TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1844.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th day of April 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders made, with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, to ordain for the government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, any law or ordinance which to Her Majesty in Council may seem meet, as fully and effectually as any such law or ordinance could be made by Her Majesty in Council for the government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the island of Hong Kong:

And whereas by a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden as aforesaid, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if

Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Emperor of China; now, therefore, in pursuance of the above recited Acts, or either of them, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls and Vice-Consuls resident within the said dominions, or such other persons, as by warrant under the hand and seal of the Chief Superintendent of the trade of Her Majesty's subjects in China for the time being, shall be appointed to act provisionally as Consuls or Vice-Consuls, shall severally, in the districts within which they may respectively be appointed to reside, have and hold all necessary power and authority to exercise jurisdiction over British subjects within such districts as aforesaid, for the repression and punishment of crimes and offences by them committed within the dominions of the Emperor of China, and for the arrangement and settlement of all and all manner of differences, contentions, suits, and variances that may or shall happen to arise between them, or any of them; and shall moreover have power and authority, as far as in them lies, to compose and settle all and all manner of differences, contentions, suits, and variances that may or shall happen to arise between British subjects and the subjects of the Emperor of China, and between British subjects and the subjects of any foreign power, and which may be brought before them for settlement:

And whereas, by the above first recited Act, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any commission or commissions under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, or by any instructions under Her Majesty's signet and sign manual accompanying and referred to in any such commission or commissions, to authorize the Superintendent of the trade of Her Majesty's subjects in China (so long as such Superintendent shall be also Governor of the island of Hong Kong) to enact, with the advice of the Legislative Council of the said island of Hong Kong, all such laws and ordinances as may from time to time be required for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, and to enforce the execution of such laws and ordinances by such penalties and forfeitures as to him, by the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit; and whereas Her Majesty has been pleased to grant such commission as aforesaid to John Francis Davis, Esq. appointed by Her Majesty Superintendent of the trade of Her subjects in China, or the Superintendent for the time being of such trade:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls and Vice-Consuls in China, or any persons acting provisionally as such Consuls or Vice-Consuls as aforesaid, shall, in the exercise of the jurisdiction granted unto them by this present Order, be governed by such laws and ordinances in that behalf as may be enacted in the manner and form aforesaid by the Superintendent of the trade of Her Majesty's subjects in China for the time being, being the Governor of Hong Kong; and in further exercise of the powers in Her Majesty vested by the above-recited Act, for "removing doubts as to the exercise of power" and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers "places out of Her dominions, and for rendering "the same more effectual," Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to appoint the colony of Hong Kong as the British colony wherein crimes and offences committed by British subjects within the dominions of the Emperor of China, which it may be expedient should be, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be so inquired of, tried, determined, and punished, and that Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice-Consuls, or other persons provisionally acting as such, under warrant from the Chief Superintendent of British trade in China as aforesaid, shall have authority to cause any British subject, charged with the commission of any crime or offence the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to them, or any of them, to be sent for trial to the said colony of Hong Kong; and it is further ordered, that the Chief Justice of the colony of Hong Kong for the time being, or other person provisionally acting as such, shall, when duly required by the said Superintendent, proceed to the dominions of the Emperor of China, and shall have power and authority, within the said dominions, to inquire of, try, determine, and punish any crimes or offences committed by British subjects within the said dominions:

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, and the Right Honourable Lord

Stanley, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

The following Addresses of congratulation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, on the occasion of the Birth of the Princess Alice, having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness, were presented accordingly, which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT of Saxe Coburg Gotha, Duke of Saxony, &c. &c. &c.

The respectful Address of the Governor and Commander in Chief, and the Members of the Legislative Council of Her Majesty's Province of South Australia.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Governor and Commander in Chief, and the Members of the Legislative Council of Her Majesty's province of South Australia, in Council assembled, beg to be permitted to offer to your Royal Highness our respectful congratulations on the happy occasion of the Birth of another Princess.

We earnestly trust, that every blessing and happiness may continue to attend Her Majesty, your Royal Highness, and the Royal Infant.

Council Chamber, Adelaide, October 23, 1843.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To Field Marshal His Royal Highness ALBERT, Prince of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha, &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Legislative Council of New South Wales, in Council assembled, having received the gratifying intelligence of the Birth of another Princess, desire to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere and most respectful congratulations on that auspicious event. We fervently pray, that the Royal Infant may prosper, and that Her Most Gracious Majesty and your Royal Highness may be long preserved to the nation.

Alex. M'Leay, Speaker.

Exchequer Bill-Office, No. 2, Whitehall-Yard, May 20, 1844.

THE Exchequer Bills, dated in the months of April and June 1843, viz.

Per 6 Victoria, cap. 1, £262,000, 1843;

6 Victoria, cap. 17, £9,050,000, 1843;

Also the Exchequer Bills, dated April, May, and June 1843;

Per 3 Victoria, cap. 10, for carrying on public works &c.;

with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 18th day of June 1844, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily, from half past ten o'clock till two, until and including the 7th day of June, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 18th day of June, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of one penny half-penny by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 18th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal of the Exchequer Bills issued under the above-mentioned Acts of 6th Victoria, cap. 1, and 6th Victoria, cap. 17, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 7th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 19th day of June.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

The bills issued for carrying on public works and fisheries will be paid off in money.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills charged on Supplies, dated prior to April 1843, have been advertised to be paid off.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Gellymaenwydd Chapel, situate at Cross-inn, in the parish of Llandebie, in the county of Carmarthen, in the district of Llandilofawr union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 8th day of May 1844, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 10th day of May 1844,

J. Prothero Lewis, Superintendent Registrar.

Christ's Hospital, May 18, 1844.

