FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1843.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of August 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided, regulations shall be made for fixing the number and emoluments of the minor canons in each cathedral and collegiate church, provided that there shall not in any case be more than six nor less than two, and that the stipend of each such minor canon, thereafter to be appointed, shall not be less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum; and that arrangements may, from time to time, be made by the like authority, for securing to any minor canon, not otherwise competently provided for, such annual sum as shall make up to him an income, as minor canon, not exceeding in any case the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds:

"And whereas application has been made to us by the Dean and Chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster to fix the number and emoluments of the Minor Canons in the said church as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the said Dean and Chapter, that the number of Minor Canons in the said church has hitherto been six, and that the stipend of each Minor Canon, payable out of the revenues of the said church, amounts, as last fixed, to the annual sum of one hundred and seventeen pounds, and no more; and that it is expedient that the same number of six Minor Canons should be continued in the said church; and it has been further represented to us by the said Dean and Chapter, that they have assigned to the two junior Minor Canons, who have been appointed since the passing of the said recited Act, fixed annual stipends, as such Minor Canons, of one hundred and fifty pounds each, and that the three senior Minor Canons, although receiving, as Minor Canons, the smaller stipends aforesaid, are otherwise competently provided for; but that the Reverend Randle Jackson Waters, the fourth Minor Canon, who also receives the smaller annual stipend aforesaid, is not otherwise competently provided for:

"And whereas by and under an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of April last, the Deans and future Canons of the said church are charged with the payment to us of a certain portion of their respective incomes, so as to reduce the same to the average annual amounts respectively named in the same Act; and, in making such reduction, their existing incomes respectively have been estimated without accounting for any increase in the stipends of the Minor Canons of the said church :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the number of Minor Canons in the said collegiate church of Westminster shall from henceforth be and continue to be six; and that there shall be paid to each Minor Canon in the said church, appointed after the passing of the said recited Act, a fixed annual stipend, as such Minor Canon, of one hundred and fifty pounds :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, so long as the said Randle Jackson Waters shall continue to be a Minor Canon in the same church, and shall not hold any other office therein, or any benefice, there shall be paid to him, by the Treasurer or other proper officer of the said church, in addition to his aforesaid stipend of one hundred and seventeen pounds, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds by equal half-yearly payments, and that two of such payments shall be considered to have been due and payable to him at the expiration of six calendar months from the day of the general audit of the said Dean and Chapter now last past; and that the said Treasurer or other officer shall and may, from time to time, retain, out of any monies payable to us in respect of any canonry or canonries now or hereafter suspended in the said church, such sum or sums of money as may have been so paid to the said Randle Jackson Waters, and also every such sum of money as, according to the same rate of increase of stipend, shall have been paid to each and every Minor Canon appointed after the passing of the said recited Act :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the matters to which this our scheme applies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean and Chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eight years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better and more effectually repairing and otherwise improving the roads in the county of Glamorgan," so far as the same relates to the Swansea district of roads therein described; also of the several other Acts following (that is to say), an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building a bridge across the river Tawey, at a place called the Wich Tree, in the parish of Llansamlet, to the opposite shore, in the parish of Llangevelach, in the county of Glamorgan, for making proper avenues or roads to and from the said bridge; and also for repairing and widening the road from Pentre-brook, near a place called Aberdwyberthy, in the parish of St. John's, near Swansea, to the said intended bridge;" an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for building a bridge across the river Tawey, at a place called the Wich Tree, in the parish of Llansamlet, to the opposite shore, in the parish of Llangevelach, in the county of Glamorgan, for making proper avenues or roads to and from the said bridge; and also for repairing and widening the road from Pentre-brook, near a place called Aberdwyberthy, in the parish of St. John's, near Swansea, to the said intended bridge;" and an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the power, of two Acts passed for building a bridge across the river Tawey, at a place called the Wich Tree, in the parish of Llansamlet, to the opposite shore, in the parish of Llangevelach, in the county of Glamorgan, and for making proper avenues or roads to and from the said bridge; and for repairing the road from Pentre-brook, near a place called Aberdwyberthy, in the parish of St. John's, near Swansea, to the said bridge;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof. By which Bill or Bills it is intended to place the roads, ways, culverts, and bridges, now vested in the trustees appointed by virtue of the said three last-mentioned Acts, under the care and management of the trustees appointed by or acting in the execution of the said first-mentioned Act, and in all respects to consolidate the Wich Tree trust with the said Swansea district trust:

And notice is hereby further given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill or Bills to levy tolls, rates, and duties, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties authorised to be collected by virtue of the said Acts, or some of them, and to vary and extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer others.—Dated this tenth day of October 1843:

By order,

Thomas A. Marten, Clerk of the Swansea District Trust, and also of the Wich Tree Trust.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields and other commonable and waste lands, in the parish of Ramsey, in the county of Huntingdon, and for extinguishing all rights of common and other rights and privileges in, over, and upon the same; and for providing for the expences of such Bill and inclosure by a rate upon the proprietors, or by such other means as may be deemed expedient.—
Ramsey, 4th of October 1843.

