riding of the county of York, Esq. and grandson of Thomas Medhurst, of Kippax-hall aforesaid, Esq. by Elizabeth his wife, eldest daughter of the Reverend Granville Wheler, of Otterden-place aforesaid, Clerk, Rector of Leake, and Prebendary of Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, all deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in order to testify his grateful and affectionate regard to the memory of his cousin, Granville-Hastings Wheler, late of Otterden-place and Ledstone-hall aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Wheler, in lieu of that of Medhurst, and bear the arms of Wheler quarterly, in the first quarter, with those of his own family; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

In the COMMON PLEAS.

Michaelmas Term.—In the Seventh Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria.

Wednesday the 22d day of November 1843.

This Court will, on Wednesday the 6th day of December next, hold a Sitting, to give judgment in such cases as stand over for the judgment of the Court.

N. C. Tindal.

Whitehall, November 21, 1843.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Edward Astley, of Hungerford, in the county of Berks, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing sessions, for an Act to authorize the making and maintaining of a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and convenient approaches thereto, to commence from a certain railway belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Barnsley Canal Navigation, in the township of Silkstone, and parish of Silkstone, in the west riding of the county of York, at or near the point where the said railway crosses the Doncaster and Salter's-brook turnpike road, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Silkstone, Oxspring, and Penistone, or some of them, all in the said west riding of the county of York, and terminating at a junction with the line of the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, in the township of Penistone, and parish of Penistone, in the said west riding of the county of York, at or near a close or field in the said township last mentioned, number 84 on the plan of the said last-mentioned railway, deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said west riding; and also to authorize the making of a branch railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches, to commence from the said railway belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Barnsley Canal Navigation, in the said township and parish of Silkstone, in the said west riding, and passing from thence to a certain close or parcel of land in the said township and parish of Silkstone, belonging to and in the occupation of John Johnson, and near to the public highway leading from Silkstone to Thurgoland, and to communicate with a certain intended railway proposed to be made from the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, in the said township of Oxspring, to the North Midland Railway, in the township of Carlton, in the parish of Royston, in the said county of York.

And it is intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid, and to take powers therein for leasing the same to any other company or individual from year to year, or for such term of years as may be deemed expedient; and for enabling such company or individual to take such lease.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers will be applied for, in the said intended Act, to levy tolls, rates, and duties for and in respect of the use of the said intended railways, and the conveniences connected therewith, and grant such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties as to such company may seem meet; and also for the purchase, by compulsion or agreement, of all such lands or houses as may be necessary for the construction of the said intended new works; and for varying or extinguishing all existing rights or privileges connected with the same, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended new works, and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to deviate in the construction of the said railways to such extent as will be defined on the plan thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said proposed railways, and the works connected therewith, and describing also the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace of the west riding of the county of York, at his office, in Wakefield, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and books of reference as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said railways are intended to pass and be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of every such parish.—Dated this 15th day of November 1843.

Foljambe and Dixon, Solicitors, Wakefield.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in a Bill, intended to be applied for in the next session of Parliament, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the opening a street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Farringdon-street, in the city of London, passed, respectively, in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and to make more effectual provision for carrying out the improvements authorized by the said Acts, application is intended to be made for the insertion of provisions to authorize the Commissioners for executing the powers and provisions of such Acts, to open and form a new street, branching out of the said intended street, and terminating at or near Greenhill's-rents; and also to widen and improve certain other streets and ways connected with such last-mentioned street, all in the parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the said county of Middlesex.

And it is intended, in the said Bill, to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for such purposes.—Dated this 23d day of November 1843.
