Witness my hand this 26th day of January 1844,
Wm. F. Batt, Superintendent Registrar.

*Chamber of London, Guildhall,
January 25, 1844.*

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge;" and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £28, the remaining part of an annuity or annual sum of £40, granted in respect of the sum of £1000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 26th October 1832, and numbered 13—30; and also the sum of £800, the annuity granted in respect of the sum of £20,000, secured by twenty bonds or obligations of £1000 each, numbered 13—31 to 13—50, both inclusive, bearing date the said 26th October 1832; and also the sum of £88, part of the annuity or annual sum of £200, granted in respect of the sum of £5000, secured by one bond or obligation, numbered 14—1, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 20th of December 1832; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sums of £700, £20,000, and £2200, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £28, £800, and £88, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sums of £28, £800, and £88, will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons, at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said Office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said Office the said sums of £700, £20,000, and £2200, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £28, £800, and £88, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £28, £800, and £88 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

William Heygate, Chamberlain.

*Chamber of London, Guildhall,
January 25, 1844.*

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for making a new street from Holborn-bridge, in the city of London, towards Clerkenwell-green;" and in obedience to an order of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to pay off and discharge the sum of £3200, being a further part of a bond, numbered 2, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 27th June 1839; part of the moneys borrowed under the authority of the aforesaid Act; and I do hereby give notice, that (in pursuance of the provisions of the said Acts), at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £3200, together with a proportionate part of the interest up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my office of Chamberlain of the said city, when the interest on the same will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons, at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of ten days next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at my said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office, the said sum of £3200, together with a proportionate part of the interest on the said sum, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same, when the said interest will cease and determine.

William Heygate, Chamberlain.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Burgoyne, of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt, bearing date the 12th day of February 1842, are requested to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 24th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Royal Hotel, in Plymouth aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending a suit in equity brought by John Bayly and Charles Fox against Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches and the said assignees, for payment by the said Commissioners to the said John Bayly and Charles Fox of a sum of four hundred and fifty pounds out of the funds at their disposal, under the Act of Parliament by which they the said Commissioners were appointed, and which sum is claimed by the said assignees as due to them on account of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees indemnifying the said Commissioners against the costs of the said suit in case they proceed to defend it; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, or arranging the said suit, and all disputes, differences, and controversies with the said John Bayly and Charles Fox, or the said Commissioners, any or either of them, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings against the said John Bayly, Charles Fox, the Reverend John St. Aubyn, Richard Stoyly, Thomas Windeatt the younger, or any or either of them, or any other person or persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of divers sums of money alleged to be due from them, respectively, to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, or adjusting with the said several lastly-named persons, on such terms as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against David Whatley, of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Wednesday the 28th day of February 1844, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Joseph Randolph Mullings, situate in Park-street, Cirencester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting an offer, which has been made to them, of the sum of £25, for the purchase of the interest of the bankrupt in a contingent reversionary interest of the bankrupt's wife, dependant upon the death of a person to be then named, now aged forty-three years, without issue, attaining the age of twenty-one years, of and in one third part of one third part or share of the residuary personal estate of Richard Boghurst, deceased, bequeathed by his will for the benefit of such person for her life and her issue; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees accepting an offer which has been made to them, of the sum of £25, as a consideration for releasing another person, to be then named, from a claim to a sum of £939 2s. 9d. Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, to which the bankrupt's wife was or would become entitled under the said will, upon the death of the said other person; or to the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity against such person, for enforcing an account and a proper investment of the said last-mentioned sum; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending two several suits in equity, instituted against them by Mrs. Henrietta Whatley, widow, and Mr. Thomas Bradstock, respectively, touching or concerning the interest of the said bankrupt under the will of his late father, David Whatley, deceased, or either of such suits; or to the said assignees disclaiming any interest in the matters of such suits, respectively, or either of them, or submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising and settling such suits, or either of them, upon such terms as may be agreed upon or authorized at such meeting, or as the assignees may,

In their discretion, think best and most advantageous to the bankrupt's estate; and with reference to the above-mentioned suits, and to facilitate a settlement of the affairs and estate of the said bankrupt, to assent to or dissent from the assignees putting up for sale and disposing of the real and leasehold estate of the bankrupt, in mortgage to the County of Gloucester Banking Company, or to the said assignees releasing the equity of redemption in such estate to such banking company, or as such company may direct, in consideration of the money due to them for principal, interest, and costs on security thereof; or of any and what portion of such money less than the whole amount, and, if for less than the whole amount, to the said banking company proving against the bankrupt's estate for the deficiency in their debt not satisfied by such release and arrangement; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Harman, of the Meadow Bank Brewery, Whitefriars, in the city of London, and of the Meadow Bank Brewery, in or near the city of Edinburgh, in Scotland, and of Chester-square, in the county of Middlesex, Common Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Saturday the 24th day of February next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain claims made against the estate of the bankrupt, particularly with regard to those made by James Walker, of Great George-street, Westminster, Esq. and Robert William Aitken, of the Meadow Bank Brewery aforesaid, Esq.; and, if necessary, to submit to arbitration all matters in difference between the said bankrupt and the said James Walker and Robert William Aitken, or any other person or persons that may be indebted to or have any claim against the estate of the said bankrupt; and, if necessary, to commence and prosecute a suit or suits in equity against them, or either of them; and on other special matters.

In Re John Millington and Thomas Salter, of Manchester, and Low Mills, near Chorley, both in the county of Lancaster, Calico Printers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy issued, the 7th day of October 1843.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the above Fiat may, upon application at my office, receive, on Tuesday the 30th instant, and on any subsequent Tuesday, between the hours of three and four o'clock, a First Dividend of 2s. 0½d. in the pound. No Dividend can be paid to a creditor holding a security for his debt until such security shall be produced to me, without the special directions of a Commissioner on that behalf.—January 27, 1844.

J. HOLT STANWAY, Official Assignee,
No. 12. Norfolk-street, Manchester.

In the Matter of Thomas Joyce, of Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, Woollen Draper, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy was issued, bearing date the 3d day of February 1842.
