

Borough of Ludlow.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting an agreement and compromise concerning the estates granted to the Corporation of the borough of Ludlow by the charter of King Edward the Fourth; and the estates granted to the said Corporation by the charter of King Edward the Sixth, subject to certain charitable trusts or charges; and that it is proposed by such Bill to vest in the trustees of the charities within the said borough of Ludlow (appointed by order of the Lord Chancellor, under the authority of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales") a portion of the hereditaments comprised in the said charters (a schedule of the hereditaments so to be vested in the said trustees being intended to be appended to the said Bill); and also to vest in the said trustees the school, head master's house and garden, the under master's house and garden, Hosier's almshouses, and the houses appertaining to the lectureship and readership (which said hereditaments are also intended to be comprised in the said schedule), discharged from all claims and interests of the Corporation of the borough of Ludlow, and also indemnified by the said Corporation from and against all charges, incumbrances, and liabilities of, or occasioned by, the said Corporation; and to vest in, or confirm to, the said Corporation, all other the hereditaments granted to the said Corporation by the said charters of King Edward the Fourth and King Edward the Sixth; and all other the hereditaments which, immediately before the passing of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, were vested in the said Corporation (except only the hereditaments to be comprised in the said first schedule to the said Bill), discharged from all the charitable uses, trusts, and charges now affecting the same, under the said charter of King Edward the Sixth; and to discharge all hereditaments, if any there be, that have been aliened by the said Corporation from the said charitable uses and trusts.

And it is also proposed by such Bill to provide that the Corporation of the said borough shall pay the costs of all parties already incurred in the suit, by original and supplemental informations now depending in the Court of Chancery, concerning the said charities, as between solicitor and client, and the costs of all parties in the applying for, obtaining, and passing of the said Bill, and in the proceedings preparatory thereto, whether in the said Court of Chancery, or otherwise, and in the execution of the powers to be created by the said Bill; and also pay a certain judgment debt, owing to the legal personal representatives of the Right Honourable Edward late Earl of Powis, deceased, and the interest due, and to grow due, thereon; and to the Honourable Robert Henry Clive, and Messrs. Roche, Eyton, and Co. of Ludlow, Bankers, the sums due to them, respectively, for and in respect of their respective advances for the said charities; and to the said trustees of the charities within the said borough as aforesaid, all debts and liabilities incurred by them in respect of the said charitable uses and trusts, and such further debts as may be incurred by them for such charitable uses and trusts previously to the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-four; and, lastly, all debts whatsoever now due and owing from the Corporation of the said borough, or charged on their estates, or any part thereof, or which, under this Act, may affect their corporate property.

And it is intended by the Bill to take power for the Corporation of the said borough to raise such sums as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, by sale or mortgage of all or any of the estates so to be vested in or confirmed to them as aforesaid (subject only to the right of the lessees thereof), or by conveyance to the lessees thereof, of the fee simple of such hereditaments as have been comprised in the renewable leases.

And also to provide, that the lessees or assignees holding leases for any term or terms of years granted by the said Corporation, with a covenant or covenants for renewal of the term or terms thereby granted, or which may have been granted by the said Corporation, or by the said trustees, in pursuance of any covenant for renewal, shall have the right of purchasing the fee simple and inheritance of the hereditaments comprised in their leases, respectively, upon payment of a consideration money, to be fixed after the rate to be mentioned in the second schedule to be appended to the said Bill; and to give powers to parties having partial and limited interests in such leases to effect such purchases, and to raise monies for that purpose.—
Dated this 21st day of October 1843.

Wm. Downes, Solicitor and Town Clerk,
Ludlow.
