FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1844.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of June 1844;

PRESENT;

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes in each of the parishes of Astbury and Prestbury, in the county and diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licenced according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

“ And whereas the chapelry of Saint Peter, Congleton, in the said parish of Astbury, and the chapelry of Macclesfield, in the said parish of Prestbury, are, respectively, of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of the said chapelries respectively hereinafter described, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted separate districts in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said chapelry of Saint Peter, Congleton, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered 1, and all that part of the said chapelry of Macclesfield, in the same schedule also described and numbered 2, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, respectively, are delineated and set forth in the maps or plans hereunto also annexed, and respectively numbered in like manner, shall be constituted separate districts for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be, respectively, named as follows; that is to say, the district, numbered 1 in the said schedule, shall be named “ The District of Saint James, Congleton;” and the district, numbered 2 therein, shall be named “ The District of Saint Paul, Macclesfield.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, in order that the ministers of the districts so recommended to be constituted may be permanently endowed according to the provisions of the said Act, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of each of such districts, when duly licenced according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within either of such districts, being duly licenced by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to the minister for the time being of such district, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within either of such districts shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November, as the case may be, next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of either of such districts or new parishes shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish :

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion, and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas certain persons have contributed certain sums of money towards providing a church or chapel within the said district of Saint Paul, Macclesfield, and a church or chapel is now in course of erection, by the aid of such monies, within such district; and it has been agreed by such persons that such church or chapel, when completed according to certain plans and a specification which have been submitted to us, shall be offered for approval by us, and for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and we have satisfied ourselves, by inspecting such plans and specification, that the said church or chapel, when so completed, will be fit to be so approved and consecrated :

“ And whereas certain of the principal contributors to the said church or chapel have, by an Instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the Bishop of Chester, for the time being, as the patron in perpetuity of the said district:

"We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district of Saint Paul, Macclesfield, and, so soon as the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, the right of patronage thereof, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate of such district or new parish, as the case may be, shall be wholly assigned to and absolutely vested in the said John Bird Bishop of Chester, and his successors, Bishops of Chester, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said parishes or to the said chapelries, or to the said districts or new parishes, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"No. 1.—The District of SAINT JAMES, CONGLETON, being

"All that part of the chapelry of Saint Peter, Congleton, in the parish of Astbury, in the county and diocese of Chester, situate on the western side of an imaginary line extending eastward, along the river Dane as far as the bridge, over such river, at the northern end of Mill-street, and thence southward, along the middle of such street, and the street called Swan-bank, Wagg-street, Wagg-lane, and Stony-lane, as far as the boundary of the township of Newbold Astbury, in the same county.

"No. 2.—The District of SAINT PAUL, MACCLESFIELD, being

"All that part of the chapelry of Macclesfield, in the parish of Prestbury, and in the said county and diocese of Chester, bounded on the north, by the township of Hurdsfield, on the west, by the river Bollin, on the east, by the township of Rainow, and on the south, by an imaginary line extending towards the south-west, from the western boundary of such last-mentioned township, along the middle of the turnpike road from Macclesfield to Buxton, to a point in the centre of the space where the said road, the old road to Buxton, and the road to Hurdsfield meet, and thence in a straight direction to the north-east corner of the New Town Reservoir, and thence westward, along the northern side of such reservoir and in a straight direction towards the south-west, from the extreme north-western corner thereof, to a point on the eastern side of Knight's Reservoir, opposite to the centre thereof, and thence towards the south-west, along the same side of such last-mentioned reservoir, and westward, along a certain brook running from the same reservoir, as far as the said river Bollin.

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches or chapels of the parishes and chapelries out of which it is intended that the districts therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in a cause of Bourdieu v. Bromley, and in other causes, with the approbation of William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Danistown's Tavern, in the city of Kingston, in the island of Jamaica, on Friday the 20th day of September 1844, at twelve o'clock at noon;

A valuable and productive sugar estate, called Hoghole, situate in the parish of Saint Thomas in the Vale; also the rest penn, in the parish of Saint Catherine, in the said island of Jamaica.

