AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of August 1843;

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French, concerning the fisheries in the seas between the British islands and France," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a rule, bearing date the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following rule for suspending the operation of the therein-mentioned Act and Articles of Fishery Regulation, with respect to the fisheries on the coast of Ireland (that is to say):

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect a convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French, concerning the fisheries in the seas between the British islands and France,' it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, by a rule or rules to be made by them, from time to time, and approved of by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to suspend the operation of the said Articles and of this Act, or such part of them as to them shall seem fit, with respect to the fisheries on the coast of Ireland, or on any part thereof, so long as such fisheries shall be carried on exclusively by the subjects of Her Majesty, and also, with the like approval, to make such bye laws as to them shall seem fit for enforcing the said Articles and this Act, on the said coast of Ireland, or on any part thereof, as soon as the same shall be frequented for the purpose of fishery by French fishermen:

"We, therefore, in pursuance of the powers of the said Act, do hereby make the following rule, subject to the approbation of Her Majesty (namely), that the said Act and Articles of Regulation shall be suspended, with respect to the fisheries on the whole of the coasts of Ireland, so long as such fisheries shall be carried on exclusively by the subjects of Her Majesty."

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of August 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His late Majesty King George the Fourth in Council, bearing date the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, His said Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, did declare and grant, that it should be lawful for French ships to import into the British possessions on the western coast of Africa, and into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and into the island of Ceylon, and into His Majesty's settlements in the island of New Holland, and into the island of Van Dieman's Land, and into the several islands and territories dependent upon and belonging to the several settlements or colonies
