Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1843.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1843.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of this instant November, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for separating the archdeaconry of Llandaff from the deanery of Llandaff:

"Whereas by the first recited Act it is enacted, that the archdeacon of Llandaff should, from the passing thereof, be also dean of the cathedral church of Llandaff:

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is enacted, that the dignity and office of archdeacon of Llandaff might be separated from the said deanery, provided that such separation should not take place before the then next vacancy of the said deanery, without the consent of the then dean:

"And whereas the said deanery has since become and now is vacant:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the archdeaconry and deanery of Llandaff shall forthwith be disunited and become from henceforth two separate and distinct dignities and offices.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the archdeaconry and deanery of Llandaff, or either of them, especially for the endowment thereof respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Lord Bishop of Llandaff, and to the Chapter of Llandaff, respectively, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

North British Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith; which railway is to commence near to a bridge called the North-bridge, in the city of Edinburgh, and to terminate near to the toll bar at the north end of Castle-gate of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parts of parishes, townships, townlands, and extra parochial or other places following, or some of them, viz., High Church, Saint Andrews, Trinity College, Greenside, all in the city and county of Edinburgh; Lady Glenorchy's quoad sacra, in the county and city and county of Edinburgh; Cannongate, Leith-wynd quoad sacra, New-street quoad sacra, Saint Cuthbert, South Leith, Duddingston, Portobello quoad sacra, Liberton, and Inveresk, all in the county of Edinburgh; Prestonpans, Tranent, Cockenzie quoad sacra, Gladsmuir, Aberlady, Haddington, Athelstaneford, Prestonkirk, Linton, Whitekirk, Dunbar, Innerwick, and Oldhamstocks, all in the county of Haddington; Cockburns path or Coldbrands path, Oldhamstocks, Coldingham, Houndwood quoad sacra, Renton, West Reston, Ayton, and Mordington, all in the county of Berwick; and Berwick-upon-Tweed, in the county of the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; together with a branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from the said intended main railway near to Red house, in the said parish of Gladsmuir, and to pass from, in, through, or into the said parishes of Gladsmuir, Aberlady, and Haddington, or some of them, and to terminate at or near to the burgh of Haddington, near to a place called Hawthorn bank, in the said parish of Haddington.

And it is intended to take power, in the said Act, to deviate, in constructing the said intended railway and branch, from the line or lines thereof laid down on the maps or plans thereof, to be deposited as after mentioned, to such extent as is or will be defined on the said plans.

And it is also intended, by the said Act, to incorporate a Company for carrying into effect the said undertaking, and to obtain powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties on and for the use of the said intended railway and branch, and other works.

And it is further intended, by the said Act, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said intended railway and branch railway.

And it is intended, by the said Act, to obtain powers of diverting the following turnpike roads, viz. the road leading by Bankton and Blinkbonny, in the said parish of Tranent, at a place in the said road near to Meadow mill; the road leading from Aberlady to Haddington, at a place in the said road near to Ballincrief, in the said parish of Aberlady; the road leading from Haddington to Dunbar, at Linton, in the said parish of Prestonkirk; the road leading from Dunbar to Berwick, at the following places in the said road, viz., near to Billsdean and near to Loanfoot, in the said parish of Oldhamstocks, in the said county of Haddington; near to South Renton, in the said parish of Coldingham or Houndwood quoad sacra, and near to Fairneyside, in the said parish of Ayton, and that to such an extent as will be shewn on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that maps or plans and sections, describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended railway and branch, and of the said intended diversions of the before-mentioned turnpike roads, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the offices of the Principal Sheriff Clerks, in the city of Edinburgh, for the said county and city and county of Edinburgh; in the office of the Principal Sheriff Clerk, in the town of Haddington, for the said county of Haddington; in the office of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the county of Berwick, in the town of Dunse, for the said county of Berwick; in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the county of the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid, for the said county of the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and there will also be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, with the schoolmaster (if any), and, if there be no schoolmaster, with the session clerk of each of the said several parishes through which the said railway and branch are respectively intended to be made, at their respective residences; and also with the Town Clerks of each of the said burghs of Edinburgh, Haddington, and Dunbar, at their respective offices in the said burghs; and also with the parish clerk of the town or parish of Berwick-upon-Tweed, at his residence, a copy of so much of the said maps or plans and sections as relates to each of the said several parishes, burghs, and towns, together with the book of reference thereto, respectively.

Edinburgh, 18th October 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and obtain an Act, to consolidate, enlarge, alter, and amend an Act, intituled "An Act for enclosing, dividing, and allotting a certain common or waste ground, called Bolton Moor, and other the commons and waste grounds within the township of Great Bolton, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and for widening, paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and regulating the streets, lanes, passages, and places within the towns of Great Bolton and Little Bolton, and for supplying the said towns with water, and for providing fire engines and firemen, and for removing and preventing nuisances, incroachments, and annoyances, and for licensing and regulating hackney coaches and chairs within the said towns;" and also an Act, intituled "An Act for granting further powers for improving the town of Great Bolton, in the county of Lancaster;" and also an Act, intituled "An Act for more effectually cleansing, paving, lighting, watching, regulating, and improving the township of Little Bolton, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and the trusts, powers, and provisions therein contained, and to extend the operation of all or any of the said several Acts, so consolidated, enlarged, altered, and amended, to and throughout the whole of the borough of Bolton, within the limits thereof, as settled under and by virtue of an Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," and as referred to and described in the charter of incorporation granted to the said borough of Bolton, by Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, and dated at Westminster, the eleventh day of October, in the second year of Her said Majesty's reign, and to transfer to and vest in the body corporate of the said borough of Bolton, constituted under and by virtue of the charter aforesaid, all the powers, rights, trusts, authority, jurisdiction, and property whatsoever, at present belonging to or exercised by the trustees appointed under the said Act, or any of them, and also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, relative to the supply of water to the said townships, and to extend the operation of the said amended powers and provisions within the said borough; and also to enable the said body corporate to make, maintain, and enlarge reservoirs, water works, aqueducts, cuts, and other works in the said townships, and in the townships of Tonge-with-Haulgh and Lostock, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the said county; and also in the several townships of Heaton, Horwich, Halliwell, Rumworth, and Farnworth, in the parish of Dean, in the said county, and to collect and obtain water from certain lands, springs, brooks, and streams, situate within the said townships of Heaton and Horwich, in the said parish of Dean, and the said township of Lostock, in the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors; and also to enable the said body corporate to supply with water the said several townships of Great Bolton, Little Bolton, and Tonge-with-Haulgh, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors aforesaid, and to levy and collect rates or rents in respect of such supply of water; and it is further intended, for the purposes aforesaid, to obtain powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses within the said townships of Great Bolton and Little Bolton, Tonge-with-Haulgh, and Lostock, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the said county, and also in the townships of Heaton, Horwich, Halliwell, Rumworth, and Farnworth, in the parish of Dean, in the said county; and it is further intended to obtain powers to levy and collect rates, and to charge and take rents or sums for supplying with water the townships aforesaid; and also to alter or extinguish the existing tolls, rates, or duties conferred by or raised under the powers of the said Acts, or some of them.

And further notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said several works to be maintained, made, and enlarged, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said borough of Bolton, at his office in Acres Field, in the said borough; and also at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at Preston, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the said parish of Bolton-le-Moors, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the said parish of Dean, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said last-named parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated the ninth day of November 1843.

Winder and Broadbent, Solicitors, Bolton.

Parkes and Preston, Parliamentary Agents,
21, Great George-street, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, and (if need be) to consolidate the provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them, that is to say, an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Bristol, to join the London and Birmingham Railway near London, to be called the Great Western Railway, with branches therefrom, to the towns of Bradford and Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts;" another Act, passed in the sixth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the Great Western Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the Great Western Railway, and to amend the Acts relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the first year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to enable the Great Western Railway Company to extend the line of such railway, and for other purposes relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the second year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Great Western Railway, and to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking;" an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Cheltenham and from Gloucester, to join the Great Western Railway near Swindon, to be called the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, with a branch to Cirencester;" another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the fifth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to amend two Acts relating to the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway;" and an Act, passed in the sixth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Great Western Railway to the city of Oxford."

