Whitehall, November 28, 1843.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, was presented accordingly to Her Majesty who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Principal, Professors, and Students of the East India College, founded for the education of the Civil Servants of India, having been apprized of your Majesty's intention to pass through this neighbourhood to the University of Cambridge, are anxious to seize the opportunity thus offered, of tendering to your Majesty the expression of their devotion and fidelity to your Majesty's Government, and of their loyal attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

And, connected as they are with an institution designed to promote the best interests of a vast and important dependency of the British Crown, they humbly venture to hope, that your Majesty will graciously condescend to accept the assurance of the deep sense they entertain of their responsibilities, and their ardent good wishes for the length, prosperity, and glory of your Majesty's rule over that and every portion of your Majesty's dominions.

The following Addresses, having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, were presented accordingly, which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

THE Principal, Professors, and Students of the East India College beg permission to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of their cordial and most respectful attachment to the Person of your Royal Highness.

Your Royal Highness, in company with our illustrious Sovereign, is now about to visit one of the ancient Universities of the land. The Members of this College, however, trust that your Royal Highness will not refuse to accept this humble testimony of esteem and honour from a Body less famous and distinguished, perhaps, than those which are this day to be honoured with your presence, but one, nevertheless, which is devoted to objects that must always be dear to the heart of Her Most Gracious Majesty.

To His Royal Highness Prince Albert Francis Augustus Charles Emmanuel of Saxe Cobourg Gotha, Field Marshal in Her Majesty's Forces, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council of Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, most humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the profoundest respect and attachment, to express to your Royal Highness the sincere and heartfelt congratulations of this House upon the birth of a Royal Princess, and our wishes for a long continuance of your Royal Highness's health and happiness.

Robert S. Jameson, V. C. Speaker.
Legislative Council, 18th October 1843.

To His Royal Highness Prince Albert Francis Augustus Charles Emanuel of Saxe Cobourg Gotha, Field Marshal in Her Majesty's Forces.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Canada, in Provincial Parliament
