AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of June 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for regulating the police courts in the metropolis,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, “ that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the police courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the metropolitan police district as should be found expedient, and every such court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed;” and whereas also by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the metropolitan police district,” it was, amongst other things, enacted, “ that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the metropolitan police district, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions;” Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the police court now established in Kensington, and known by the name of “ the Kensington Police Court,” shall, from and after the eighth day of July next, be removed therefrom to a certain building at Brook-green, in the hamlet of Hammersmith, and within the metropolitan police district, and shall be thenceforth there holden, by the name of “ the Hammersmith Police Court,” for the same division assigned to the Kensington Police Court by Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated the fifth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one:

And the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
