TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1844.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of July 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the district parish of Croxdale, in the county and diocese of Durham.

"Whereas, by virtue of the said recited Act, we are empowered, out of the lands, tithes, and hereditaments, thereby vested and to be vested in us, or by an actual conveyance thereof, if it shall be deemed more expedient to make additional provision for the cure of souls, in parishes in which such assistance is most required; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes, or any lands, or other hereditaments, allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes so vested, or to be vested, in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration shall be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes arise, or have arisen:

"And whereas, by virtue of the said recited Act, and for the purposes thereof, the tithes hereinafter more particularly set forth and described, or the rent charge payable in lieu thereof, under the Acts of Parliament for the commutation of tithes, have become and now are vested in or payable to us:

" And whereas the township of Hétt, lately in the parish of Merrington, in the county and diocese of Durham aforesaid, has been detached therefrom, and added to the adjoining chapelry of Croxdale, and therewith now forms a separate consolidated district parish, under the name of the Parish or Parochial Chapelry of Croxdale, having been so constituted by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three :

" And whereas, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the parish aforesaid, we have deemed it expedient to make additional provision for the cure of souls therein, by conveying and assigning to the incumbent of the parish or parochial chapelry aforesaid the tithes or rent charge hereinafter described, and the Dean and Chapter of Durham have agreed, in pursuance of the powers possessed by them in that behalf, and (with our consent, as required by the said first recited Act) by a proper legal instrument already prepared, and intended to bear date the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council for ratifying this scheme shall be gazetted, to grant the perpetual annual rent, hereinafter mentioned to be payable to them, out of such tithes or rent charge, to the incumbent of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Croxdale, out of the tithes of which, or rent charge in lieu thereof, such perpetual annual rents are now respectively payable :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that all the tithes of corn and grain growing, renewing, and arising out of and from all the titheable lands and places within the said township of Hétt, now vested in us, or the rent charge for which such tithes shall hereafter be duly commuted, subject to the deductions to be legally made thereout on account of rates, but including and together with the perpetual annual rent or sum of two pounds six shillings and eight pence now issuing and payable thereout to the said Dean and Chapter of Durham, and so as aforesaid intended to be granted by them, shall forthwith be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, the incumbent of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Croxdale, and his successors for ever.

" And whereas the provision hereby recommended to be made for the said parish or parochial chapelry was proposed by the said Dean and Chapter, and agreed to by us previously to the date of the constituting thereof as aforesaid; we, therefore, further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the incumbent thereof a sum of money, equal in amount to such portion of the rent charge aforesaid, as may have accrued to us after deducting all out-goings in respect thereof, from the day of the date of the said Order of your Majesty in Council to the day of the date of this scheme.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters herein contained, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, July 19, 1844.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a chapelry district to Saint Paul's Church, at Forebridge, in the parish of Castle Church, in the county of Stafford, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th of April 1844, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until, after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the twenty-first section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra-parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division."

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate, and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;' and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Castle Church, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, at Forebridge, in that parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Forebridge," with boundaries as follows:

"The district is to consist of the north easternmost part of the parish of Castle Church, and is bounded, on the north west, by the parish of Seighford; on the west by a line drawn up the centre of the Grand Junction Railway; on the south by the township of Dunston, in the parish of Penkridge; and on the east by the river Penk; and on the north by the parish of St. Mary, in the borough of Stafford, as more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured brown:

"That marriages, churchings, baptisms, and burials (so soon as a proper burial ground shall have been obtained) should be solemnized and performed in the said church; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said church:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Lichfield has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning chapelry districts to the chapels at Haverthwaite and Rusland, both in the parish of Colton, in the county of Lancaster, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th of April 1844, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division; and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division."

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Colton, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated chapels of Haverthwaite and Rusland, in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such districts should be named, "The Chapelry District of Haverthwaite," and "The Chapelry District of Rusland;" and that the boundaries thereof should be as follow :

"The chapelry district of Haverthwaite is to consist of the township or district of Haverthwaite, and is bounded on the east, south east, and south, by the river Leven; on the west, in part by Rusland-pool, as far as a field, called Drawbridge, and in other part by the old bed of Rusland-pool, as far as the northern extremity of Low Meadow; on the north the boundary runs along an occupation road, in nearly a straight line, till it joins the Rusland and Haverthwaite road; thence, along the Rusland and Haverthwaite road, about one hundred and ten paces, through Eling-hearth, along the old turnpike road (leaving Eling-hearth partly on the east and partly on the west), as far as the northern point of a field, called Sixteen-acres; thence along the Newby-bridge-road, about one hundred and forty paces, from which (the boundary line) turns to the right along the road leading to Backbarrow, called the Back-lane, till it reaches a footpath; thence, along the path about one hundred and thirty-eight paces, till it joins the Backbarrow road again; which road it follows as far as the northern fence of a field, called Bloom-ridding; it then leaves the road and proceeds along the said fence to the river Leven, where the boundary commenced, as is shewn by the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green :

