TUESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1843.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of June 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for the augmentation of the several archdeaconries of York, in the diocese of York; of London, and of St. Alban's, in the diocese of London; of Wilts, in the diocese of Salisbury; and of Salop, in the diocese of Hereford.

" Whereas the said archdeaconry of York is endowed by the annexation thereto of the rectory of Mexborough, in the west riding of the county and in the said diocese of York, and of the tithes of Ravensfield, in the parish of Mexborough aforesaid; and the Venerable Stuart Corbett was, at the time of the passing of the said Act, and still is, the Archdeacon of the same archdeaconry :

" And whereas by two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, bearing date, respectively, the twenty-fifth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the twenty-seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, the said archdeaconry of London has been prospectively endowed with a canonry (charged with the payment of a portion of its income as an endowment for the archdeaconry of Middlesex) in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London; and although such endowment will not take effect until a vacancy shall have occurred among the other canonries in the said church, the rectory of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, has been already actually dissevered from the said archdeaconry, whereby the annual receipts thereof have, in the mean time, been reduced to a very small sum :

" And whereas the Venerable William Hale Hale was, on the first day of January last, and still is, the Archdeacon of the same archdeaconry :

" And whereas the said archdeaconry of Saint Alban's has no fixed endowment; and the Venerable Charles Parr Burney is the archdeacon thereof :

" And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, made under the authority of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into “ effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;” and by virtue of the provisions of the same Act, the boundaries of the said archdeaconry of Wilts were so altered and diminished in extent, as to reduce the annual income thereof :

“ And whereas the same archdeaconry is endowed by the annexation thereto of the rectory and parsonage of Saint Leonard, Mynty, in the county of Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol; and the Venerable William Macdonald was, at the time of the passing of the said first recited Act, and still is, the Archdeacon of the same archdeaconry :

“ And whereas the said archdeaconry of Salop is only endowed by the annexation thereto of a certain meadow, situate in the parish of Saint Nicholas in the city of Hereford, and called and known by the name of “the Archdeacon’s Meadow;” and the Venerable William Vickers was, at the time aforesaid, and still is, the Archdeacon of the same archdeaconry :

“ And whereas it is by the first recited Act enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the Bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but so as not to raise the average annual income of such archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; provided that no Archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument, as such Archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, or as to any archdeaconry then existing within the diocese in which his archdeaconry was situate before the passing of the herein secondly recited Act; subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act respecting residence and pluralities in the said first recited Act recited; and it is by the same Act further enacted, that upon any such endowment, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment may, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, and of any Archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of such Act :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Bishop of London, the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Salisbury, and Thomas Bishop of Hereford, and of the said Stuart Corbett, William Macdonald, and William Vickers, as Archdeacons of the said archdeaconries of York, Wilts, and Salop, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the said archdeaconries of York, London, Saint Albans, Wilts, and Salop, shall be severally and respectively endowed by augmentation out of the common fund in the first recited Act mentioned in manner following; and that the said rectory of Mexborough, and the said tithes of Ravensfield, and the said rectory and parsonage of Saint Leonard, Mynty, and also the said meadow in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in Hereford, together with all the rights, privileges, members, and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging (except any right of patronage belonging to either of the said rectories), shall be disannexed from the said archdeaconries of York, Wilts, and Salop, respectively, and vested in us for the purposes of the said first recited Act.

“ And we recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the said common fund to the said Stuart Corbett, Archdeacon of York, William Hale Hale, Archdeacon of London, Charles Parr Burney, Archdeacon of Saint Albans, William Macdonald, Archdeacon of Wilts, and William Vickers, Archdeacon of Salop (in the diocese of Hereford), and to their respective successors in the said archdeaconries, so long as they shall respectively hold the same archdeaconries, and shall duly reside in the dioceses in which the same are or shall be respectively situate (but in case of the said archdeaconry of London not after the next vacancy of any canonry in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, except the canonry so annexed to the said archdeaconry as aforesaid), the several annual sums following, that is to say; to the Archdeacon of York, for the time being, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; to the Archdeacon of London, for the time being, the sum of one hundred and eighty pounds; to the Archdeacon of Saint Albans, for the time being, the sum of one hundred and eighty pounds; to the Archdeacon of Wilts, for the time being, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the Archdeacon of Salop (in the diocese of Hereford), for the time being, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, on the first day of January in every year; and every such whole yearly payment to each of such Archdeacons shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop for the time being of the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, that such Archdeacon has duly resided as aforesaid during the preceding year; and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of January next ensuing; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said archdeaconries shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the then next yearly payment shall be duly apportioned between, and paid to the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of such vacancy inclusive; and that such proportion shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly; and that if the next vacancy of a canonry in the said cathedral church of Saint Paul (not being the canonry so annexed to the said archdeaconry of London) shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, there shall be paid to the Archdeacon of London, for the time being, a proportionate part of the said annual sum of one hundred and eighty pounds, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the first day of January last, or from the last day of payment, as the case may be, to the day of such vacancy inclusive.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters to which this our scheme applies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme; and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of York, London, Salisbury, and Hereford respectively.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of June 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for regulating the police courts in the metropolis,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, “ that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the police courts, and to order such changes to be made in the places in which they should be holden within the metropolitan police district as should be found expedient, and every such court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed;” and whereas also by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the metropolitan police district,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, “ that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the metropolitan police district, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions;” Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the police court now established in Kensington, and known by the name of “ the Kensington Police Court,” shall, from and after the eighth day of July next, be removed therefrom to a certain building at Brook-green, in the hamlet of Hammersmith, and within the metropolitan police district, and shall be thenceforth thereholden, by the name of “ the Hammersmith Police Court,” for the same division assigned to the Kensington Police Court by Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated the fifth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of June 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications,

" the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes where such assistance is most required.

