Church Commissioners' Office,
October 5, 1843.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapelry district, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134, to St. James's Chapel, at Muswell-hill, in the parish of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th of June 1843, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is,

Amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Mary, Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, contained a population of five thousand nine hundred and seven persons:-

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to nine hundred and sixty persons, and the church of the consolidated chapelry of Highgate, which affords accommodation to one thousand five hundred and fifty-seven persons, there is a chapel, at Muswell-hill, in the said parish, which affords accommodation to four hundred and thirty-two persons, including one hundred and ninety-four free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel has been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel at Muswell-hill, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of St. James, Muswell-hill," with boundaries as follow:

"The boundary is to commence at the north-western extremity of the boundary of the parish of Hornsey, at Colney-hatch; then proceeding southwards along the boundary, between the parishes of Finchley and Hornsey, crossing the road from Muswell-hill to Finchley, continuing in the same direction until the said parish boundary intersects the northern boundary line of the consolidated chapelry of Highgate; from this point, proceeding eastward, the boundary of the said chapelry forms, also, the southern boundary of the district of Saint

James, Muswell-hill, crossing the road leading from Muswell-hill to Highgate, and continuing round the south east corner of Church-yard Bottom-wood; thence proceeding along the boundary of the same wood in a north western direction, on the western side of the western boundary of the property of Henry Powell, Esq. formerly belonging to Miss M. A. Champion, until it reaches the road leading up Muswell-hill, at the point of junction of the same road with the lane leading from Saint James's Church; the boundary proceeds thence up Muswell-hill, on the south side of the road, for a distance of about seven chains; thence it crosses the said road, and is continued on the western side of the western boundary of the property of William Block, Esq. formerly belonging to John Parker, Esq. until it is intersected by the boundary dividing the parishes of Hornsey and Clerkenwell; from this point the boundary proceeds in a western direction along the boundary between the parishes of Hornsey and Clerkenwell, until the same arrives at the road leading from Muswell-hill to Colney-hatch; from this last point, proceeding in a north western direction, the boundary of the said district is formed by the boundary of the parish of Hornsey, continuously, unto the boundary of the same parish at Colney-hatch, herein first mentioned, as the said district is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured pink:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister thereof:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

D. 1843, William Venning, of the borough of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, Coach Maker, has assigned all his estate and effects unto John Ridley Hunter, of Moorgate-street, in the city of London, Upholsterer and Timber Merchant, and William Barrett, of Truro aforesaid, Draper, upon trust, for the equal benefit of the creditors of the said William Venning who should execute the said indenture; and which indenture was, on the 26th day of September instant by the said William Venning, on the 29th instant by the said John Ridley Hunter, and on the 28th instant by the said William Barrett, respectively, executed in the presence of, and attested by, Peter Cock, of Truro aforesaid, Solicitor; and that the said deed of assignment will lie for signature by such creditors as aforesaid, at the office of Messrs. Carlyou and Cock, Solicitors, Truro, until the 14th day of October next, and afterwards at the office of Mr. John Barber, Solicitor, No. 11, Furnival's-inn, London.—Dated 30th September 1843.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THIS is to give notice, that by indenture, bearing date the 23d day of September last, Thomas Bayston, of Sands, in the township of Bradbury, and parish of Sedgefield, in the county of Durham, Farmer, hath assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to William Bayston, of Foxton, in the township of Foxton and Sholton, and in the parish of Sedgefield aforesaid, Farmer, and Ralph Lynn, of the same place, Labourer, upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said Thomas Bayston; and that the said indenture was executed by the said Thomas Bayston and William Bayston on the said 23d day of September, which execution was witnessed by Charles Ovington Ord, of Stockton-upon-Tees, Attorney and Solicitor; and by the said Ralph Lynn on the 23d day of September aforesaid, which execution was witnessed by Richard Lockey, of Sedgefield aforesaid, Schoolmaster; that the said deed lies at the office of the said Charles Ovington Ord, for execution by the creditors; and that those creditors who shall neglect or refuse to execute it, within six calendar months from its date, will be excluded the benefit thereof; and all persons indebted to the said Thomas Bayston are requested to pay their respective debts to me forthwith.—Dated the 2d day of October 1843.

C. OVINGTON ORD, Solicitor to the Assignees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 30th day of September 1843, Thomas Oakley, late of the Moat, but now of Pulley, both in the county of Salop, Farmer and Maltster, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto Thomas Bromley, of Dorrington, in the county of Salop, Farmer, William Bromley, of Shadymoor, in the same county, Farmer, and John Bromley, of Shrewsbury, in the same county, Grocer, in trust, for all the creditors of the said Thomas Oakley who shall have executed the said indenture, or signified their assent thereto, on or before the 25th day of December next; and the said indenture was duly executed by the said Thomas Oakley, Thomas Bromley, William Bromley, and John Bromley, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and attested by, Edward Saxton, of Shrewsbury aforesaid, Solicitor, and Samuel Badger, Clerk to Messrs. Kough and Saxton, of Shrewsbury aforesaid, Solicitors, at whose offices the same deed now lies for the signature of the creditors.

In the Matter of James Brookbanks, of Dudley, in the county of Worcester, Mercer and Draper, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy was issued on the 4th July 1842.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the above Fiat may, upon application at my office, on Tuesday the 17th day of October, or on any subsequent Tuesday, between the hours of eleven and one, receive a warrant for a Second Dividend of 4s. in the pound. The bills and securities (if any) exhibited at the time of proof must be produced to me, before the warrant for the Dividend can be received.