And it is intended, by the said Act or Acts, to alter the tolls, rates, and charges authorized to be levied and taken by the said recited Acts, or some of them, and the mode of levying the same.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to authorize an alteration or alterations, and an extension or extensions of the line of the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, as at present authorized to be made, and of the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, as at present constructed, or of one of them, at or near the depôts, stations, or terminations of those railways at Cheltenham and at Gloucester, and within the parishes, townships, extra parochial and other places of Cheltenham, Arle, Alstone, North Hamlet, Littleworth, South Hamlet, Barton Saint Mary, Barton Saint Michael, Saint Michael, Wotton Saint Mary, Vill of Wotton, Barnwood, Saint Owen, Saint Catherine, Saint John the Baptist, and Saint Aldate, or some of them, in the county of Gloucester; and Saint Nicholas, Saint Owen, Littleworth, South Hamlet, Barton Saint Mary, Barton Saint Michael, Saint Michael, Saint Aldate, Saint Catherine, Saint John the Baptist, or some of them, in the city of Gloucester, and county of the same city, to such extent as will be shewn on the plans to be deposited as hereafter mentioned, and the purchase, by compulsion or agreement, of additional land within the said parishes, townships, and places, or some of them, for such purpose, and for the purpose of depôts or stations, buildings, and works in connexion therewith.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to authorize the alteration, enlargement, and extension of the railway or tramroad, known as the Gloucester and Cheltenham Railway, within the parishes, townships, extra parochial and other places of North Hamlet, Littleworth, South Hamlet, Barton Saint Mary, Barton Saint Michael, Saint Michael, Wotton Saint Mary, Vill of Wotton, Barnwood, Saint Owen, Saint Catherine, Saint John the Baptist, Saint Nicholas, and Saint Aldate, or some of them, in the county of Gloucester; and Saint Nicholas, Saint Owen, Littleworth, South Hamlet, Barton Saint Mary, Barton Saint Michael, Saint Michael, Saint Aldate, Saint Catherine, Saint John the Baptist, or some of them, in the city of Gloucester, and county of the same city, to the extent to be shewn on the said plans; and the formation of necessary works and conveniences in connexion therewith; and the purchase, by compulsion or agreement, of the lands necessary for the purposes thereof.

And it is further proposed to authorize the Great Western Railway Company to levy tolls in respect of the use of the said alterations and extensions of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, and of the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, or one of them; and also in respect of the use of the said Cheltenham Railway or Tramway, and of the conveniences to be connected therewith, respectively; and to confer, vary, or extinguish such existing rights and privileges as would impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid; and to confer also certain exemptions from the payment of tolls, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line or situation and levels of the said intended works, with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of such works, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year, with the Clerks of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, and the county of the city of Gloucester, at their respective offices, in Gloucester; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in which the said intended works will be situate, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this 8th day of November 1843.

W. O. Hunt, 10, Whitehall, London.

Taff Vale Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal certain of the powers and provisions of the following Acts of Parliament relating to the Taff Vale Railway, or some of them, that is to say, an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth; another Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria; and another Act passed in the third and fourth year of the same reign, and to enable the Taff Vale Railway Company to raise a further sum of money.

And it is intended by the said proposed Act to enable the Taff Vale Railway Company to make and maintain a branch railway, from and out of the main line of such railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, within the parish of Llantwit Fardre, in the county of Glamorgan, to or near to the Taff Vale Iron Works, in the said last-mentioned parish; together with another branch railway or railways, and all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, in the parish of Merthyr Tydvil, in the said county, diverging from and out of the said main line, to or near certain collieries, known or called by the name of the "Graig" and "Wainwyllt" Collieries respectively, in the said last-mentioned parish.

And it is also intended to obtain powers by the said proposed Act to alter the line of that part of the said Taff Vale Railway, known as the Morlais Castle branch, in the said parish of Merthyr Tydvil, or the existing gradients of the said branch as at present authorized to be made.

And it is further intended by the said Act to extend, enlarge, and revive the powers of the said company, with regard to the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to take new powers for such purpose, and to enable the said company to levy tolls in respect of the use of the said intended branch railways and the conveniences therewith respectively connected; and also in respect of any works which they may be authorized to make by consent of land-owners or otherwise, under the powers of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of the said intended Act, and to confer, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said Act to enable the said company to purchase or lease by agreement, with the Most Noble the Marquis of Bute, the ship canal, dock, basins, and other works connected therewith, belonging to the said Marquis, at the port of Cardiff, commonly called or known as the Bute Ship Canal, or any part or parts thereof, or to confirm and carry out such agreement as may be or may have been entered into between the said company and the said Marquis in relation to the said docks and other works, and to levy and raise rates, tolls, and duties in respect of the use thereof, and for the purposes aforesaid to amend, alter, or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the powers and provisions of the following Acts of Parliament relating to the said Bute Ship Canal, that is to say, an Act passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and another Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty, and to reduce, alter, and vary the rates and tolls authorized to be taken by the said last recited Acts, or either of them; and by the said intended Act it is further proposed to take power to abandon part of the undertaking of the Taff Vale Railway, as authorized to be made by the said recited Acts, or one of them, within the parishes of Radir, Whitechurch, Llandaff, Leckwith, and Llandough, in the said county of Glamorgan, and to resell all such lands as may have been purchased by the said company for the purposes of those parts of the said undertaking which may be so abandoned.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line or situation and levels of the said intended works, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of such works, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Glamorgan, at his office, in Cardiff; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in which the said intended works will be situate, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this seventh day of November 1843.

W. O. Hunt, 10, Whitehall, London.

Hertford and Hitchin Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to authorize the construction of a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to commence by a junction with the Hertford and Ware branch of the Northern and Eastern Railway, at or near the Hertford station of the said branch railway, in the parish of Saint John Hertford, in the county of Hertford, and to terminate in a certain field adjoining the turnpike road from Hitchin to Stevenage, in the parish of Hitchin, in the county of Hertford; which said railway, works, and conveniences will pass from, in, through or into, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, townlands, hamlets, liberties, extra-parochial and other places of Saint John Hertford, liberty of Brickendon, All Saints Hertford, Saint Andrew Hertford, Bengoe, Stapleford, Watton, Datchworth, Aston, Knebworth, Shephall, Stevenage, Little Wymondley, Ipollits otherwise Ipollitts, Hitchin, Rush Green, Hertingfordbury, Little Amwell, Sacombe, Broadoak, Goldens, Waterford, Waterford Marsh, Bulls Mill, Mill End, South End, Digswell, Tewin, Bramfield, Watton Green, Wemstead, Broomhall Farm, Raughin Green, Datchworth Bury, Aston Bury, Mooders Hill, Oaks Cross, Frogmore, Bennington, Little Munden, Codicote, Knebworth Green, Deards Ead, Langley, Kimpton, Welwyn, Pauls Walden, Norton Green, Bragbury End, Broadwater, Shephall Bury, Coreys Mill, Symonds Green, Stevenage Bury, Broomin Green, Fishers Green, Todda Green, Kingswalden, Wymondley Priory, Wymondley Bury, Great Wymondley otherwise Much Wymondley, Gravely, William, Letchworth, Ickleford, Charlton, Preston, Pirton, Langley, Walsworth, Gosmore, Little Almshoe, Offley, Holywell, Rickneys, Chapmore End, Titmore Green, or some of them, in the county of Hertford; and it is intended, by the said Act, to incorporate a company for the purpose of carrying into effect the said intended railway, and to enable the said company to levy tolls, rates, or duties in respect thereof.

And it is further intended, by the said Act, to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said intended railway.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and of the lands required to be taken for the same, together with a book of reference to the said plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hertford, at his office at Saint Albans, in the said county; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said intended railway and the works connected therewith are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively, at their respective residences.—Dated this eighth day of November 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Manchester to join the Grand Junction Railway, in the parish of Chebsey, in the county of Stafford, to be called the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, with certain branches therefrom;" and also of an Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company to vary and extend the line of their railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto."

