

assigned all his estate and effects to Thomas Owen, of Trefaes, in the said county of Merioneth, Farmer, upon trust, for the benefit of all the creditors of the said Salmon Jones; and that the said indenture was executed by the said Salmon Jones on the 19th day of January instant, and by the said Thomas Owen on the 20th day of January aforesaid; and which execution by the said Salmon Jones was witnessed by Owen Jones and Thomas Payne, both of Dolgelley, in the county of Merioneth, Clerks to Mr. John Jones, Solicitor, and by the said Thomas Owen by the said Owen Jones and John Owen; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture lies for execution by the several creditors of the said Salmon Jones, at my office, at Froehulog, in the town of Dolgelley, in the said county of Merioneth; and notice is hereby also given, that all persons indebted to the estate of the said Salmon Jones are required forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said trustee, or to me the undersigned.

JOHN JONES, Solicitor to the Trustee.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 30th day of December 1843, made between Joseph Kendall, of Ventnor, in the isle of Wight, in the county of Southampton, Painter, Plumber, and Glazier, of the first part; Thomas Paxton, of Sidmonton, in the county of Berks, Land Agent, and James Walker, of Portsea, in the said county of Southampton, Plumber, creditors of the said Joseph Kendall, of the second part; and the several other parties, parties thereto, creditors of the said Joseph Kendall, executing the said indenture within two calendar months from the date thereof, of the third part; the said Joseph Kendall did assign all and every his estate and effects unto the said Thomas Paxton and James Walker, their executors, administrators, and assigns, upon certain trusts therein declared, for the equal benefit of the creditors of the said Joseph Kendall, executing the said indenture within the time aforesaid; and the said indenture was executed by the said Joseph Kendall on the day of the date thereof, and by the said Thomas Paxton on the 1st day of January 1844, in the presence of, and attested by, Aurelius Henry Wilmot Drewe, Solicitor, Ventnor; and was executed by the said James Walker on the 13th day of January instant, in the presence of, and attested by, Thomas S. Edcombe, Solicitor, Portsea; and the said indenture now lies at the offices of the said Aurelius Henry Wilmot Drewe for execution by the creditors of the said Joseph Kendall.—Dated this 25th day of January 1844.

Royal Hotel, Clevedon.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Harril, at the Commercial Sale-rooms, Small-street, Bristol, on Thursday the 15th day of February next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, by order of Richard Stevenson, Esq. one of the Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy for the Bristol District, acting in the prosecution of a Fiat against Mr. Thomas Stokes, subject to such conditions of sale as will then be produced;

All that elegant, spacious, and well-acquainted hotel, formerly called the Clevedon, but now better known as the Royal Hotel, in the possession of Mrs. Offer, as a yearly tenant, situated in the most beautiful part of the much-admired village of Clevedon, in the county of Somerset, commanding a splendid view of the Bristol-channel, together with excellent stabling and coach-houses, capital brewery, convenient out-buildings, and ornamental lawn and garden thereto belonging, containing altogether 1A. 2R. 18P. more or less.

The hotel has, for many years past, commanded a very extensive and lucrative business, and is frequented by families of the highest distinction.

Clevedon is a highly attractive, fashionable, and salubrious watering-place, abounding with the most romantic scenery, distant from Bristol only twelve miles, and within three or four miles of one of the stations of the Bristol and Exeter Railway.

A considerable portion of the ground attached to the premises may at any time be let with advantage as building land.

The property may be inspected with permission of the tenant; and for further particular application is to be made to Edward Mant Miller, Esq. Official Assignee, Saint Augustine's-place, Bristol; Mr. John Baker, Solicitor, Aldwick-court, near Wrington; or to Mr. Francis Short, Solicitor, No. 37, Corn-street, Bristol.

No. 20309.

B

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Burgoyne, of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt, bearing date the 12th day of February 1842, are requested to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 24th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Royal Hotel, in Plymouth aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending a suit in equity brought by John Bayly and Charles Fox against Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches and the said assignees, for payment by the said Commissioners to the said John Bayly and Charles Fox of a sum of four hundred and fifty pounds out of the funds at their disposal, under the Act of Parliament by which they the said Commissioners were appointed, and which sum is claimed by the said assignees as due to them on account of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees indemnifying the said Commissioners against the costs of the said suit in case they proceed to defend it; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, or arranging the said suit, and all disputes, differences, and controversies with the said John Bayly and Charles Fox, or the said Commissioners, any or either of them, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or suit, or suits in equity, or other proceedings against the said John Bayly, Charles Fox, the Reverend John St. Aubyn, Richard Stoyly, Thomas Windeatt the younger, or any or either of them, or any other person or persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of divers sums of money alleged to be due from them, respectively, to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, or adjusting with the said several lastly-named persons, on such terms as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against David Whatley, of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Wednesday the 28th day of February 1844, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Joseph Randolph Mullings, situate in Park-street, Cirencester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting an offer, which has been made to them, of the sum of £25, for the purchase of the interest of the bankrupt in a contingent reversionary interest of the bankrupt's wife, dependant upon the death of a person to be then named, now aged forty-three years, without issue, attaining the age of twenty-one years, of and in one third part of one third part or share of the residuary personal estate of Richard Boghurst, deceased, bequeathed by his will for the benefit of such person for her life and her issue; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees accepting an offer which has been made to them, of the sum of £25, as a consideration for releasing another person, to be then named, from a claim to a sum of £999 2s. 9d. Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, to which the bankrupt's wife was or would become entitled under the said will, upon the death of the said other person; or to the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity against such person, for enforcing an account and a proper investment of the said last-mentioned sum; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending two several suits in equity, instituted against them by Mrs. Henrietta Whatley, widow, and Mr. Thomas Bradstock, respectively, touching or concerning the interest of the said bankrupt under the will of his late father, David Whatley, deceased, or either of such suits; or to the said assignees disclaiming any interest in the matters of such suits, respectively, or either of them, or submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising and settling such suits, or either of them, upon such terms as may be agreed upon or authorized at such meeting, or as the assignees may,