"The chapelry district of Rusland is to consist of the township or district of Rusland, the boundary thereof commencing from the junction of Yew-beck and Rusland-pool (marked A on the map), and proceeds, in an easterly direction, along the bed of the small brook, called Yew-beck, till it reaches the fence which divides Rusland from Finsthwaite; thence, north easterly, along that fence till it meets Green Hows; thence, northerly, along the fence which divides Green Hows from Stot-park-heights to a marked rock in Green Hows Peat-moss; thence, westerly, along the line which separates the two parishes of Colton and Hawkshead till it reaches Bell-beck; thence, southerly, along Bell-beck till it joins Whitestock-beck; thence across Great-meadow, and along the Merestones, which divides Rusland from Oxen-park; thence along the ditch which lies between the Moss-land and Meadow-land, till it enters Rusland-pool, at a place called Tail-meadow-hole; thence along Rusland-pool till it reaches the foot of Yew-beck, where the boundary commenced; as is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow :

"That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapels respectively; and that the fees arising therefrom should be equally divided between the incumbent of the said parish and the Ministers of the said chapels:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act; passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts:

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning chapelry districts to Saint Mary's Chapel at Ramsgill, Saint Peter's Chapel at Dallaghgill, and Saint John's Chapel at Mickley, all in the parish of Kirkby Malzeard, in the county of York, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3. cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 17th of April 1844, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimate amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportions of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:"

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty

King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Kirkby Malzeard, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated chapels of Saint Mary at Ramsgill, Saint Peter at Dallaghgill, and Saint John at Mickley, in the said parish, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such districts should be named, respectively, "The Chapelry District of Ramsgill;" "The Chapelry District of Dallaghgill;" and "The Chapelry District of Mickley;" with boundaries as follow, that is to say:

"The chapelry district of Ramsgill, which is to consist of the south easternmost part of the chapelry of Middlesmoor, is bounded as follows, the boundary commences at the south side of the river Nidd, and proceeds from thence along the middle of Forster Beck, which separates the chapelry of Middlesmoor from the township of Beverley, and, at the head of the said beck, meets the township of Appletreewick, in Craven, by which township it is bounded as far as Henstone

Band; and from thence proceeding in a north easterly direction through Aycliff Cragg to Blashaw Gill Head, and down the middle of Blashaw Gill Beck to its junction with the river Stean; it then proceeds along the middle of that river as far as the river Nidd, and from thence up the middle of the river Nidd to the mouth of Backstone Gill Beck, and from thence up the said beck to Backstone Gill-bridge, from whence it proceeds along the middle of the road leading from Middlesmoor to Masham as far as to the boundary between the parish of Masham and the parish of Kirkby Malzeard, and proceeds along the said boundary in an easterly direction as far as the Writhen Stone; it then proceeds in a south easterly direction along the boundary line separating the townships of Kirkby Malzeard and Laver-ton from the townships of Fountains Earth, in the chapelry of Middlesmoor, as far as the township of High Bishopside, in the parish of Ripon, and following the boundary line of the said township in a south westerly direction as far as the river Nidd, down the middle of which river it proceeds as far as the mouth of Forster Beck, where the boundary commenced, as the same is particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

"The chapelry district of Dallaghgill comprises part of the township of Laver-ton and the detached hamlet of Carlsmoor, in the township of Grewelthorpe, and is bounded on the west by the township of Fountains Earth, in the chapelry district of Ramsgill; on the south and south east by the parish of Ripon; on the east by the township of Azerley, till the said township joins the river Laver, not far from Beck Meeting, from which place the township of Kirkby Malzeard forms the boundary line on the north east and north, as the same is particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"The chapelry district of Mickley is to consist of that portion of the township of Azerley which lies to the north of the township road leading from Grewelthorpe to Ripon, and is bounded on the north by the river Ure; on the east and south east by the parish of Ripon; on the south and south west by preceeding along the middle of the said road leading from Ripon to Grewelthorpe, till it reaches the boundary line of the township of Grewelthorpe; and on the north west by proceeding along the said boundary line, which separates the townships of Azerley and Grewelthorpe, in a northerly direction as far as the river Ure, where the boundary commenced, as the same is particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapels respectively; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the respective Ministers of the said chapels:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Ripon has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty

King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

I, Samuel Frederick Milford, Master in Equity of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and Curator of Intestate Estates for the said colony, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that the above is a true and faithful return of all moneys belonging to Intestate Estates received and paid by me, and of all balances paid by me into the Savings' Bank of New South Wales, from the 17th day of August to the 31st day of December, A.D. 1843; and that I believe the above to be a true and faithful account of all such moneys received and paid by the late Registrar, and of all balances paid by him into the said Savings' Bank from the 1st day of January to the 29th day of July in the same year; and that from the said 29th day of July to the said 17th day of August, there was no person duly authorised to collect the estates of Intestates, nor were there any such estates collected during that period; and I make these solemn declarations conscientiously believing the same to be true.

SAML. FREDK. MILFORD, Master in Equity.

Made and signed before me, Sir James Dowling, Knt. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, this 7th day of January, A.D. 1844.
