By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us that, although under Our Proclamation of the third June one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, a large amount of the gold coin of this realm, deficient in weight, has been withdrawn from circulation, yet there is much of the gold coin of this realm deficient in weight still in circulation, contrary to the tenor of Our Proclamation aforesaid, and of two Proclamations issued, one by His late Royal Highness George Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His late Majesty King George the Third, bearing date the first of July one thousand eight hundred and seventeen; and the other issued by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, bearing date the sixth of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one; and there being reason to believe that sufficient attention is not paid to the weighing of the said gold coin, and the directions, given in the Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the cutting, breaking, or defacing such pieces thereof as are found to be of less weight than those declared by the last of the aforesaid Proclamations to be current, and to pass and be received in payment; We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, declare and command, that, from and after the date hereof, every gold sovereign of less weight than five pennyweights two grains and a half, and every gold half sovereign of less weight than two pennyweights thirteen grains and one-eighth, be not allowed to be current or pass in any payment whatsoever; and We do hereby strictly require and command all Our loving subjects, and particularly all the officers, collectors, and receivers of Our revenues, strictly to conform to the orders hereby given, and to the directions and regulations enacted and established in the several Acts of Parliament now in force, and, from and after the first day of January next, to cut, break, and deface such pieces of the said gold coin as shall be found deficient in weight; and We do hereby further ordain, declare, and command; that the said gold sovereigns and half sovereigns, of the weights last above described, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, every such sovereign as of the value of twenty shillings, and every such half sovereign as of the value of ten shillings, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Whitehall, November 30, 1843.

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Majesty, on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit in the Midland Counties, and were very graciously received:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the county of Stafford, crave permission to avail ourselves of the joyful occasion of your Majesty's gracious visit to this county to tender the expression of our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Throne.

We are deeply sensible of the great benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's most beneficent sway, and we earnestly trust that your Majesty may long live to reign over us, and the other subjects of your vast empire, in peace and prosperity; that under your Majesty's fostering care the ancient institutions of this land may flourish and endure, and that your Majesty's Throne may be firmly secured in the love and affection of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

We sincerely hope that your Majesty may continue to enjoy, through a long life, that domestic happiness with which Divine Providence has so eminently blessed your Majesty's union with His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and that your Majesty's Royal Children may inherit the virtues of their illustrious Parents,

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Lichfield, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal city of Lichfield, humbly avail ourselves of the happy occasion of your Majesty's most gracious visit to our neighbourhood, to reiterate to your Majesty the expression of our most hearty welcome which we had the honour of tendering in your Majesty's presence on a former visit, and to offer our deep-felt loyalty and allegiance to your Royal Person and authority.

We trust your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept our most earnest wishes for the happiness of yourself and your Royal Consort, and for the long continuance of a reign so cherished by all your loyal subjects, and adorned by so many brilliant virtues.

By the Council,
Thomas George Lomax, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Aldermen, Councillors, and Burgesses of the borough of Tamworth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Magistrates, Aldermen, Councillors, and Burgesses of the ancient borough of Tamworth, once the favoured seat of Royalty, beg your Majesty's gracious permission to offer the sincere expression of devoted loyalty and attachment which we at all times feel towards your Majesty, and of the sentiments of delight excited in our hearts by your Majesty's august presence amongst us.

May the Supreme Disposer of all events be pleased to shed upon your Majesty and Royal Consort a continuance and increase of every blessing. May He protect your Majesty from all harm, and long preserve your Majesty in health for the welfare and happiness of these realms.

Thomas Bramall, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Rural Dean and Parochial Clergy of Tamworth, and the neighbourhood.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most devoted subjects, the Rural Dean and Parochial Clergy of Tamworth, and the neighbourhood, partaking of the joy which pervades all hearts on the auspicious event of your Majesty's arrival among us, avail ourselves of the opportunity it affords of expressing our sentiments of unfeigned loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person.

