TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1844.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day of July 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for ratifying and carrying into effect two certain agreements made between us and the Dean of York.

"Whereas it is by the first-recited Act, amongst other things, enacted, that, subject to the provisions therein contained, all the estate and interest which the holder of any deanery or canony not suspended by or under the provisions of the same Act, and his successors, had and would have in any lands, tithes, and other hereditaments, or endowments whatsoever annexed or belonging to or usually held or enjoyed with such deanery or canony (except any right of patronage), or whereof the rents and profits had been usually taken and enjoyed by the holder of such deanery or canony as such holder separately, and in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of such chapter should, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the provisions of that Act, accrue to and be vested absolutely in us, and our successors, for the purposes of that Act:

"And it is by the same Act further enacted, that, by the authority thereafter provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect the provisions of that Act, any arrangement may, from time to time, be made, with the consent, in writing, under the corporate seal of any bishop or chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or to such chapter, for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment :

“ And whereas it is by the secondly-recited Act declared and enacted, that the herein last-recited provisions should extend to authorize the substitution of any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and did and should include and apply to all lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in the possession or enjoyment of any dean, canon, prebendary, or other dignitary or officer of any cathedral or collegiate church, or in our possession; and the consent, in writing, under the hand only of any such dean, canon, prebendary, or other dignitary or officer should be deemed to be a consent within the meaning of the said first-recited Act :

“ And whereas under the provisions aforesaid, and also under the general authority of the said recited Acts, we have entered into two several agreements with the Very Reverend William Cockburn, D.D. now Dean of York, bearing date respectively the twenty-seventh day of February and the fourth day of June last past, copies of which two several agreements, and of the schedule to the former thereof, are annexed by way of schedule to this scheme :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said two several agreements, and all acts, matters, and things done, and to be done, for carrying the same into effect, shall be valid and effectual in law, and binding upon the parties thereto, and upon all other persons whomsoever, to all intents and purposes.

“ SCHEDULE.—FIRST AGREEMENT.

“ Articles of Agreement made and concluded upon this twenty-seventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, between the Very Reverend William Cockburn, D.D. Dean of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Saint Peter, in York, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part.

“ Whereas the said William Cockburn, in right of his said deanery as a corporation sole, is seized of, or entitled to, divers estates and hereditaments let on leases, partly for lives and partly for years, at ancient rents, which have been usually renewed at certain periods on payment to the dean of fines or premiums as the consideration for his granting such renewals, and the said dean is or may be also entitled, in right of his said deanry as such corporation sole, to certain other rights and interests in respect of the same estates; and whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the authority of certain Acts of Parliament enabling them in that behalf, have entered into an arrangement with the said William Cockburn, for the commutation of all his right and interest in all the estates and hereditaments belonging to the said deanery (except as hereinafter mentioned), into and for an annual sum to be paid to the said dean so long as he shall continue incumbent of the said deanery, of such amount as shall be fixed and determined in manner hereinafter expressed; now, therefore, the said William Cockburn hereby undertakes and agrees, in consideration of the annual sum to be determined and paid to him as hereinafter mentioned, when requested so to do by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to convey, assign, surrender, and yield up unto, or to a trustee or trustees for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, by such deeds and assurances, and in such manner as their counsel shall advise, all the estate, right, title, and interest whatsoever of him the said William Cockburn, as from the twenty-fifth day of December last past, of and in all and singular the manors, messuages, farms, lands, rents, tithes, rent charges, and other commutations for tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to him the said dean, as a corporation sole in the said church, and which are mentioned and particularized in the schedule hereunder written, and all other, if any, the manors, messuages, farms, lands, tithes, rent charges, and other commutations for tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the said dean as aforesaid, and all fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, reliefs, heriots, and all and every other sum and sums of money belonging, coming, arising, renewing, or payable, or which would otherwise belong, come, arise, renew, or become payable in respect of any of such estates as aforesaid, or of any part thereof; to him the said dean, in sight of his deanery as such corporation sole as aforesaid (save and except the house of residence, with the appurtenances belonging thereto, and all rights of patronage), and freed and discharged of and from all rights, titles, interests, incumbrances, claims, or demands whatsoever, at any time or times heretofore or to be hereafter made, created, or occasioned, permitted, or suffered by the said dean, other than and except the subsisting leases mentioned in the said schedule hereunder written; and also that he the said dean will, on the request of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, deliver over to them, or to any person they shall appoint, all counter-parts of leases, terriers, rentals, maps, plans, and all other documents whatsoever relating to or in any way affecting the said decanal estates, or any of them, which are now in his custody, possession, or power, or which he can or may procure without suit at law or in equity, and shall and will afford to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners all the particulars and assistance in his power when required so to do, in order to their obtaining full information respecting the decanal estates and the leases thereof; and the said dean hereby covenants, declares, and agrees, that he hath not, since the said twenty-fifth day of December last, made or granted, or agreed to make or grant, and will not at any time hereafter grant, or agree to make or grant, any renewed or other lease or leases of any of the said estates, or any part thereof, or any