Lot 1. The estate Hoghole, consisting of about 1400 acres, comprising cane, grass, pasture, and wood land, of the finest qualities. The estate possesses ample water power, and a complete set of works, with a powerful water wheel and sugar mill, also a comfortable dwelling-house and out-offices, and about seventy head of good horned stock; the cane land is extremely productive, and an average crop of 150 to 200 hogsheads of sugar, and a fair proportion of rum could be realized at a moderate annual expence.

Lot 2. The rest penn, on the Walks-road, and within a short distance of Spanish-town, hitherto used as an appendage to the estate as a resting-place for cattle when conveying the produce to the shipping port, but, on account of its contiguity to Spanish-town, it might be rendered valuable as a farm for the raising of stock, and the sale of wood and grass.

Royd's Works.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Bardwell and Sons, at their Auction Mart, in High-street, Sheffield, on Tuesday the 20th day of August 1844, at four o'clock in the afternoon, before the Commissioner authorized by a Fiat.

in Bankruptcy issued against George Parker, of Royd's Works, Spade and Shovel Manufacturer, under an order of sale obtained by the mortgagee (subject to conditions of sale);

All those warehouses and workshops, with the dwelling-house, stable, coachhouse, sheds, and out-buildings belonging thereto, situate and being near Attercliffe, in the parish of Sheffield, having been heretofore used for carrying on extensively the trades of a Spade and Shovel Manufacturer, and an Anvil Maker, and commonly called by the name of Royd's Works.

Also all that steam engine of four horse power, with the bowing machine and other machinery and apparatus belonging thereto, all in the most complete working condition.

The buildings have been lately erected, are very substantial and commodious, and in a good state of repair; there is an abundant and never-failing supply of water from the sluice or goit adjoining the premises, and this, combined with their contiguity to the railway, and other means for the transport of goods, presents an opportunity of rare occurrence for carrying on an extensive business in the abovementioned or any other of the Sheffield trades, requiring room and steam power.

The ground is held by lease under his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, for the term of ninety-nine years from Lady Day 1836, at the yearly rent of £10 18s. and the site contains 1644 square yards.

For further information and particulars, application is requested to be made to Mr. William Unwin, Solicitor, Fruit Market; the Auctioneers; or Mr. Thomas Branson, Solicitor, St. James's-row, all in Sheffield.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Jackson, of Hertford, in the county of Hertford, Upholsterer, Auctioneer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 28th day of August instant, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Bankruptcy Court, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding and settling a debt of £500, due from George Jackson the younger, and which is secured by five several promissory notes for £100 each, signed by the said George Jackson the younger, due, respectively, 4th of March 1845, 4th of March 1846, 4th of March 1847, 4th of March 1848, and 4th of March 1849, and which said promissory notes are now in the possession of James Foster Groom, Esq. the Official Assignee under the said Fiat; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting and taking a sum of £200 in discharge of the whole, and giving up the said promissory notes to the said George Jackson the younger.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Clarke Crespin, of Eastcheap, in the city of London, Shipping Agent and Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 28th day of August instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupt, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to affirm or assent to or dissent from the said assignees of the said James Clarke Crespin paying to the interim factor or trustee of the estate of David Kelly, a sum of seventy pounds out of the sum of £265 16s. 10d. hereinafter mentioned, in compromise, discharge, and satisfaction of all claims and demands made by such interim factor or trustee, in respect of the estate of the said David Kelly, or the Rock Hill Stone Company, on account of certain flag stones from the Rock Hill Stone Quarries in Scotland, seized as a portion of the said bankrupt's estate; and, by the consent of the said interim factor or trustee, sold by the said assignees of the said James Clarke Crespin, with other stone (the said Rock Hill Stone, and the other stone not being clearly distinguishable), and produced the sum of £259 7s. 2d. which sum, by consent, was deposited in the Union Bank of London, at interest, in the names of George Gibson, Samuel Piercy, and David Morice Johnston, to abide the event of any claim to be made by the said David Kelly, or the said interim factor or trustee.