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to alter the line of the branch railway to Macclesfield, authorized to be made by the said first recited Act, and to make and maintain a new line or lines of railway within the parishes, townships, and extra parochial places of Cheadle, Cheadle Hulme, Cheadle Moseley, Cheadle Bulkeley, Stockport, Bramall, Prestbury, Woodford, Poynton, Worth, Poynton and Worth, Adlington, Butley, Prestbury, Tytherington otherwise Titherington Upton, Fallibroom, and Macclesfield, or some of them, in the county of Chester, in lieu of the said branch railway, or of those parts thereof so proposed to be altered as aforesaid, and to abandon all such parts of the original line of the said branch railway as may become unnecessary in consequence of the construction of the said altered or new line or lines of railway, with power also to make a branch line of railway from the main branch line hereinbefore mentioned, in the townships of Poynton and Worth, or one of them, and parish of Prestbury aforesaid, to a certain railway or tram road belonging to the Right Honourable George John Warren Lord Vernon, leading to and from his collieries, in Poynton and Worth aforesaid, or the one of them.

And it is intended, by the said Act or Acts, to take powers of diverting the turnpike-road leading from Hug-bridge through Macclesfield to Bullochsmithy otherwise Hazle-grove, in the county of Chester, called the Macclesfield District of Road, in the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places of Prestbury, Adlington, and Butley, to the extent which will be shewn on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; and power will be taken in the said intended Act or Acts to revive, or to extend and enlarge, the powers granted by the said recited Acts, or either of them, for the purchase of lands by compulsion; and also to take powers for the purchase by compulsion or agreement of all such lands as may be necessary for the construction of the said intended new works, or for any other purpose for which the said Company may require them.

And powers will also be taken in the said intended Act to enable the said Company to sell to any person or corporation any lands which they may have purchased, or agreed to purchase, and which may not be required by them in consequence of the abandonment of such parts of the said railway or branch railway as would have passed over the lands so purchased.

And it is further proposed to take powers for levying tolls for and in respect of the use of the said intended altered or new line or lines of railway, for borrowing and raising a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking, and also for altering, varying, or extinguishing all existing rights or privileges connected with the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said intended works, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended works, or the other purposes for which such lands may be required, and to confer certain other rights and privileges.

And powers will also be taken for enabling the said Company and the Grand Junction Railway Company to enter into arrangements and agreements for and connected with the carrying on and conducting the traffic upon the respective railways of the said Companies respectively, and upon other railways connected therewith, and the fixing and apportioning the tolls, rates, duties, freights, fares, profits, and advantages thereof, upon such terms and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon by them.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended new works, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester, on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes within which the intended new works will be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1843.

to the said two last-named companies, or either of them, of the said intended railway and works, and of all or any of the powers to be conferred by the said intended Act or Acts, and to enable the said two last-named companies, or either of them, to purchase or rent the said railway, or to execute the same, and to exercise all or any of such powers, and to raise the necessary funds for such purpose.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway and works, and the situation of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Anglesea, at his office in Beaumaris; with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Carnarvon, at his office in Carnarvon; with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Flint, at his office in Mold; with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Denbigh, at his office in Ruthin; with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Chester, at his office in Chester; and with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of the city of Chester, at his office in Chester; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railway and works is or are intended to pass or be made, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated this tenth day of November 1843.

Timothy Tyrrell, Guildhall, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to obtain an Act or Acts (having full powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses) for making and maintaining a railway or tramroad, with all necessary inclined planes, and other proper and adequate works and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages properly constructed, to commence at or near Par-harbour, in or near the parishes of Saint Austell, Saint Blazey, and Tywardreath, in the county of Cornwall, and to pass by, through, or near the villages of Holm-bush, Treleven's-cross, and High-cross, the town of Saint Austell, and the villages of Trewoon, High-street, Saint Dennis, Fraddon, Quintrel-downs, Newquay Town and Harbour, and to terminate at or near Towan-head, within the parish of Saint Columb Minor, in the said county; which railway or tramroad will pass through or into the parishes of St. Austell, St. Mewan, St. Stephen's, Saint Dennis, Saint Columb Major, Saint Enoder, Colan, and Saint Columb Minor, in the county of Cornwall; and also for making and maintaining a branch railway or tramroad, commencing at or near Groze, in the parish of Saint Columb Major, passing by, through, or near the village of Summer-court, and the borough of Michell, on to Newlyndowns, in the county of Cornwall; and also for making and maintaining another branch railway or tramroad, leading from the last-mentioned branch to, at, or near Ladock-village, in the said county; which branch railways or tramroads will pass through or into the parishes of Saint Columb Major, Saint Enoder, the borough of Michell, Newlyn, Saint Stephen's, Ladock, and Probus, in the county of Cornwall; and powers are to be asked for in the said Act or Acts, for levying and recovering tolls, rates, and dues on all passengers, goods, wares, minerals, vehicles, merchandize, and all other things passing over, upon, or along such railway, tramroad, and branch railways, or any part thereof.

And also for forming, making, and maintaining, at Par aforesaid, embankments, breakwaters, piers, jetties, wharfs, quays, warehouses, locks, channels, docks, sluices, and other erections and contrivances for improving, enlarging, and deepening the present harbour of Par, and for affording a harbour of refuge in Par or Tywardreath-bay, in the county of Cornwall; and powers are to be asked for in the said Act or Acts, for levying and recovering tolls, rates, and dues on all vessels entering such harbour of refuge, of a higher amount than the dues now paid by vessels entering the said bay, as well as on all vessels discharging or loading within the same; and also on all goods, wares, minerals, merchandize, and all other things landed or embarked therein, as well as on all goods, wares, minerals, merchandize, and all other things using and employing the said piers, jetties, wharfs, quays, and warehouses, or either of them.

And notice is further given, that application will be made to alter and increase, by the said Act or Acts, wholly or in part, the rate of dues granted by an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, for maintaining the pier and harbour of Newquay, within the limits and boundaries of the said harbour, under the said Act; and also within such limits and boundaries to keep, repair, and maintain the present piers, wharfs, and erections, and also to make and maintain other embankments, breakwaters, piers, wharfs, jetties, docks, and other erections and contrivances for improving the said harbour of Newquay, and for making within Towan-bay, in the county of Cornwall, a more effectual harbour of refuge.

And notice is hereby given, that the plans, sections, and books of reference of the said intended railway or tramroad, and branch railways, together with those relating to Par-harbour and Par-bay, otherwise Tywardreath-bay, and also those relating to Newquay-harbour and Towan-bay, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at Saint Austell, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November, and with the parish clerk of each of the respective parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December next ensuing.

Dated this 6th day of November 1843.

And further notice is hereby given, that plans and sections, describing the line or lines and levels of the said intended works, and the lands and property which may be required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and property, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Westmoreland, at his office in Appleby, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cumberland, at his office in Carlisle; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, respectively, as relate to each of the parishes from, in, through, or into which the said intended works, or any of them, will be made or pass, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirty-first day of December now next, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to incorporate a company or companies for the purpose of making, maintaining, working, and using the said railway or railways, and for other purposes; and with power to levy tolls, rates, and duties on and for the use of the same and otherwise; and for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses; and that it is also intended to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with the lands so proposed to be purchased, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railway or railways and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to obtain power to deviate in the construction of the said intended railway or railways and works, from the line or lines thereof respectively, as delineated on the said plans so intended to be deposited as aforesaid, to such extent as will be defined upon such plans.

And further notice is hereby given, that it is proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to give the company or companies thereby incorporated, power to alter and divert, to the extent shewn on the said plans intended to be deposited as aforesaid, all such highways, roads, tramroads, railways, streets, paths, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and watercourses as it may be necessary or expedient to alter and divert for the purpose of making and maintaining, or more conveniently making or maintaining or using the said railway or railways to be authorized by the said Act or Acts, or any of the works or conveniences connected therewith.

