in the presbytery and county of Stirling, vacant in consequence of the Reverend John Dempster, late Minister thereof, having ceased to be a Minister of the Church of Scotland.

Whitehall, August 7, 1843.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of John Viscount Kenmure, in the peerage of Scotland, without issue of his body, in the month of September, 1840, the title and dignity of Viscount Kenmure devolved upon Adam now Viscount Kenmure, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said Viscount Kenmure cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her had her late father, Adam Gordon, Esq. survived the said John Viscount Kenmure, and thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Viscount Kenmure, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that Louisa, widow of Charles Bellamy, Esq. sister of the said Adam now Viscount Kenmure, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if her said father, Adam Gordon, Esq. had succeeded to the said title and dignity of Viscount Kenmure :

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

Crown-Office, August 8, 1843.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Ayr.

Alexander Oswald, Esq. in the room of James Carr Boyle, commonly called Viscount Kelburne, now Earl of Glasgow.

Office of Ordnance, 7th August 1843.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Second Lieutenant William Ryves Nash Taylor to be First Lieutenant, vice Bland, deceased. Dated 1st August 1843.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carmarthen.

Royal Carmarthen Regiment of Fusiliers.

Frederick Ross Cowel, Gent. to be Second Lieutenant.

*Church Commissioners' Office,
August 7, 1843.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapelry district, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134, to Trinity Chapel, in the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent :

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th of June 1843, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal ; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions ; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division ; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided ;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described ; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division :"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act ; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church ; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates ; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate ; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not ; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:—

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled, “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:—

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches;” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent and diocese of Rochester, contained a population of four thousand two hundred and sixty-seven persons:—

“And that, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to one thousand four hundred and seventy persons, there is a consecrated chapel, dedicated to the Holy Trinity, recently erected in the said parish, which affords accommodation to four hundred and eighty persons, including three hundred free seats appropriated to the use of the poor, and that divine service is regularly performed therein:—

“Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that such district should be named, “The Chapelry District of the Holy Trinity, Bromley,” and consist of the southernmost portion of the said parish of Bromley, with boundaries as follow, that is to say:—

“The boundary thereof to commence at Hayes Ford, and then proceed eastward along the middle of the road to Shooting-common; then to cross the turnpike road from London to Farnborough, and proceed up the middle of Brick-kiln-lane to the road leading from Widmore to Southborough; thence southerly along the middle of the said road from Widmore to Southborough; and thence eastward along the middle of the lane and footpath leading to Town Court and Orpington, as far as the line that divides the parishes of Bromley and Orpington; along this line to proceed in a southerly direction until these parishes join the parish of Farnborough; then westward along the boundary line that divides the parishes of Farnborough and Keston from the parish of Bromley, as far as the parish of Hayes; and thence northward along the boundary line of the said parishes of Bromley and Hayes to Hayes Ford, where the boundary commenced, as is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon tinted red:—

“That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister thereof:—

“That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Rochester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:—

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials; and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
