AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory; and whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and the same or certain parts thereof have heretofore been customarily exercised on behalf of Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Ambassadors and other Officers resident within the said dominions; and whereas Her Majesty was pleased, on the second day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Chargés d'Affaires, Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls, resident within the said dominions, and being subjects of Her Majesty, should, until further order, continue to exercise all such power and jurisdiction within the said dominions as have heretofore been customarily exercised by them, or any of them, or by the predecessors of them, or any of them, in the said offices; and that the said Ambassadors and other Officers should likewise, in the exercise of such power and jurisdiction as aforesaid, continue to observe, until further order, all such laws, usages, forms of procedure, and methods of enforcing obedience as have heretofore been customarily observed by them:

And whereas it is expedient at the present time, to make further provision for the due exercise of the jurisdiction possessed by Her Majesty as aforesaid, in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-recited Order of the second day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in so far as it provided for the exercise of jurisdiction over British subjects charged with the commission of crimes and offences, shall be, and it is hereby, revoked and cancelled, save and except as to all acts, matters, and things heretofore done under the said Order, or which may hereafter be