And further notice is hereby given, that it is proposed, by the said Act or Acts, to enable the Grand Junction Railway Company, the Liverpool and Manchester Railway Company, the North Union Railway Company, the Lancaster and Preston Railway Company, and any other companies or persons who may be so minded and named in the said Act or Acts, to raise funds, and (out of their corporate or other funds), either jointly or severally, to take shares in and subscribe for or towards the making, maintaining, working, and using of such intended new line or lines of railway, or any part thereof; or to purchase, rent, work, and use the same, or any part thereof, with all the forms aforesaid; or to guarantee to the said company or companies, to be incorporated by the said intended Act or Acts, or to be in any manner concerned thereunder in the said intended new line or lines of railway, or any part thereof, such interest or profit on their outlay as may be agreed upon; and also to enable all or any of the said companies, hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, to enter into and carry into effect such further and other arrangements and agreements, either jointly or severally, and either mutually or with any other parties, with relation to the said intended new line or lines of railway, or any part thereof, as may be expedient or proper.—Dated the first day of November 1843.

Clay and Swift, Liverpool.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to authorize the construction and maintenance of a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at or near the terminus of the Bristol and Exeter Railway, in the parish of Saint David, in the county of the city of Exeter; passing thence from, in, or through the parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places following, that is to say, Saint David, in the county of the city of Exeter; Saint Thomas the Apostle, Alphington; Exminster, Powderham, the bed and shores of the river Exe, Kenton, Kenton Courtenay, Starcross, the Sea-shore, Dawlish, Holcombe, East Teignmouth, West Teignmouth, the shores and bed of the river Teign and of the harbour of Teignmouth, Bishopsteignton, Kingsteignton, Wolborough, a certain piece of land lying between the said two last-mentioned parishes near to a place called Hackney, and which said piece of land is alleged to be extra parochial, Newton Abbot, Highweek, Newton Bushel, Combinteignhead, Haccombe, Coffinswell, Abbotskerswell, Kingskerswell, Marldon, Ipplepen, Dainton, Torbryan, Broadhempston, Littlehempston, Staverton, Dartington, Berry Pomeroy, Bridgetown, Totnes, Harberton, Rattery, Dean otherwise Dean Church otherwise Dean Prior, South Brent, Diptford, North Huish otherwise North Hewish, Ugborough, Harford, Ermington, Ivybridge, Cornwood, Lidford, Walkhampton, Modbury, Plympton Saint Mary, Plympton Saint Maurice, Plympton Earle, Colebrook, Shaugh otherwise Shaugh Prior, Bickley otherwise Bickleigh, Yealmton, Brixton, Plymstock, Saltram, Saltram-marsh, Crabtree-marsh, Egg Buckland, Efford, Efford-marsh, the shores and bed of the Lairy, Lairy-green, Lairy-farm, Lipson-meadows,

Compton otherwise Compton Gifford, Weston Peverell otherwise Penny-cross, Charles (Plymouth), Saint Andrew (Plymouth), East Stonehouse, Stoke Damerel, and the boroughs of Plymouth and Devonport, or some of them, in the county of Devon, and terminating at or near a place commonly called Eldad, in the parish of Saint Andrew (Plymouth), with power to form a branch railway in or through the said last-mentioned parish to the water side at Millbay; and also to make a road or approach within the parishes and places of Stoke Damerel, Stonehouse-creek, Stonehouse Mill-pool, East Stonehouse, and Saint Andrew (Plymouth), or some or one of them, within the said county of Devon, from the boundary of the Government Lines outside the north east Barrier-gate, at Devonport, to the terminus of the said intended railway, at or near Eldad aforesaid; and it is further intended by the said Act or Acts to enable the company thereby to be incorporated as hereinafter mentioned, and the proprietor or proprietors, for the time being, of the bridge known as the Stonehouse Mill-bridge, constructed over Stonehouse Mill-pool aforesaid, under the powers of an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, to enter into and carry into effect such mutual arrangements as to them may seem expedient for the sale or for the letting of the said bridge, or of the tolls and duties, or any part thereof, payable in respect of the use thereof, and of all or any of the powers of the said proprietor or proprietors in connexion therewith, to the said company, and, with such object, to amend or enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act relating to the said bridge, and to alter the tolls thereby authorized to be levied, or to grant such exemptions therefrom, and such other privileges with respect to the traffic passing to and from the said intended railway, as may be mutually agreed on.

And it is further intended, by the said Act or Acts, to take power to make certain alterations in the railway or tramroad, known as the Plymouth and Dartmoor Railway, and the branches thereof, within the parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Egg Buckland, Lairy-green, Lairy-farm, Charles and Saint Andrew (Plymouth), and certain lands lying between the Lairy and the said two last-mentioned parishes, or one of them, in the said county of Devon; and to extend the branches of the said last-mentioned railway or tramroad near to or along the shores of Sutton Pool and Catwater, in or adjoining to the said parishes of Charles and Saint Andrew (Plymouth), or one of them; and to enable the Company to be incorporated as aforesaid and the Company of Proprietors of the said last-mentioned railway or tramroad, and all other parties who may be interested therein, or in the rates, tolls, and duties arising therefrom, to enter into and carry into effect such mutual arrangements as to them may seem expedient for the sale or for the letting of the said last-mentioned railway or tramroad, and the branches thereof, or of any portion thereof, respectively, and of all or any of the powers of the said last-mentioned Company of Proprietors in connection therewith, to the Company so to be incorporated as aforesaid, or to enable the Company of Proprietors of the said Plymouth and Dartmoor Railway to make such alterations or extensions of their said railway and branches, or either of them, within the parishes, townships, and extra parochial places aforesaid, or some or one of them, to connect the same with the said railway, and for adapting the said railway or tramroad to the several purposes of both or either of such last-mentioned Companies; and with such objects or otherwise, to renew, alter, amend, extend, or enlarge all, any, or either of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the said last-mentioned railway or tramroad, passed respectively in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, the first year of the reign of King George the Fourth, and the first and second years of the same reign, or of either of such Acts, and, if necessary, to alter or increase the tolls thereby authorized to be levied.

And power is also intended to be taken, by the said intended Act or Acts, to alter or divert all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, harbours, docks, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers, within or adjoining to the said parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places aforesaid, or any of them, which it may be necessary to interfere with in the construction of the said intended railway and works.

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to incorporate a Company for carrying into effect the said railway and other works, and to take powers for the purchase of lands by compulsion or agreement for the purposes thereof, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said railway and other works; and to grant such exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties as to such Company may seem meet.

And it is also intended to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges connected with the lands proposed to be purchased, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railway and other works hereinbefore referred to, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the Company, thereby to be incorporated, to sell or let or transfer the said intended railway and works, or any part thereof, and all or any powers of the said Company, in connection therewith, to the Bristol and Exeter Railway Company, the Great Western Railway Company, and the Bristol and Gloucester Railway Company, or to any or either of them; and to enable the said three last-named Companies, or any or either of them, to purchase or rent or construct the said railway and works, or any part thereof, and to exercise such powers, or any of them, and also to raise and contribute funds towards the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway and works, and generally to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements, in reference thereto, as may be mutually agreed on between the said last-mentioned Companies, or any or either of them, and the Company so to be incorporated as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended railway and other works hereinbefore mentioned, and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Devon, at his office at the castle of Exeter, with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of the city of Exeter, at his office in the said city, and with the Clerk of the Peace of the borough of Plymouth, at his office in Plymouth; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended railway and works are intended to be made, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of three several Acts, one passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull;" another, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs at Kingston-upon-Hull for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and also for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works;" and another, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull," or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant further and other powers instead thereof. And it is intended, in and by the said Bill, to remove the doubts which have arisen as to the power of the Dock Company to take wharfage rates for goods, wares, and merchandize loaded or delivered from any of the quays or wharfs erected by virtue of such Acts, and to grant, confirm, or restore such powers to the said Company. And it is also intended to apply for power to take certain rates for vessels remaining within the said docks beyond a period to be specified in the said Bill, and also for power to enable the Dock Company to reduce any of their rates or duties, and again to raise or alter the same. And it is also intended to alter the provisions relating to the appointment and powers of the Commissioners contained in the said Acts, or one of them.

