FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1843.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the fourteenth day of November instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the nineteenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of this instant November, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for separating the archdeaconry of Llandaff from the deanery of Llandaff.

" Whereas by the first recited Act it is enacted, that the archdeacon of Llandaff should, from the passing thereof, be also dean of the cathedral church of Llandaff :

" And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is enacted, that the dignity and office of archdeacon of Llandaff might be separated from the said deanery, provided that such separation should not take place before the then next vacancy of the said deanery, without the consent of the then dean :

" And whereas the said deanery has since become and now is vacant :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the archdeaconry and deanery of Llandaff shall forthwith be disunited and become from henceforth two separate and distinct dignities and offices.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the archdeaconry and deanery of Llandaff, or either of them, especially for the endowment thereof respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Lord Bishop of Llandaff, and to the Chapter of Llandaff, respectively, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

NOTICE.

*No. 2, Whitehall-Place, London,
November 10, 1843.*

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Mr. Joseph Mallaby, Clerk to the Commissioners of Birkenhead, in Cheshire, has, in pursuance of the 5th and 6th Victoria, cap. cx, intituled "An Act for better preserving the navigation of the river Mersey," lodged with me plans and reports relative to constructing docks, basins, &c. in Wallasey Pool, Cheshire.

Geo. Evans, Acting Commissioner, R. M.

THE Committee appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, to carry into execution the Act of Parliament, passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for improving the site of the Royal Exchange, in the city of London, and the avenues adjoining thereto," in pursuance of the provisions contained in the said Act, do hereby give notice, that it is their intention to resell a piece or parcel of ground, situate at the north east end of Freeman's-court, in the city of London, being a portion of the hereditaments and premises mentioned in the schedule annexed to the said Act, as follows, that is to say:

No. on plan, 2 and 3.—Situation, Freeman's-court.—Freeholders, Magdalene College, Oxford.—Leaseholder, John Pirie.—Occupier, John Pirie.

The said ground having been purchased for the purposes of the said Act, and being ground abutting upon Freeman's-court aforesaid, which the said Committee do not think proper to let on building leases.—Dated this 7th of November 1843.

East-India-House, November 8, 1843.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Special General Court of the said Company will be held, at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Friday the 17th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of nine Proprietors of East India Stock, in compliance with the following requisition, viz.

" To the Honourable the Chairman of the Court of Directors of the East India Company,

" Honourable Sir,

" We, the undersigned Proprietors of East India Stock, request that a Special General Court may be convened, at the earliest period, to take into consideration the following resolutions proposed to be submitted to them :

" 1st. That, from the printed papers recently laid before Parliament on the subject of Sinde, it is the opinion of this Court, that the proceedings of the Government of India, which ended in the dethronement, exile, and imprisonment of the Ameers, and the seizure of their country, were uncalled for, impolitic, and unjust.

" 2d. That this Court does, therefore, most earnestly recommend to the Court of Directors, the immediate adoption of such steps, by representation to Her Majesty's Government or otherwise, as may cause all practicable reparation to be made for the injustice already committed, and enforce the abandonment of a line of policy inconsistent with good faith and subversive of the interests of the British rule in India.

" We have the honour to be,

" Honourable Sir,

" Your obedient servants,

" J. Sullivan.

" Wm. J. Eastwick.

" Joseph Hume.

" John Poynder.

" Chas. Forbes.

" Warford Jones Brydges.

" Arthur James Lewis.

" A. Hogg.

" Thos. Marriott.