WHEREAS John West, late of London, scrivener, and Frances his wife, both deceased, did, in their several lifetimes, settle on the Governors of Christ's Hospital, divers estates in and about the city of London, and elsewhere, and the said Frances West did also, by her will, give a sum of money to the said Governors to be laid out in the purchase of lands, &c. the profits of the whole of the said estates to be applied for the payment of annuities or pensions, of £5 each, to poor men and poor women, of the age of 50 years and upwards, during their natural lives; and directed that their relations by consanguinity should have the preference; the said Governors do, therefore, hereby give notice, that if any person or persons, qualified as aforesaid, shall stand in need or desire the benefit of the said charity, they may, within forty days from the date hereof, apply to the said Governors, at their counting-house in the said Hospital, and make out their relationship to the donors, or either of them, otherwise they will be excluded the said Charity.

A Committee will sit in the counting-house of the said Hospital, on Tuesday the 2d day of July next, at eleven in the forenoon, to elect pensioners, in the room of such as are deceased.

Geo. Trollope, Clerk.

WHEREAS Her present Majesty Queen Victoria did, by Her royal letters patent, bearing date at Edinburgh the 22d day of March 1839, grant unto John Robinson, therein described, exclusive right to his invention of a nipping lever for causing the rotation of wheels, shafts, or cylinders, under certain circumstances; and whereas the said John Robinson hath assigned the said letters patent, and the exclusive right thereby granted, unto Robert Pow, of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, chain maker; and the said Robert Pow, as assignee of the said letters patent, hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition Her said Majesty in Council to confirm the said letters patent; and that he intends to apply, on the 4th day of July next, to the Judicial Committee of Her said Majesty's Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition; and that all persons, intending to make any opposition to the said petition, are hereby required to give notice of the same to us, the undersigned, Solicitors to the said Robert Pow, and to lodge notice to that effect, at the said Council-office, on or before the said 4th day of July next.

Holme, Loftus, and Young, 10, New-inn.

Eastern Union Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the promoters of the Bill now pending before Parliament, intituled "A Bill for making a railway from Colchester to Ipswich," propose to make a certain deviation or deviations, in the manner hereinafter mentioned or referred to, in the line and direction of certain parts of the said intended railway, situate in the parish of Brantham, in the county of Suffolk, from the line and direction of such railway as delineated and shewn on the plans and sections deposited with the respective Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Essex and Suffolk respectively, on or before the 30th day of November last, and with the parish clerk of the parish of Brantham aforesaid, on or before the 31st day of December last.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the proposed deviation or deviations and works, together with books of reference thereto, were deposited, for public inspection, on or about the 11th day of May instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, at his office in Bury St. Edmunds, in the same county, and also with the parish clerk of the parish of Brantham aforesaid, at his place of abode.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is being made to Parliament in the present session, for power to incorporate in the Bill now before Parliament relating to the docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, provisions for enabling the Dock Company to make and maintain a branch dock on the western side of the Humber Dock, at the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and to the north of the railway terminus at the said town, with a communication therefrom into the said Humber Dock, all in the parish of Holy Trinity, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and to levy rates or dues for or in respect of such dock.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan shewing the situation of the said branch dock and other works, and a book of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the property required for making the same, have been respectively deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office, at Beverley, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office, at Kingston-upon-Hull, and with the parish clerk of the said parish of Holy Trinity.—Dated this 1st day of May 1844.

WHEREAS a Bill has been introduced into Parliament, for making a branch railway from the London and South Western Railway, at or near the Bishopstoke Station, on the said railway, to, or near to, the city of Salisbury, the plans and sections for which have been deposited, and the notices for which have been given, as required by the Standing Orders of the two Houses of Parliament.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is desired, by the parties promoting the said Bill, to make an alteration in the said branch railway, consisting of a deviation of the line of the said proposed branch railway, commencing in or near a field reputed to belong to Mr. Thomas Edney, numbered on the said deposited plans 14, and situate in the parish of East Dean, in the county of Southampton, and passing from, through, or into the said parish of East Dean, and part of the parish of West Dean, in the said county of Southampton, other part of the said parish of West Dean, and the chapelry of East Grimstead, in the county of Wilts, and terminating in the said last-mentioned parish and chapelry, at and exclusively of the line of the old canal, in the said last-mentioned parish and chapelry, numbered 27 on the said deposited plans, at or near the point where the said line of canal abuts on that part of Grimstead-fields which is on the said deposited plans numbered 6.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of the said proposed alteration, containing the same particulars as the original plan and section, with a book of reference thereto, were, on the 27th day of April instant, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Southampton, at his office, at Winchester, in the same county; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Wilts, at his office, at Wilton.

in the said last-mentioned county; and a copy of such last-mentioned plan and section, so far as relates to each parish in or through which the said proposed alteration is intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, were also deposited, on the 27th day of April instant, with the Parish Clerk of each such parish, at his respective place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers are intended to be taken in and by the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said proposed alteration to such extent as is defined on the said plans of such alteration; and to alter and divert such highways, roads, canals, navigations, rivers, and watercourses within the several parishes and places aforesaid, as it may be necessary to alter or divert for the purpose of executing the said branch railway and works, according to such proposed alteration; and also powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for the purposes last aforesaid; and for varying or extinguishing all rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands and houses; and for the levying of tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said proposed branch railway and works as now intended to be altered as aforesaid.—Dated the 27th day of April 1844.

Francis T. Bircham, 15, Bedford-row,
London, Solicitor for the said Bill.
