And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said proposed railway and works, and also a duplicate of such plan and section, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Southampton, at his office, at Winchester, in the same county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Wilts, at his office, at Wilton, in the said last-mentioned county; and a copy of so much of such plan and section, as relates to each parish in or through which the said proposed railway is intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the 31st day of December next, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers are intended to be taken in and by the said Act to deviate in the construction of the said proposed railway and works, to such extent as will be defined on the said plans, and to alter and divert such highways, roads, canals, navigations, rivers, and watercourses, within the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places aforesaid, as it may be necessary to alter or divert, for the purposes of the said proposed railway and works; and also powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and for varying or extinguishing all rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands and houses, and for the levying of tolls, rates, and duties, upon or in respect of the said proposed railway and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that by the said Act it is intended to incorporate a company for the purpose of making and maintaining the said proposed railway and works, and to authorize such company to demise or sell the same, or any part thereof, to the London and South Western Railway Company, or to agree with the said last-mentioned company for the making, execution, maintenance, use, and working thereof, or any part thereof; and also to authorize the said London and South Western Railway Company to hire or purchase, or to make, execute, and maintain, use, and work, or to enter into an agreement for the making, execution, maintenance, use, and working of the said proposed railway and works, or any part thereof; and to take tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect thereof.—Dated the eighth day of November 1843.

Francis T. Bircham, 15, Bedford-row, London; Hodding, Hodding, and Townsend, Salisbury, Solicitors for the said undertaking.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for a Bill for making and maintaining a railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing at the river Dee, in the parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, in the county of the city of Chester, and communicating by a junction with the proposed Chester and Holyhead Railway, in the said parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, and terminating at, in, or near the town of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh; and which railway or railways and works will be situated in, or will pass from, through, or into the several counties, parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, Marlston-cum-Lache, Lache Eyes, in the county of the city of Chester; Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, Marlston-cum-Lache, Lache Eyes, Dodleston, and Pulford, in the county of Chester; Burton and Allington, in the county of Denbigh; Merford otherwise Merford and Hoseley, in the county of Flint; and Gresford, Gwersyllt, Erthig, Stansty, Wrexham Regis, and Wrexham Abbott, and Bersham, in the said county of Denbigh; and also to make and maintain a branch railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing from the main line of railway, near the town of Wrexham, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, and terminating at, in, or near certain mineral fields, in the township of Brymbo, in the said parish of Wrexham, and said county of Denbigh; and which said branch railway or railways and works will be situated in, or will pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places of Wrexham, Wrexham Regis, Wrexham Abbott, Bersham, Broughton, and Brymbo, in the said county of Denbigh; and it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said railway or railways, and branch railway or railways, and other works, from the lines or situations thereof, as laid down on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to such extent as will be shewn or defined on such plans; and to alter, vary, and divert such highways, roads, railways, passages, rivers, brooks, streams, and water-courses within the parishes and places hereinbefore mentioned, as it may be necessary to divert for the purpose of constructing the said railway or railways, and branch railway or railways, and the works connected therewith, respectively.

And it is further intended to take power by the said Bill to incorporate a company, for the purpose of making the said intended railway or railways, and branch railway or railways, and the works connected therewith, respectively, with power to purchase lands, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes thereof, and with powers to levy and take rates, tolls, and sums of money upon and in respect of the use thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the before-mentioned railway or railways, and branch railway or railways, and works, and the lands and hereditaments required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and hereditaments, respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the city of Chester, at his office, in the city of Chester; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office, in the said city of Chester; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, at his office, at Ruthin; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Flint, at his office, at Mold; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes through which the said railway or railways, and branch railway or railways would pass, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the parish clerks of those parishes, respectively.

Dated this 1st day of November 1843.

Timothy Tyrrell, Guildhall, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing sessions, for an Act to authorize the making and maintaining of a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and convenient approaches thereto, to commence from a certain railway belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Barnsley Canal Navigation, in the township of Silkstone, and parish of Silkstone, in the west riding of the county of York, at or near the point where the said railway crosses the Doncaster and Salter's-brook turnpike road, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Silkstone, Oxspring, and Penistone, or some of them, all in the said west riding of the county of York, and terminating at a junction with the line of the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, in the township of Penistone, and parish of Penistone, in the said west riding of the county of York, at or near a close or field in the said township last mentioned, number 84 on the plan of the said last-mentioned railway, deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said west riding; and also to authorize the making of a branch railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches, to commence from the said railway belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Barnsley Canal Navigation, in the said township and parish of Silkstone, in the said west riding; and passing from thence to a certain close or parcel of land in the said township and parish of Silkstone, belonging to and in the occupation of John Johnson, and near to the public highway leading from Silkstone to Thurgoland, and to communicate with a certain intended railway proposed to be made from the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, in the said township of Oxspring, to the North Midland Railway, in the township of Carlton, in the parish of Royston, in the said county of York.

And it is intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the objects aforesaid, and to take powers therein for leasing the same to any other company or individual from year to year, or for such term of years as may be deemed expedient; and for enabling such company or individual to take such lease.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers will be applied for, in the said intended Act, to levy tolls, rates, and duties for and in respect of the use of the said intended railways, and the conveniences connected therewith, and grant such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties as to such company may seem meet; and also for the purchase, by compulsion or agreement, of all such lands or houses as may be necessary for the construction of the said intended new works; and for varying or extinguishing all existing rights or privileges connected with the same, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended new works, and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to deviate in the construction of the said railways to such extent as will be defined on the plan thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said proposed railways, and the works connected therewith, and describing also the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace of the west riding of the county of York, at his office, in Wakefield, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and books of reference as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said railways are intended to pass and be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of every such parish.—Dated this 15th day of November 1843.

Foljambe and Dixon, Solicitors, Wakefield.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in a Bill, intended to be applied for in the next session of Parliament, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the opening a street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Farringdon-street, in the city of London, passed, respectively, in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and to make more effectual provision for carrying out the improvements authorized by the said Acts, application is intended to be made for the insertion of provisions to authorize the Commissioners for executing the powers and provisions of such Acts, to open and form a new street, branching out of the said intended street, and terminating at or near Greenhill's-rents; and also to widen and improve certain other streets and ways connected with such last-mentioned street, all in the parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the said county of Middlesex.

And it is intended, in the said Bill, to apply for the powers usually conferred for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for such purposes.—Dated this 23d day of November 1843.

THE Commissioners for paving, &c. that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called Saint James's do hereby, in pursuance of the direction in that behalf contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 29, sec. 99, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," give notice, that they will, on the 25th day of January now next ensuing, pay off one half of the principal money and interest secured by an assignment, for which the sum of £1000 was paid into the hands of the said Commissioners by William Liddard, of No. 74, Gower-street, Esq.; and the said William Liddard or any other person or persons legally holding the said assignment, is and are hereby required to take notice, that he or they may, on or after the said 25th day of January now next ensuing, receive and be paid the said half of such principal money and interest, by applying at the office of the said Commissioners for paving, &c. Upper Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell, upon which said 25th day of January now next ensuing all interest will cease to be paid upon the said half of the principal money secured by the said assignment.—Dated this 25th day of November 1843.

Thomas Cromwell, Clerk to the said Commissioners.