We regard, with feelings of thankfulness to Almighty God, and of reverence for your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors, the favour and protection they have ever extended to that branch of the Holy Catholic Church established in these realms. The same fostering care we gratefully acknowledge on the part of your Majesty, and doubt not we shall have to acknowledge to the end of your days, from the earnest which your Majesty affords in the practice and encouragement of public and private worship amidst the pressure of temporal duties. And, being persuaded that the hallowed institutions of the United Church of England and Ireland are calculated to prove a chief bulwark of your Majesty's Throne, we trust that there never will be wanting wisdom, zeal, and faithfulness on the part of the Clergy; we trust that they will at all times be found steadily promoting and advancing among your Majesty's subjects the true faith and fear of God, together with a loyal regard for your Majesty's authority and Person, and strict obedience to the laws.

That your Majesty may live long and happily; that your Majesty's people may be preserved in wealth, peace, and godliness; that your Majesty's children and children's children may occupy the Throne of this kingdom to the end of time; that your Majesty's memory may be blessed to all generations; and that your Majesty's end may be everlasting joy and felicity, is the humble and fervent prayer of your Majesty's faithful and devoted servants, the Rural Dean and Parochial Clergy of Tamworth, and the neighbourhood.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapelry district, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134, to Trinity Chapel, at Holme, in the parish of Burton in Kendal, in the county of Westmorland :

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d of August 1843, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division."

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop.

of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Burton in Kendal, in the county of Westmorland and diocese of Chester, contained a population of two thousand and seven persons:

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to five hundred persons, there are two consecrated chapels in the said parish, one of which, called Trinity Chapel, Holme, affords accommodation to four hundred and ninety-three persons, including four hundred and twenty-five free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed in the said chapel:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called Trinity Chapel, Holme, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Holme," with boundaries as follow:

"The district is to consist of the township of Holme, and is bounded on the east by the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale; on the north, on the west, and partly on the south, by the parish of Beetham; and on the remaining part by the boundary line which divides the township of Holme from the township and parish of Burton, as shewn on the map, and thereon coloured green:

"That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be divided in equal portions between the Vicar of the parish church and the Minister of the said chapel:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization and performance of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

November 29, 1843.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapel by district, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134, to Saint James's Chapel, in Shirley-street, in the parish of Solihull, in the county of Warwick :

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d of August 1843, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:—

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches;” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Solihull, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, contained a population of three thousand four hundred and one persons:

“That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to eight hundred persons, there is only one consecrated church or chapel in the said parish, called Saint James, Shirley-street, which affords accommodation to five hundred and six persons, including three hundred and six free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed therein:

“Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel in Shirley-street, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that such district should be named, “The Chapelry District of Saint James, Shirley,” with boundaries as follow, namely:

“To commence at a place, marked A on the map, on the north side of Solihull parish, where a lane, leading from Hall-green to Solihull, enters the parish of Solihull from the parish of Bickenhill; and then proceeds along the middle of the lane, leading thence by Shurmans-cross to Whey Partridge-lane, in a south easterly direction; and, from the corner of that lane, it turns to the south west along a lane leading to a farm, called in the map brick house, and occupied by John Barrett; and, from the end of that lane (including the said farm house, in the district of Saint James, Shirley), it proceeds in a southerly direction until it meets the boundary line of Tanworth parish; there it turns west and follows the boundary between Tanworth and Solihull parishes for nearly three miles, in a westerly and southerly direction, to a lane leading from Low Brook-bridge to Tanworth; then north west along the middle of the said lane, and across the parish of Solihull, to Low Brook-bridge, where the parish of King’s Norton joins that of Solihull; from that point it turns towards the north, and follows the division between Solihull and the parishes of Kings Norton, Yardley, and Bickenhill, till it reaches the place first mentioned (marked A) in the lane leading from Hall-green to Solihull, as is more particularly delineated on the map, and thereon tinted pink:

“That baptisms, marriages, churchings, and burial should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

“That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Worcester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, marriages, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

ROBERT LEDINGHAM, Advocate, Aberdeen, Witness.
GEORGE SMITH, Gardener, Craig, Witness.