And notice is hereby also given; that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to make and maintain a dock or docks, basin or basins, with two or more piers or embankments, and piling extending into and along the side of the river Humber, and also a cut or communication, or cuts or communications, from and out of such dock or docks, passing between the citadel and Drypool church, through part of the ground attached to such church, and part of the ground belonging to such citadel, to communicate with the haven or harbour of the said town of Kingston-upon-Hull, with proper quays, yards, wharfs, warehouses, buildings, communications, works, and conveniences connected with the same respectively. And also for power to widen the entrance from the haven or harbour of the said town into the dock called the Old Dock, and also for more effectual powers to cleanse and remove obstructions in the said haven or harbour, or some part or parts thereof; which said dock or docks, basin or basins, piers or embankments and piling, cut or communication, or cuts or communications, enlargement of entrance to the Old Dock and the said haven or harbour, or part or parts thereof, and other works aforesaid, will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the extra-parochial place called "The Garrison Side," in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, the several townships of Drypool and Southcoates, in the parish of Drypool, in the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, both or one of them, and the several parishes of Holy Trinity and Saint Mary, in the said borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, or one of them.

And it is intended to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of the lands and houses to be described upon the plans hereinafter mentioned, and also to declare the liability of vessels, using the proposed new docks and other intended new works, to the rates, tolls, and duties given by virtue of the said recited Acts, and to be granted by the intended Bill: And it is also intended, in and by the said Bill, to give power to the said Dock Company to take wharfage rates for all goods, wares, and merchandize which may be loaded or delivered from, or landed or discharged upon, any of the quays or wharfs which may be erected under or by virtue of the powers to be contained in the said intended Bill, and to confer certain exemptions in respect of vessels in the service of Her Majesty, or of the Customs, Excise, Post Office, Admiralty, Ordnance, or Navy Board, and in respect of Government stores delivered from or into the same, and also for power to declare the quays of the said docks, or certain parts thereof, to be legal quays within the port of Hull.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed new works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office at Kingston-upon-Hull, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Drypool, Saint Mary, and Holy Trinity, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

Dated this first day of November 1843.

Newbury and Basingstoke Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by two several junctions with the London and South Western Railway; one of such junctions to be at or near the point where the said last-mentioned railway passes under the Reading and Basingstoke turnpike road, in the parish of Basingstoke, in the county of Southampton, and the other of such junctions to be at or near the point where the said London and South Western Railway passes over the river Loddon, in the parish of Basing, in the same county, and terminating near to the Lancastrian school, on or near to the Newbury and Winchester turnpike road, commonly called the Newtown-road, in the parish of Newbury, in the county of Berks; which said intended railway and works are intended to be made in, and to pass through or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial, or other places of Basing, otherwise Old Basing, Basingstoke, Chinham, Sherfield Monks, Sherborne, otherwise West Sherborne, Ebbworth, Sherborne Saint John, otherwise East Sherborne, Wootton Saint Lawrence, Worting, Hannington, Ewhurst, Pamber, Bramley, Bearepaire, Tadley, Baughurst, Inhurst, Woolverton, Kingsclere, Echenswell, otherwise Itchingswell, Sidmanton, Burghclere, Highclere, Headly, and Newtown, all or some or one of them, in the said county of Southampton; Brimpton, Thatcham, Crookham, Greenham, Sandleford, Enborne, and the borough and parish of Newbury, or some or one of them, in the said county of Berks.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said proposed railway and works, and also a duplicate of such plan and section, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Southampton, at his office at Winchester, in the same county; and with the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Berks, at his office at Abingdon, in the said last-mentioned county; and a copy of so much of such plan and section as relates to each parish, in or through which the said proposed railway and works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers are intended to be taken, in and by the said Act, to deviate in the construction of the said proposed railway and works, to such extent as will be defined on the said plans; and to alter and divert such highways, roads, canals, navigations, rivers, and watercourses, within the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places aforesaid, as it may be necessary to alter or divert, for the purposes of the said proposed railway and works; and also powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses; and for varying or extinguishing all rights and privileges, in any manner connected with such lands and houses; and for the levying of tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said proposed railway and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that, by the said Act, it is intended to incorporate a company, for the purpose of making and maintaining the said proposed railway and works, and to authorise such company, to demise or sell the same, or any part thereof, to the London and South Western Railway Company, or to agree with the said last mentioned Company, for the making, execution, maintenance, use, and working thereof, or any part thereof; and also to authorize the said London and South Western Railway Company to hire or purchase, or to make, execute, and maintain, use, and work; or to enter into an agreement for the making, execution, maintenance, use, and working, of the said proposed railway and works, or any part thereof, and to take tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect thereof.—Dated the eighth day of November 1843.

Gray and Godwin, Newbury, Solicitors for the proposed Undertaking.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to extend the term and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of three several Acts, relating to the turnpike roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbro' Green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby; that is to say, an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening the road from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the west riding of the county of York, and also the road branching out of the said road at or near Mosbro' Green, in the said county of Derby, to Clown, in the same county;" An Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and to alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbro' Green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby;" and an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending two Acts of His late Majesty, for repairing the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbro' Green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby; and also for widening and altering certain parts of the said roads, and making and maintaining branches of road communicating therewith."

And it is intended, by the Act so to be applied for, to alter and increase the tolls at present authorised to be taken under the said recited Acts.—
Dated the third day of November 1843.

By order,
Wilson, Younge, and Pierson, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to repeal, some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting with gas the town of Rochdale, and the neighbourhood thereof, within the parish of Rochdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster."

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act, to grant to the Rochdale Gas Light and Coke Company, incorporated by the said recited Act, further and additional powers for lighting with gas the several townships within that part of the said parish of Rochdale which is situate in the said county of Lancaster, and for supplying with gas the inhabitants of the said parish, and for making and levying rates, rents, or charges for such purposes; and to alter or vary the existing rates, rents, or charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents, or charges, and other rights or privileges, as may be found expedient.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act, to enable the said Company to purchase, by compulsion or agreement, the fee simple and inheritance of and in all lands, tenements, and hereditaments now held by them or in their occupation, and to purchase as aforesaid all such other lands, tenements, and hereditaments as may be necessary for the purposes of the said recited and said intended Acts, or either of them; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, respectively, which would impede or interfere with the purposes aforesaid.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act, to enable the said Company to increase their present capital, by converting into capital the monies which have been expended by them over and above the capital authorised to be raised by the said recited Act, and by the creation of new shares, or by mortgage, or by such other means as Parliament shall direct; and also to limit the future profits of the proprietors of shares in the said Company, in such manner and to such extent as to Parliament shall seem meet.—Dated the fourth day of November 1843.

Holgate and Roberts, Solicitors, Rochdale.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for better lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, and improving the town of Rochdale, and the environs thereof, in the townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland, some or all of them, in the parish of Rochdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting, cleansing, watching, and regulating the town of Rochdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and to repeal some of the powers and provisions therein contained; and to obtain other powers and provisions, or wholly to repeal the said Act, and obtain a new Act in lieu thereof.

And it is intended, by the said Bill, to obtain powers for enabling the Commissioners, for the time being, of the said town to erect and set up a manufactory or manufactories of gas, with all necessary gasometers, boilers, retorts, works, and apparatus, and to make gas for better lighting the several streets, squares, highways, lanes, roads, courts, paths, passages, and other places within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland, some or all of them; and also to vend gas to consumers, and for that purpose to purchase or take on lease any lands, buildings, or hereditaments which may be necessary, and to make and erect suitable and necessary erections, buildings, works, and apparatus for the manufacturing and preparing gas; and to lay down mains, pipes, and other implements and materials in, under, through, and along all and every the several streets, squares, highways, lanes, roads, courts, paths, passages, and other places within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland, some or all of them; and it is also intended, by the said Bill, to obtain power for widening and improving the streets and other public passages and places within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland, some or all of them; and to obtain powers for the compulsory purchase of any buildings, lands, or hereditaments within the said town or the environs thereof, in the said three last-named townships, or some or one of them, which it may be deemed necessary or advisable to purchase for that purpose: and also powers for paving and sewerage the several streets, squares, roads, ways, and passages within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland: and also the better to prevent nuisances and annoyances within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland, some or all of them: and for the several purposes aforesaid, to raise and levy rates upon the occupiers of messuages, mills, manufactories, and buildings within the said town, and the environs thereof, in the said townships of Butterworth, Castleton, Hundersfield, and Spotland.

