FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1844.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the spiritual duties of the parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop; and it is by the same Act further enacted, that arrangements may be made, by the like authority, for the apportionment of the income of two benefices, belonging to the same patron, between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, or the churches or chapels connected therewith; provided, that no such arrangement shall be made, in any case, so as to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, nor without the consent of the bishop of the diocese:

"And whereas the perpetual curacy of Maidstone, in the said county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, is a populous parish within the meaning of the said Act, and the patronage thereof is vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being; and there is within, and connected with, such parish a certain church or chapel, called "The Holy Trinity, Maidstone," with a chapelry district duly assigned thereto, and the patronage of the said church or chapel is at present vested in the perpetual curate for the time being of Maidstone aforesaid, and the net average annual income of the minister of such last-mentioned church or chapel does not exceed the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, and the population of the said district amounts to nine thousand three hundred at the least:

"And whereas the Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, is also patron of the rectory of Cliffe, at Hoo, in the same county, and in the deanery of Shoreham, the peculiar and immediate jurisdiction of the cathedral and metropolitanical Church of Christ, Canterbury; and the net average annual income of the rector thereof exceeds one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, and the population of the parish of Cliffe, at Hoo, is below nine hundred:

"And whereas it has been agreed by the Reverend William Vallance, the present incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Maidstone, to transfer the patronage and right of nomination of the minister of the said church or chapel of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, to the Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being; with a view to the permanent augmentation of the income of the minister thereof, in manner hereinafter-mentioned; and application has been made to us, to make arrangements for such transfer, and for apportioning the incomes of the said rectory and of the said chapel, between the rector of the said rectory and the minister of such chapel, in manner following; and it appears to us to be expedient that such transfer and apportionment should be forthwith carried into effect :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said Reverend William Vallance, in testimony whereof they have respectively herunto set their hands and seals, that the patronage of and right of nomination of the minister to the said church or chapel of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, shall forthwith be transferred to and absolutely vested in the said William Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors Archbishops of Canterbury, for ever.

" And whereas an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," contains the following recital and enactments, that is to say:

" And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the more permanent security of the endowments and emoluments which shall have been, or may hereafter be, provided for the use or benefit of any church or chapel, whether built, acquired, or appropriated, or to be built, acquired, or appropriated, under the authority of the said recited Acts, or any of them, or under any other authority, or for the use or benefit of the incumbent of any such church or chapel, or of the spiritual person serving the same, be it, therefore, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne to accept, take, and hold any such endowments and emoluments upon the trusts, and for the intents and purposes for which the same shall have been, or may hereafter be, given or granted by the person or persons providing the same, in like manner as any such endowments or emoluments may now be taken or held by any private trustees or trustee, and it shall and may be lawful for any trustees or trustee of any such endowments or emoluments to assign and transfer the same to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, to be held and applied by them upon the same trusts, and for the same intents and purposes, as the same, previously to such assignment and transfer, were held by such trustees or trustee; provided always, that no such gift, grant, assignment, or transfer shall be made to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne until, by an instrument in writing under their common seal, they shall have signified their consent to accept the same :

" And be it further enacted, that, in all cases in which such consent of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne shall have been so given, the money provided for such endowments shall be paid to the Treasurer, for the time being, of the said Governors; and the receipt or receipts of such Treasurer shall be effectual discharges or an effectual discharge for so much money as in such receipts or receipt shall be expressed to the person or persons paying the same; and, after obtaining such receipts or receipt, the person or persons paying such money shall be absolutely discharged from all liability touching such money, and from all trusts relating thereto :

" And whereas the said church or chapel of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, was built under the provisions of one or more of the Acts referred to in the said last-recited enactments :

" And whereas the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne have, by an instrument in writing under their common seal, bearing date the sixteenth day of May instant, signified their consent to accept the annual sum hereinafter recommended to be paid at the times and upon the trust mentioned :

" We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that, from and immediately after the next avoidance of the said rectory of Cliffe at Hoo, there shall be paid by the rector of the said rectory, for the time being, out of the revenues of the said rectory, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, by their Treasurer for the time being, but in trust for the incumbent or minister, for the time being, of the said church or chapel of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, the clear annual sum of one hundred pounds; and the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of January or the first day of July next following the day of such avoidance; and if a vacancy in such church or chapel shall happen on any other day than the first day of January or the first day of July, the then next half-yearly payment shall, by the said Governors or their Treasurer, be apportioned between and paid to the incumbent or minister making such vacancy, or his personal representatives, and the incumbent or minister succeeding to such church or chapel; and the said annual sum of one hundred pounds, and each and every instalment thereof, is and are hereby charged upon the said revenues, and upon all the glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, dues, profits, and emoluments whatsoever, which of right do, shall, or may belong to the said rectory, or to the rector thereof for the time being, as such rector.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said rectory, or to the said perpetual curacy, or to the said chapelry district, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of May 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for uniting the sinecure rectory of Sherborne Saint John, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, with the vicarage of Sherborne Saint John, in the same county and diocese.

" Whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that, with respect to any benefice with cure of souls which is held, together with or in the patronage of the holder of any prebend or other sinecure preferment, belonging to any college in either of the universities or to any private patron, arrangements may be made, by the authority therein provided, and with the consents of the respective patrons, for permanently uniting such preferment with such benefice:

" And whereas there is in the said county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, a vicarage, being a benefice with cure of souls within the meaning of the said recited Act, called or known by the name of the vicarage of Sherborne Saint John, and there is also in the same county and diocese, an ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls, being a sinecure preferment within the meaning of the same Act, called or known by the name of the rectory of Sherborne Saint John:

" And whereas the said vicarage is now held by the Reverend John Harwood, Clerk, together with the said sinecure rectory; and William Lyde Wiggett Chute, of the Vine, in the parish of Sherborne Saint John, in the said county of Southampton, Esquire, Member of Parliament, is owner of the advowson, as well of such vicarage as of such sinecure rectory, but Robert Lawson, of Everley Lodge, in the parish of East Barnet, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, is entitled to the next presentation to the said vicarage and rectory, respectively:

" And whereas application has been made to us, to make arrangements for the union of the said sinecure rectory with the said vicarage, and it appears to us to be expedient that such union should be forthwith effected, and that such other arrangements relating thereto should be made as are hereinafter mentioned:

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said William Lyde Wiggett Chute, and of the said Robert Lawson, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme, that the said rectory and vicarage of Sherborne St. John shall be forthwith permanently united and consolidated, and the same shall become and be one benefice with cure of souls, by the name of the rectory of Sherborne St. John; and that the said John Harwood shall thereupon become and be Rector of such rectory, and he and his successors, Rectors of the same rectory, shall be entitled to all the emoluments, both of the said sinecure rectory and of the said vicarage, and that the said rectory of Sherborne St. John shall, from and after such union as aforesaid, be in the patronage of the said William Lyde Wiggett Chute, his heirs and assigns.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said rectory of Sherborne St. John, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester. *Wm.