" Whereas, under the authority of the said recited Acts, we prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April, and a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in which we recommended and proposed, that certain grants should be made, in augmentation of the incomes of certain benefices and churches, in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations therein mentioned; and the said schemes were ratified by Orders of your Majesty in Council, bearing date, respectively, the twenty-seventh day of the same month of April, and the twenty-seventh day of the same month of August, which Orders have been duly gazetted :

" And whereas it appears to us, upon further considering the amount of the funds now applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, to be expedient, that the limitations in the first of the said Orders mentioned should be varied, so as forthwith to extend the first class therein mentioned to benefices and churches having a population amounting to one thousand, and an average annual net income below one hundred and twenty pounds, and to the raising such income as nearly as may be to that amount, and so as forthwith to extend the second class therein mentioned to benefices and churches having a like amount of population, and an average annual net income below one hundred and fifty pounds :

" And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A. 1, fall within the first of such classes, subject to the limitations in the said first Order mentioned; and that the benefices and churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A. 2, fall within the same class, subject to the same limitations, so proposed to be extended as aforesaid; and that all the said benefices and churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the said Schedules respectively :

" And whereas application had been made to us, before the said nineteenth day of April, on behalf of the seventeen of the said churches hereinafter particularly named, and before the said sixteenth day of August, on behalf of the thirteen of the said churches hereinafter also particularly named, as then respectively coming within the said first class, in all respects, except that the proceedings for legally assigning districts thereto were not fully completed, and such proceedings are now completed :

" And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the income of the then united benefice of Saint Paul and Saint James, in Norwich, was augmented by an annual grant of eighteen pounds out of the monies vested in us; and the said benefice has since been disunited, and formed into two separate benefices, and both the said benefices now fall within the said first class, and are fit and proper to be augmented, by the respective sums set opposite to their names in the said Schedule marked A. 1 :

" And whereas, from the source set opposite to the name of each of the benefices and churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked B., in the sixth column of such Schedule, the benefaction stated in the seventh column of the same Schedule has either been paid to us on account of such benefice or church, or permanently secured to the incumbent thereof, as therein respectively specified; and we have satisfied ourselves that the said last-mentioned benefices and churches fall within the second of such classes, as limited by the said first Order, so extended as aforesaid, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same Schedule; and the benefaction to the perpetual curacy of Guisborough, in the same Schedule mentioned, was paid to us previously to the passing of the said second-mentioned scheme, but was not included therein :

" And whereas the benefices and churches described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked C., are situate within the places set opposite to the names thereof, respectively, in the fifth column of the same Schedule; and certain tithes or lands now vested in us arise or are situate in such places, respectively; and, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that the same benefices and churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the same Schedule :

" And whereas your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in proceeding to assign districts to certain new churches, mentioned in the said Schedules, marked A. 1. and 2., have appropriated to the incumbents thereof, respectively, the fees arising within such districts, whereby the emoluments of the incumbents of the several benefices mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked D., will be diminished by the amounts of the annual sums, respectively, set opposite to the names of such benefices in the last column of the same Schedule; and it is, in our opinion, expedient, that compensation should be made to such last-mentioned incumbents for the loss so sustained:

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices and churches so described in the said four several Schedules, the fixed annual sum set opposite to the name thereof in the last column of the said Schedules, respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of May next, except in the cases of the churches of Saint Thomas Bedford, Saint John Bradshaw Ovenden, Brierley-hill, Holy Trinity South Crosland, Trinity Darlington, Saint John the Evangelist Dukinfield, Saint John Golcar, Saint David Holmbridge, Saint Stephen Lindley, Linthwaite, Saint Matthias Liverpool, Immanuel Lockwood, Saint Mark Longwood, All Saints Paddock, Saint Andrew Stainland, Christ Church Stannington, and Saint Mark Witton, contained in the said Schedule A. 1., the incumbents of which churches, respectively, shall on such last-mentioned day receive three such half-yearly payments; and except also in the cases of the churches of Barrowford, Saint Andrew, Saint

James, Saint Peter, and Saint Philip Bethnal-green, Saint Mary Birch, Saint James Briercliffe, Saint Paul Buttershaw, Saint Peter Coventry, Monk Bretton, Netherthong, Saint Ann Newcastle, and Saint George Sowerby, contained in the same Schedule, and in the case of Guisborough aforesaid, contained in the said schedule B., the incumbents of which churches, respectively, shall on such last-mentioned day receive two such half-yearly payments; and that the payments so proposed to be made to the respective benefices of Saint Paul and Saint James in Norwich, shall be in lieu of and in substitution for the annual grant of eighteen pounds herein before mentioned; and that in case of a vacancy in any of the benefices or churches contained in the said four schedules having already happened during the period over which the payment recommended and proposed extends, or hereafter happening on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between the incumbent making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant:

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of said recited Acts, or either of them.”