And it is also intended to obtain powers to borrow and raise, on the credit of the existing rates, or on any altered, increased, or new rates to be raised or levied by virtue of the before-mentioned Act, or of the said intended Act, all such capital and moneys as may be requisite for defraying the expences of obtaining the said intended Act, and of carrying the several powers and purposes thereof into execution.

W. Hcaton, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for a Bill to incorporate the Metropolitan Patent Wood Paving Company, established under an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating legal proceedings by or against the Metropolitan Patent Wood Paving Company, and for granting certain powers thereto;" and also for granting other powers and privileges to the said company, and for altering and amending the provisions of the said Act.—Dated this 6th day of November 1843.

Hodgson and Burton, Solicitors, 10, Salisbury-street, Strand.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to authorize the sale of all the freehold and copyhold lands, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to the chapel of Willenhall, in the county of Stafford, within the peculiar and exempt jurisdiction of the collegiate Church or Queen's Free Royal Chapel of Wolverhampton; which copyhold lands, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments are situate in the township of Willenhall, and are holden of the manor of Stowheath, and are vested in trustees upon trust; first, to pay a yearly rent of eleven shillings to the lords of the said manor; secondly, to pay six shillings and eight pence towards the reparation of the said chapel of Willenhall; and thirdly, towards the maintenance of a stipendiary priest, minister, or curate for the said chapel of Willenhall; and which freehold lands and hereditaments are situate in the township of Willenhall aforesaid, and in the liberty or township of Bentley, within the said parish of Wolverhampton; and the rents of which are received by the stipendiary priest, minister, or curate for the time being of the said chapel of Willenhall; and for the laying out of the monies to be produced by such sale, partly in providing a residence for such stipendiary priest, minister, or curate, and partly in the purchase of other lands or hereditaments, with such directions as Parliament shall approve for the investment of such purchase monies and the application of the income thereof in the mean time, until laid out as aforesaid.

Dated this sixth day of November 1843.

John Mason, Solicitor for the intended Bill, Bilston.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to make and maintain a new line of railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to commence by a junction with the London and Croydon railway, in the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, passing from thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Croydon, Waddon otherwise Waddon Coupt, Beddington, Wallington, Carshalton, Sutton, Cheam, North

Cheam, West Cheam, East Cheam, Cuddington, Chessington otherwise Chessingdon, Ewell, and Epsom, or some of them, all in the said county of Surrey, and to terminate in the said parish of Epsom.

And it is intended, by such Bill or Bills, to incorporate a company for the purpose of carrying into effect the said intended railway and other works, or to enable the London and Croydon Railway Company to construct the same.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended, by such Bill or one of such Bills, to apply for power to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts, passed respectively in the fifth and in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the first, second, and in the sessions holden in the third and fourth, and sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, relating to the London and Croydon Railway.

And, in the said Bill or Bills, power will be applied for to deviate from the line laid down on the plans hereinafter mentioned to the extent thereon defined, and to levy rates, tolls, or duties for the use of the said intended railway.

And, in such Bill or Bills, it is intended also to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, and other property to be described upon the said plans; and also for power to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes of such railway.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at Lambeth, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant November; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to each of the parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this first day of November 1843.

Burchell, Kilgour, and Parson; 24, Red Lion-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common and waste lands, in the parish of Bleddfa, in the county of Radnor; and for extinguishing all rights of common, and other rights and privileges in, over, and upon the same; by which Bill provision is intended to be made for defraying the expenses of such inclosure by a rate, or by a sale of land, or by such other means as to Parliament may seem expedient.—Dated this fourth day of November 1843,

Green and Peters.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, or tramroad (with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith), to commence at or near a school-house, in the village of Spital, in the county of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, commonly called the Spital Subscription School, and thence past or near a place called the Jetty, on the south side of the river Tweed, belonging to the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital, at Spital, in the said county, and thence to the Carr Rock, and thence to a place at or near the south end of the bridge across the river Tweed, situate in Tweedmouth, in the said county, and commonly called Berwick-bridge; and which said railway or railways, or tramroad, will pass along the east back street of the village of Spital aforesaid to or near the said jetty, and from thence along the south bank of the said river Tweed, situate within the townships of Tweedmouth and Spital, or one of them, and in that part of the parish or chapelry of Tweedmouth which lies in the said county of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid; and also to erect and build any wall or walls which shall or may be necessary or expedient for making and completing the said railway or railways, or to use or contract for any wall or walls already erected or built on any part of the proposed line; and to enclose, or contract and agree for the purchase, of a portion of the waste of the manor of Tweedmouth, near to the said bridge, as a repository for coal, or stone, or other things; and it is intended to take power in the said Act to deviate in constructing the said intended railway, from the line or lines thereof laid down in the maps or plans thereof to be deposited as after mentioned, to such extent as is or will be defined on the said plans.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan or map, with all proper sections, describing the line and situation and level of the said intended works and railway, with the land or site which will be taken or used for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of any such land, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, at the city of Durham, and with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid; and there will also be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, with the parish clerk of the parish or chapelry of Tweedmouth (within which the said railway is intended to be made and works erected), at his residence, a copy of the said maps or plans, and sections, together with the book of reference thereto.

Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending and rendering more effectual "An Act for draining and preserving certain fen lands and low grounds in the parishes of Lakenheath and Brandon, in the county of Suffolk;" and for imposing an additional tax upon part of the lands comprised within the said Act.—Dated this 7th day of October 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, or repeal the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some or one of them, that is to say, an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for cleansing, lighting, watching, and regulating the streets, lanes, passages, and places within the townships of Manchester and Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster, for widening and rendering more commodious several of the said streets, lanes, and passages, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better lighting with gas the town of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend several Acts for cleansing, lighting, watching, improving, and regulating the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend several Acts for supplying the town of Manchester with gas, and for regulating and improving the same;" an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorize the raising of further moneys for supplying the town of Manchester with gas;" an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for widening and improving a part of London-road, in the parish of Manchester, and county of Lancaster; and also for effecting improvements in the streets and other places within the town of Manchester;" an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of several Acts, for effecting improvements in the streets and other places within the town of Manchester;" an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for enabling the Directors of the Manchester Gas Works to purchase land, buildings, and apparatus for the extension of their works;" an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for effecting improvements in the streets and other places within and contiguous to the town of Manchester;" an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the more effectual administration of the office of a Justice of the Peace within the townships of Manchester and Salford, in the hundred of Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and to provide, by means of a rate on the said townships, and otherwise, a competent salary to a Justice of the Peace acting within the said townships; and to enable the constables of Manchester to take recognizances in certain cases;" and an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for transferring to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Manchester certain powers and property now vested in the Commissioners for cleansing, lighting, watching, and regulating the town of Manchester."