TO be peremptorily sold, in one lot, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Paul versus Yeatman, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the George Inn, Frome Selwood, in the county of Somerset, on Thursday the 14th day of December 1843, at six o'clock in the evening;

A capital messuage or dwelling-house, garden, pleasure ground, and offices, and about three acres of land, with the appurtenances, situate at Frome Selwood aforesaid, and commonly known by the name of Garston's, formerly the residence of Mr. John Charleton Yeatman, Surgeon, deceased, subject to a mortgage for securing £700 and upwards, and a piece of land, formerly a small close of land, called the Paddock, containing one acre or thereabouts, and now forming part of Garston's aforesaid.

Particulars whereof may in a short time be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Alfred Whitaker, Solicitor, Frome; of Mr. Charles Harding, Auctioneer, Woodcock-farm, near Frome; of Mr. Edward Thomas Whitaker, Solicitor, No. 12, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; of Mr. John Elliott Fox, Solicitor, No. 40, Finsbury-circus, London; and at the inn.

TO be peremptorily sold, in one lot, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Paul versus Yeatman, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the York Hotel, Demy-square, Hotwells, in the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, on Monday the 11th day of December 1843, at six o'clock in the evening;

An equal half part of two messuages or dwelling-houses, with the appurtenances, situate at Charleton's-place, Hotwells, Clifton, now occupied at the yearly rents of £20 and £25; and an equal half part of a freehold ground rent of £5 15s. 6d. issuing out of a certain other messuage or dwelling-house, situate at Clifton aforesaid, subject to one mortgage upon the entirety of the said two houses, ground rent, and premises, for securing £300 and interest, and to another mortgage on the before-mentioned moiety of the same houses, ground rent, and premises, for securing £200 and interest.

Particulars whereof may in a short time be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Alfred Whitaker, Solicitor, Frome; of Messrs. Fergus and Son, Auctioneers, Bristol; of Mr. Edward Thomas Whitaker, Solicitor, No. 12, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; of Mr. John Elliott Fox, Solicitor, No. 40, Finsbury-circus, London; and at the place of sale.

TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of His Majesty's Attorney-General, at the relation of William Jefferys, informant, and the Mayor and Citizens of the city of Rochester and others, defendants, it was referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, Knight, one of the Masters of the said Court, to cause advertisements to be issued, and to receive tenders and proposals for granting building leases of all or any part of the charity estates in the said Order mentioned; and whereas by another Order of the said Court, dated the 27th day of March 1840, the present trustees of the said charity estates were to be at liberty to prosecute the before-mentioned Order, instead of the said Mayor and Citizens of the city of Rochester; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that the trustees of the municipal charities of the borough of Rochester (the trustees of the said charity estates) will, from and after the 15th day of December next, be ready to receive tenders and proposals, to be laid before the said Master, for one or more lease or leases to be taken of a part of Richard Watt's charity estates, consisting of a plot or plots of land or ground, situate in Ordnance-place, in the parish of Chatham, in the county of Kent, for the purpose of building thereon, agreeably to the plans and specifications to be delivered with tenders.

The tenders to be of a certain annual ground rent, by the foot, according to the frontage towards the principal street or intended street on which the same shall abut, and to be subject to the approbation of the said Master.

The leases to be for a term not exceeding 99 years, and to contain covenants on the part of the lessees to make and maintain the footpaths and roads or half roads abutting on the respective plots of land or ground to be demised, to build cesspools and drains for the effectual drainage of the dwellings and buildings to be erected thereon, and for payment of rent, land tax, and all other taxes, rates, and impositions, and such other covenants and conditions as are usually inserted in building leases; also a covenant to repay the lessors such sum or sums as they may expend for insuring the buildings and keeping them insured, and the usual covenants not to assign the lease or part with the possession thereof, or of the premises demised, or any part thereof, without the licence of the lessors.

Particulars and conditions may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Wickham, Solicitor, Strood, to whom all tenders and proposals are to be addressed and delivered or sent; of Messrs. Parkes and Preston, Solicitors, No. 21, Great George-street, Westminster; Mr. Prall, Solicitor, Rochester; Messrs. Essell, Hayward, and Essell, Solicitors, Rochester; and Mr. Acworth, Solicitor, Chatham.
