FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1843.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of August 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference

"to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for founding an archdeaconry of Manchester, in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas by the said Act, power is given for founding a new see of Manchester, to consist of part of the said diocese of Chester, in the county of Lancaster, and also for founding a new archdeaconry of Manchester, and assigning a district thereto, and for placing all the archdeaconries of England and Wales in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, provision was made that, upon the occurrence of the event in the same Order specified, (but which event has not yet occurred) a new bishopric of Manchester should be erected, and that the diocese thereof should consist of the whole county of Lancaster, then and now in the said diocese of Chester, excepting the deanry of Furnes and Cartmel:

"And whereas, although the said bishopric of Manchester has not yet been erected, it appears to us to be expedient, that such new archdeaconry of Manchester should be forthwith founded:

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that there shall be founded in the said diocese of Chester, a new archdeaconry, and that the same shall be styled the archdeaconry of Manchester; and that the said archdeaconry shall consist of the deanries of Blackburn, Manchester, Leiland, and Warrington, in the archdeaconry of Chester, and now in the diocese of Chester, but which will hereafter be in the said diocese of Manchester, and that the said deanries, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others, your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Archdeacon of Manchester for the time being, and shall be released and discharged from all other archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority, and control whatsoever, and from any jurisdiction, authority, or control in the nature thereof.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the said John Bird, Bishop of Chester, shall and may forthwith collate some fit and proper person to the dignity or office of archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Manchester; and that the right of collating the Archdeacon of Manchester shall be vested in the said John Bird, Bishop of Chester, and his successors Bishops of Chester, until there shall be a Bishop of Manchester, and that thenceforth such right shall be vested in the Bishop of Manchester and his successors for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further measures relating to the said Archdeaconry of Manchester, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or any other Act; but more especially for the endowment of the said archdeaconry under the provisions in that behalf, contained in an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with " certain modifications, the fourth report of the " Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and " Revenues."

" And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given, pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and no objection has been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester, and also by the person named in the Order of Her Majesty in Council mentioned in the said scheme, and in the manner therein directed with respect to the registration of the same Order for the future diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of August 1843.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with " certain modifications, the fourth report of the " Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and " Revenues;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act " to carry into effect, with certain modifications, " the fourth report of the Commissioners of

"Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provisions for the cure of souls in the several parishes of Bradford, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, of Great Budworth, Nantwich, and St. Oswald Chester, in the county and diocese of Chester; of Solihull, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester; and of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value, or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop :

"And whereas the benefices and churches mentioned and described in the schedule hereunto annexed are respectively in the patronage of the patron or patrons named in the sixth column of the said schedule, and are therefore not within the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, so far as such provisions relate to unconditional grants out of the moneys in our hands under the said recited Act: and whereas, in order to bring them within such provisions, the said patrons respectively desire to transfer such their patronage as hereinafter mentioned :

"We therefore recommend and propose, with the consent of the bishops of the respective dioceses, and of such present patrons respectively, and also with the consent of the proposed patrons respectively named in the seventh column of the same schedule (in testimony whereof all the said consenting parties have signed and sealed this scheme), that the patronage of, and right of nomination or presentation to, such benefices and churches shall respectively become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, such proposed patrons so named in the said seventh column, and their respective successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls within the said parishes, or otherwise, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act."

deceased.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of this deceased, a native of London, and resident with his parents, at No. 8, Union-street, Kingsland-road, in the county of Middlesex, when not at sea, and who was, in the year 1817, a seaman on board the American brig Herald, at the isle of France, but intending to return to England, will apply to John Farrington, of Mount Vernon, Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, Cabinet Maker, they will hear of something to their advantage.

JAMES WHITE, deceased.

THE creditors (if any) of James White, late of Ossulton-street, Somers'-town, in the county of Middlesex, Tinman, afterwards residing at No. 29, Earl-street West, Paddington, in the same county, deceased, are requested to send an account of their respective demands to Mr. James Abbey, No. 1, Drummond-street, Euston-square, in the said county of Middlesex, one of the executors, in order that the same may be immediately examined and settled.

INASMUCH as two of the lives nominated in the renewal lease made by the late Lady Gertrude Amelia Villiers, afterwards Lady Gertrude Amelia Villiers Stuart, of Dromana, in the county of Waterford, unto Peter Bayly and Ann Bayly, his wife, of Shanacool, in said county, and bearing date the 28th day of September 1801, of all that and those, the lands commonly known by the name of Shanacool, with all houses, buildings, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, hereditaments, messuages, meadows, and pastures whatsoever, thereunto, or to any part thereof belonging, or in anywise appertaining, situate, lying, and being within the barony of Decies within Drom, and county of Waterford, viz., the lives of William Bayly and Peter Bayly, one of said Lessees, are long since dead; and inasmuch as the fee and inheritance in said lands, and the receipt of the rents and profits thereof have long since, as the descendent and eldest son and heir at law of the said Lady Gertrude Amelia Villiers Stuart, and Lord Henry Stuart, her husband vested in me; and inasmuch as that a renewal fine of £25 12s. 6d. of the late Irish currency, being equivalent to the sum of £23 13s. 1d. present currency, hath become due and payable in six months after the death or fall of each life, and there being now a very large sum due to me for such renewal fines, septennial fines, and interest thereon, and frequent demands having been made on my behalf for payment of same without effect; and inasmuch as the said lessees are long since dead, and the said William Bayly having died in the lifetime of the said lessee, Peter Bayly, and he, the said Peter Bayly, in his lifetime, and the heirs, devisees, or assignees of said Peter Bayly, and Ann, his wife, since their death, have violated their covenant in not giving due notice within the time limited, of the death of the said William Bayly and Peter Bayly, and thereby, and by means of not paying off said renewal fines, have forfeited their right to the benefit of said covenant for renewal; and inasmuch as that it is difficult to ascertain who is now the heir or the person or persons beneficially entitled to the interest in said lands, but being unwilling to avail myself of said latches, I now hereby give this public notice, that unless I am, within two calendar months from the day of the first insertion of this notice in the Dublin and London Gazettes, paid off all renewal and septennial fines and interest thereon, which have occurred and accrued upon the death of said lives, and all costs and charges attendant upon the non-payment thereof, and breach of said covenant, that I will not, after the expiration of said period, execute any renewal of said lease of said lands, but that I will immediately after the death of Richard Bayly, the third or other life nominated in said lease, and who is still living, consider the tenure thereby granted to have fully terminated and expired, and all benefit of renewal for ever forfeited; and I will thereupon proceed to recover the possession of said lands and premises by all such lawful ways and means as I may be advised.—Dated this 31st day of August 1843.

STUART DE DECIES.

To the heirs, devisees, and representatives of the said Peter Bayly, and Ann, his wife, and to all other persons concerned.