And, by the said intended Act or Acts, it is proposed to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Manchester, or the Council thereof for the time being, to alter, widen, enlarge, and improve the streets, lanes, and public places within the township of Manchester, and, in particular, the following, viz. to widen and improve a certain street called Duke-street, extending from Cannon-street to Broom-street; and also to widen and improve certain other streets called Broom-street and Sugar-lane; and also to form and make a communication from the northerly side of Market-street, through Cockpit-hill, Hodson's-court, Macdonald's-lane, Paradise-court, Cannon-street, and Greenwood-street, to a certain other street or place called Hydes-cross or Withy-grove; and also to form and make a communication from the north westerly end of certain streets called Cross-street and Princess-street, through Tasse-street, Four-yards, Sounding-alley, Ridgefield, and Back Ridgefield, to certain other streets or places called Deansgate and Bridge-street; and for the purposes aforesaid, and also for other the purposes hereinafter mentioned, to purchase lands and buildings by compulsion or by agreement.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the Council aforesaid, to erect and provide, or cause to be erected and provided, for the purposes of the said borough, proper slaughterhouses and places for slaughtering cattle, and to regulate the same by bye laws and other regulations; and to demand and receive rates or rents and charges in respect of the use thereof; and to regulate also and restrict the use of other slaughterhouses and places within the said borough.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to give further powers to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the Council aforesaid, for the removal and prevention of obstructions, encroachments, and nuisances within the said borough, and for the government and maintenance of good order therein.

And it is also further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to exempt the owners and occupiers of property within the said township of Manchester from all contributions towards the salary of the Magistrate appointed and acting under the said recited Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, and from the payment of any rates in respect thereof, and to repeal such rates within the said township, and to provide for the appointment of a Stipendiary Magistrate, to act exclusively within the borough of Manchester, and for payment of such Magistrate out of the borough fund of the said borough.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to declare the said borough of Manchester to be, and to constitute the same, a port for warehousing of goods within the meaning of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the warehousing of goods;" and to confer on the said borough all the privileges appertaining to a port within the meaning of the said Act.

And, for the purpose of defraying the expences which may arise or be incurred by the operation of the said last-mentioned Act within the said borough, it is also proposed to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the said Council, to levy rates on the owners and occupiers of all warehouses which may be licenced as places of security under the said Act, and on the owners of all goods which may pay Customs duty within the said borough, and (if necessary) to charge the borough fund of the said borough with any deficiency in the amount arising from such rates, to meet such expenses as aforesaid.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the said Council, to alter the mode of application of the rates, duties, and other moneys arising under the authority of the said recited Acts, or some of them.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or the Council aforesaid, to raise money for the several purposes aforesaid, on the credit of the several rates, or any of them, which are now payable to them, or which may become payable, under such intended Act or Acts, or on the credit of any property belonging, or which may hereafter belong, to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses.—Given under my hand this 1st day of November 1843.

Joseph Heron, Town Clerk of the borough of Manchester.

The Flegg Hundreds Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for the making and maintaining of a navigable cut or canal, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from a certain piece of land called by the name of the Common Allotment, the property of the Reverend Richard Lucas, in the parish of Hemsby, and county of Norfolk, to join and communicate with the river Bure, at or near to the place where the ditch or drain called Muckfleet, hereinafter mentioned, joins and communicates with the said river Bure, within the parishes of Stokesby and Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, or one of them, in the respective hundreds of East and West Flegg, also in the said county of Norfolk; and which said intended cut or canal is intended to extend or pass from the said piece of land, called the Common Allotment, into, through, over, and along a certain piece of land in the said parish of Hemsby, the property of Richard Fabb, and thence into, through, over, and along certain pieces of water or broads, called respectively, Hemsby Broad, in the said parish of Hemsby, Rollesby Broad, in the parish of Rollesby, Ormesby Broad, in the parish of Ormesby, Saint Michael, Filby Broad, in the parish of Filby, and Burgh Broad, in the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, all in the said county of Norfolk; and from the said broad, called Burgh Broad, into, through, over, and along a certain piece of land, the property of the trustees of the poor of the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, entering the last-mentioned piece of land at a place distant seventy yards, or thereabouts, from the place where the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet, enters the said broad, called Burgh Broad, and proceeding in nearly a straight line across the last-mentioned piece of land for the distance of ninety yards, or thereabouts; and from thence into, through, over, and along the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet, for the distance of six hundred and eighty yards, or thereabouts; and from thence on the north side of the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet, into, through, over, and along certain lands in the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, being also the property of the said trustees of the poor of the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, to that part of a certain ditch or drain, called Old Muckfleet, which adjoins the north west corner of a piece of land belonging to the feoffees of the town land of the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary; and from thence into, through, over, and along the said ditch or drain, called Old Muckfleet, into the place where it enters the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet; and from thence into, through, over, and along the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet, until its entrance into the said river Bure. And it is also intended, in the said Bill, to take power to deviate in making the said intended cut or canal to the extent defined in the plans and sections thereof to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and power for cleansing, widening, deepening, scouring out, and repairing all or any part or parts of the said ditches or drains, called Muckfleet and Old Muckfleet aforesaid, and for diverting the waters of such parts thereof as will flow and proceed into the said intended cut or canal, and for pulling down, altering, removing, and repairing the walls sides and embankments of the said ditches or drains called Muckfleet and Old Muckfleet, or either of them, and all or any part or parts thereof; and also for cleansing, widening, deepening, scouring out, and maintaing all or any part or parts of the said broads, called Burgh Broad, Filby Broad, Ormesby Broad, Rollesby Broad, and Hemsby Broad, and for diverting the respective waters thereof which will also flow and proceed into the said intended cut or canal; and also for making and staking out a course or way in, through, and over the said broads, to mark out and define the course of the said intended cut or canal in, through, and over the said broads; and also for diverting the waters of the several broads of Martham Broad, in the parish of Martham, also in the said county of Norfolk, and of Ormesby Old Broad, in the said parish of Ormesby St. Michael, and of Burgh Old Broad, in the said parish of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary; and also the waters of a certain piece of water, called Hard Fen, also in the said parishes of Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, and Rollesby, or one of them; all which said last-mentioned broads or pieces of water, and piece of water, will flow and proceed into the said intended cut or canal; and also for making and executing all proper and necessary embankments and works connected with the said intended cut or canal; and also for making and maintaining towing paths along and over the banks or sides of the said intended cut or canal, with all proper conveniences for the purposes of navigation; and also for making and maintaining a lock or locks, and a sluice or sluices, at or near to the entrance of the said intended cut or canal into the said river Bure, so as to open a complete navigation for boats, barges, and other vessels, throughout the line of the said intended cut or canal; and also to heighten, alter, and raise the two public bridges, called Filby-bridge and Rollesby-bridge, which now cross the said Filby and Burgh Broads, and Rollesby and Ormesby Broads, and, if necessary, to pull down and remove the said two bridges, and to make and build other bridges in lieu thereof; and also to heighten, alter, and raise certain private bridges, called or known by the names of Mr. Daniel's Bridge and Florence's Bridge, crossing over the said ditch or drain, called Muckfleet, and any other bridge or bridges crossing over the said ditches or drains, called Muckfleet and Old Muckfleet, or either of them, and, if necessary, to pull down and remove the same bridges, or any of them, and to make and build other bridges, or one other bridge, in lieu thereof; and to alter, vary, and divert such highways, roads, passages, rivers, broads, streams, and watercourses within the parishes and places hereinbefore or hereinafter mentioned, as it may be necessary to alter, vary, or divert for the purpose of constructing the said intended cut or canal, and the works connected therewith respectively; all which said works for making and maintaining the said intended cut or canal, locks, sluices, bridges, towing paths, and other works are intended to be made in, and will pass from, through, into, or near to the said several parishes, townships, hamlets, and places of Stokesby, Herringby, Billockby, Burgh otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh St. Mary, Thrigby, Filby, Ormesby Saint Margaret, Ormesby Saint Michael, Rollesby, and Hemsby, all in the said county of Norfolk, or some or one of them; and it is intended, by the said Bill, to incorporate a company for executing the said works, and carrying on the said proposed undertaking; and it is also intended to take power by the said Bill to license all boats, vessels, and persons navigating or using the said intended cut, canal, or lock; and to prohibit all boats, vessels, and persons not so licensed from navigating or using the said intended cut, canal, and lock; and it is also intended to obtain power by the said Bill to take and purchase lands by compulsory purchase, or by agreement with the proprietors thereof, for the purposes aforesaid, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties on all barges, lighters, boats, and other vessels entering into, using, navigating, and leaving the said intended cut, canal, or lock; and it is further intended to take power by the said Bill to borrow, and take up at interest, sufficient sums of money for the completion and execution of such works, on transferable bonds or annuities, or either of them, such capital money, so to be borrowed and taken up, to be secured on the said tolls, rates, and duties to be levied as aforesaid; and also to raise money, by mortgage or otherwise, for effecting the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given that a plan and section, with a duplicate of such plan and section of the said intended navigable cut or canal, embankments, locks, sluices, towing paths, and other the said proposed works, together with books of reference thereto, will, in accordance with the Standing Orders of Parliament, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Norfolk, at his office, situate at Aylsham, in the said county of Norfolk, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the said parishes of Stokesby, Herringby, Billockby, Burgh, otherwise Burgh Saint Margaret, and Burgh Saint Mary, Thrigby, Filby, Ormesby Saint Margaret, Ormesby Saint Michael, Rollesby, and Hemsby, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes, at their respective residences; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans and sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and also in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliament.—Dated this sixth day of November 1843.