John Serjeant, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the company, incorporated under the name of the United General Gas Light Company, to borrow or raise any sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of fifty thousand pounds; and also to enable the said company, with consent of the proper authorities, and under the usual provisions for regulating and protecting the same, to carry on, continue, lay, or extend their works, mains, and pipes in and through the cities or towns of Devonport, Plymouth, and Stonehouse, Cork and Limerick.

Gregory, Faulkner, Gregory, and Bourdillon,
1, Bedford-row, Parliamentary Agents.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better lighting with gas the town and neighbourhood of Leeds, in the borough of Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York;" and it is intended in the said Bill to repeal some of the powers, provisions, limitations, and regulations contained in the said Act, and to grant further powers, and to make other provisions, limitations, and regulations instead thereof; and it is also intended to authorize an increase in the present capital of the company incorporated by the said Act for the more effectual execution of the powers thereof.—Dated this 9th day of October 1843.

Snowdon and Preston, Solicitors, Leeds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway or railways, with proper wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, bridges, viaducts, and suitable and commodious erections, works roads, communications, and conveniences attached thereto or connected therewith; which said railway or railways is or are intended to commence at or near the station commonly known as the Harrow Station, on the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Harrow, in the county of Middlesex, to proceed from thence, and pass from, through, in, or into the several parishes, boroughs, towns, townlands, townships, hamlets, and extra parochial and other places hereinafter enumerated and set forth, viz. Greenhill, the parish and township of Harrow, Roxeath otherwise Roxeth, Woodend, Northolt, Southall, Norwood, Hayes, Heston, Isleworth, Twickenham, Teddington, Hampton Wick, Hampton, and that part of Kingston-on-Thames which, as also all the before-mentioned parishes, towns, townships, townlands, hamlets, and extra parochial places, is and are, respectively, situate within the county of Middlesex aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that the said railway or railways is or are intended to be carried, by a bridge to be erected over the river Thames, in the parish of Kingston-on-Thames aforesaid, to the opposite side of the said river, in that part of the said parish of Kingston-on-Thames which is in the county of Surrey, passing in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra parochial and other places following, that is to say; Long Ditton, Thames Ditton, Tolworth otherwise Talworth, Hook, Malden, Chessington, Worcester-park, Ewell, Epsom, Banstead, Walton-on-the-Hill, Headley, Kingswood, Gatton, Woodmanstone otherwise Woodmansterne, Chipstead, Reigate, and the borough and foreign of the said parish of Reigate, and the parish of Merstham, or some of them, all which several last-mentioned parishes, townships, townlands, hamlets, precincts, and extra parochial places are, respectively, situate within the county of Surrey aforesaid; and that the said railway or railways is or are intended to terminate at or near the town of Merstham, in the parish of Merstham, in the county of Surrey aforesaid, or at or near the station commonly known as the Reigate Station, on the London and Brighton Railway, in the parish of Reigate, in the said county of Surrey; with a branch line, to lead from or out of, or to be connected with, such intended railway or railways, to commence in, at, or near Worton-lane, in the parish of Isleworth, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, passing through or into the parish of Twickenham, and to terminate at or near the foot of Richmond-bridge, in the said parish of Twickenham, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that the several plans and sections, and books of reference thereto, required by the Standing Orders of Parliament, will be deposited, in pursuance of such Standing Orders, at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, situate, respectively, at the Sessions-house, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and at No. 19, North-street, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, or at such other place or places as the said offices, respectively, shall then be holden, on or before the 30th day of November next.

And also, that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relate to each parish in or through which the said railway or railways, and the said branch line, is or are intended to be carried as aforesaid, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish on or before the 31st day of December next.

And that it is further intended to apply for powers in such Bill for the purchase of lands and houses, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of such railway or railways, and of such branch line as aforesaid.—Dated 9th October 1843.
