

from the day of the date of his appointment to the first day of January last, shall be forthwith paid to the said Archdeacon of Llandaff; and that on the first day of January next a proportionate part of the said sum of one hundred and sixty pounds shall be paid to the Archdeacon of Monmouth, from the day of his appointment to the said last-mentioned day; and that whenever a vacancy in either of the said archdeaconries shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the next yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that all lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, at any time heretofore annexed to and now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Llandaff, shall forthwith be disannexed from the said archdeaconry, and shall become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us, for the purposes of the said Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several Registrars of the dioceses of St. David's, Hereford, and Llandaff.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 31st day of January 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for founding a new archdeaconry, to be called the Archdeaconry of Montgomery, in the diocese of Saint Asaph, and for providing a temporary endowment for the said archdeaconry, and also for the archdeaconry of Saint Asaph.

“ Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, any archdeaconry or rural deanry may, on account of the magnitude thereof, or of any other peculiar circumstance connected therewith, be divided; and also that any archdeaconry may be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, provided that such augmentation shall not raise the average annual income of any archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; and provided that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any en-