*Fisher, Lucas, and Steward, Solicitors,

John Atkins, Solicitor for the said Company, 5, White Hart-court, Lombard-street, and Deptford.

Leeds and Bradford Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to make to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorize the construction of a railway or railways, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, to commence at or near to Sanford-street and Bishopgate-street, in the township and parish of Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places of Leeds, Holbeck, Wortley, Armley, Headingley, Headingley-cum-Burley, Kirkstall, Kirkstall-bridge, Bramley, New-Laiths, Rodley, Guiseley, Horsforth, Rawdon or Rawden, Yeadon, Apperley-bridge, Calverley, Calverley with Farsley, Farsley, Idle, Thackley, Windhill, Otley, Esholt, Baildon, Shipley, Shipley-fields, Heaton, Frizinghall, Manningham, Bolton, and Bradford, all in the west riding of the county of York, or some of them, and to terminate at or near to Well-street and the lower end of Kirkgate, in Bradford aforesaid.

And also the construction of a branch railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, to commence from and out of the said intended railway, in the township of Holbeck, or in the adjoining township of Wortley, both in the parish of Leeds aforesaid, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several townships of Wortley, Holbeck, and Hunslet, or some of them, all in the parish of Leeds aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction with the present line of the North Midland Railway, in the township of Hunslet, and parish of Leeds aforesaid.

And it is also intended to divert, to the extent shewn upon the plans hereinafter referred to, all railways, turnpike roads, canals, and navigable rivers which it may be necessary to divert in the construction of the said intended new works, within the parishes, townships, and extra parochial places hereinbefore mentioned, or some of them.

And it is further proposed to take powers to stop up, alter, or divert the streets or roads, called Flood-gates and Dunkirk-street, in the township and parish of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act, to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid, with powers to purchase lands and houses by compulsion or agreement for the purposes thereof, and with power to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said intended new works, and to grant such exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties as to such company may seem meet; and it is also intended to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges connected with the lands and houses so proposed to be purchased, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended new works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is further proposed, by the said Act, to enable the company to be incorporated as aforesaid, to grant a lease of the said intended railways and the works thereof, and the tolls to be derived therefrom, to the North Midland Railway Company, or to the railway company which may be formed by the proposed union of the North Midland, Midland Counties, and Birmingham and Derby Junction Railways, and to authorize the North Midland Railway Company, or the railway company to be formed by the said proposed union, to take and accept such lease, at such rent and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed on, and in pursuance thereof to use and work the said intended railways, and to take tolls in respect thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended new works, and describing also the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield; with the Clerk of the Peace for the liberty of Cawood, Wistow, and Otley, at his office in Otley; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Leeds, at his office in Leeds; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and books of reference, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said new works are intended to pass or be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of every such parish.—Dated this seventh day of November 1843.

Payne, Eddison, and Ford, } Solicitors,
George Rawson, junior, } Leeds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, enlarge, repeal, or consolidate the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Bolton-le-Moors to Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" An Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Bolton and Preston Railway Company to extend and alter the line of such railway, and to make collateral branches thereto, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of the Act relating thereto;" an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate the raising of capital for the completion of the Bolton and Preston Railway;" an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for uniting the Wigan Branch Railway Company and the Preston and Wigan Railway Company, for authorising an alteration to be made in the line of the last mentioned railway, and for repealing, altering, and amending the Acts relating to the said railways;" and an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the North Union Railway Company to raise a further sum of money;" and it is intended by the Act or Acts, so to be applied for, to authorize and empower the union and consolidation into one undertaking of the Bolton and Preston Railway and the North Union Railway, and the respective capital, stock, shares, property, and effects of the Bolton and Preston Railway Company and the North Union Railway Company, and the vesting in one company of all the said capital, stock, shares, property and effects, and of all the powers and privileges now vested in the said two companies respectively, and to authorize the incorporation of a new company, for the purposes above mentioned, and to enable such company to complete the said Bolton and Preston Railway, and the works connected therewith, or otherwise to enable the said Bolton and Preston Railway Company to sell or lease, and the said North Union Railway Company to purchase or rent, the said Bolton and Preston Railway, and all right, title, powers, privileges and authorities of the said Bolton and Preston Railway Company of, into, or over the same, or in relation thereto, and to exercise and enjoy such powers, privileges and authorities, and to effectually vest the same in the said North Union Railway Company, and to enable that company to raise a further sum of money by the creation of additional shares, and to convert their shares into stock, and to make certain provisions as to the apportionment of the same, and as to the direction of the said new company, or the said North Union Railway Company.

And it is also intended by the same Act or Acts, so to be applied for, to enable such new company, in the event of such amalgamation as aforesaid, to levy the tolls, rates and duties for, and in respect of the use of the said Bolton and Preston Railway, and the North Union Railway respectively, or of any part or parts thereof, which are by the said Acts relating to the said railways respectively authorized to be levied, and to insert in the same Act or Acts all such powers and provisions as may be considered proper or expedient for carrying into effect the several objects above mentioned.—Dated this 8th day of November 1843.

John Woodhouse, Solicitor, Bolton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to amend and consolidate the several Acts now in force relating to the river Weaver navigation, in the county of Chester, passed respectively in the seventh year of the reign of King George the First, the thirty-third year of the reign of King George the Second, the forty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, the tenth year of the same reign, and the session held in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and to repeal so much of the said Acts, or any of them, as authorizes the application of the surplus funds arising from the rates, tolls, or dues payable in respect of any vessels, flats, boats, or barges, goods, wares, or merchandize passing, or repassing, or carried on the said river, or any branch, cut, or canal, constructed or maintained under the powers of the said Acts, or any of them, for county purposes, or for any other purposes than the maintenance and improvement of the said navigation; and to alter and make provision for the amount of the rates, tolls, and dues to be levied, and as to the mode of levying the same, and to vest the government and management of the affairs of the said navigation in a committee, to be appointed by persons liable to pay rates under the said Acts, and to make other provision with respect to the government and management of the said navigation, and to alter or repeal all existing rights or privileges which would impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, or any of them.

CONTRACT FOR BRITISH OAK TIMBER, THICKSTUFF, PLANK, AND TREENAILS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 19, 1843.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 19th of December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying 14,000 Loads of British Oak Timber (rough contents, but to be delivered in a rough or sided state, as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall direct);

5000 Loads of British Oak Thickstuff and Plank, and 400,000 British Oak Treenails; to be delivered at Her Majesty's several Dock-yards, by the 31st of December 1845, at prices, including all carriage and other expences.

A tender may be made for the whole contract, or for the quantities required for any one or more of the yards, but not for less than the full quantities of timber, thickstuff, plank, and treenails required for any one yard; and it is to be understood, that no contract will be made on the day of treaty for the supply of any of the yards, unless suitable offers are received for the supply of all the yards, either jointly or separately.

A form of the tender, showing the distribution, sidings, and dimensions of the timber, thickstuff, plank, and treenails, and all other necessary particulars, may be had on application to this Office, by letter or otherwise.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for British Oak," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £20,000, for the due performance of the whole contract, or in a due proportion for a part only.

CONTRACT for PAINT INGREDIENTS, &c.
Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-
