

styled and called the Archdeaconry of Montgomery, and that the said archdeaconry shall be taken out of the said archdeaconry of Saint Asaph, and shall consist of the deanries of Penllyn and Edeirnon, Pool and Caereinion, Caedewen, and Ceifeiliog and Mowddy, now in the said diocese and archdeaconry of Saint Asaph; and that the said deanries, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be subject to the archidiaconal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Archdeacon of Montgomery for the time being, and to none other.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said William Bishop of Saint Asaph may and shall forthwith collate some fit and proper person to each of the respective dignities or offices of Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Saint Asaph and Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Montgomery; and that the right of collating to the said archdeaconries of Saint Asaph and Montgomery shall be vested in the Bishop of Saint Asaph and his successors, Bishops of Saint Asaph, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, until an arrangement shall be recommended and proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the secondly-recited Act, for permanently annexing canonries residentiary in the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, to the said archdeaconries of Saint Asaph and Montgomery, respectively, and for duly endowing such canonries, the said archdeaconries of Saint Asaph and Montgomery shall be endowed by augmentation out of the common fund in the secondly-recited Act mentioned; and that accordingly there shall be paid by us to the Archdeacons of Saint Asaph and Montgomery for the time being, respectively, so long as they shall, respectively, duly reside within the said diocese, according to the provisions of the said secondly-recited Act, the annual sum of two hundred pounds, out of the moneys, from time to time, carried over to such common fund, on the first day of January in every year, on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being, that such archdeacon has duly resided during the preceding year; and that a proportionate part of the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of January next following the first appointment of an Archdeacon of Saint Asaph, or of an Archdeacon of Montgomery, as the case may be, after the date of this scheme; and that whenever a vacancy, in either or both of the said archdeaconries, shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the then next yearly payment shall be apportioned and paid between the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to such archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further measure relating to the matters aforesaid; or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. Asaph.