grant or regrant of, or admission to, any copyhold or customary hereditaments, and that he hath not received, and will not receive, any part of the said rents, tithes, rent charges, commutations, fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, reliefs, heriots, or other sum or sums of money which, since the said twenty-fifth December last, have accrued, arisen, or become due to him in right of his said deanery as aforesaid; and it is hereby declared and agreed, that neither this agreement, nor any deed or other instrument to be executed in pursuance thereof, shall operate to confirm or give effect to any lease, or agreement for a lease, heretofore granted, or expressed to be granted, or entered into, of or concerning any of the said decanal estates, or any part thereof, which is or may be void or voidable, at law or in equity, but that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be at liberty to take any proceedings they may think fit, for the purpose of setting aside any such lease or leases, either during the incumbency of the said William Cockburn in the said deanery, subject to the proviso next hereinafter contained, or after such incumbency, in like manner as if this agreement, or any such deed or instrument, had not been made or executed; provided, that in case any proceedings shall be taken by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for setting aside any lease, or agreement for a lease, mentioned in the said schedule to this agreement, during the incumbency of the said William Cockburn as aforesaid, they the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall indemnify and save harmless the said William Cockburn, his heirs, executors, and administrators against all losses, costs, charges, and expences which he may pay or incur, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, either under any expressed or implied covenant on his part for the quiet enjoyment of the premises comprised in such lease or otherwise; and the said William Cockburn doth hereby further undertake and agree, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their successors shall have full power and authority, by themselves, or by any person or persons to be from time to time appointed by them, and at the costs and charges of the funds vested in them in virtue of their said office, to use the name and act as the attorney of the said dean, or otherwise, in asking, demanding, suing for, recovering, or receiving and giving receipts for the said rents, tithes, rent charges, commutations for tithes, fines, fees, perquisites, pensions, portions, sum and sums of money, and settling or adjusting all accounts, matters, and things relating thereto, and also for setting aside any lease or leases heretofore granted, or expressed to be granted, of any of the said estates and hereditaments, or of any part or parts thereof, and recovering possession of the same; and, in consideration of the agreement hereinbefore contained on the part of the said dean, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners hereby undertake and agree, with or out of the funds placed at their disposal by the said Acts, or one of them, to pay to the said dean, so long as he shall continue incumbent of the said deanery, an annual sum of such amount as shall be fixed and ascertained as hereinafter mentioned, by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fourth day of June and the twenty-fifth day of December in every year, the said annual sum to commence from the said twenty-fifth day of December now last past, and the first half-yearly payment thereof to be made on the twenty-fourth day of June now next ensuing, and a proportionate part of the said annual sum, up to the time of the said William Cockburn ceasing, by death or otherwise, to be incumbent of the said deanery, in respect of the proportion which shall have elapsed of the then current half year, to be paid to the said William Cockburn, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, within twenty-one days after his ceasing to be incumbent of the said deanery as aforesaid, and the said annual sum to be paid free of all deductions (except on account of the income tax); and for securing the said annual sum, when ascertained as hereinafter mentioned, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners agree to give, and the said dean agrees to accept, a written undertaking, under the common seal of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for payment thereof out of the funds and revenues placed at their disposal by the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them; and the said William Cockburn and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners do hereby mutually consent and agree, that the said amount of the annual sum to be paid to the said William Cockburn by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners out of such funds and revenues as aforesaid, shall be ascertained and determined by the persons hereafter named, or by their successors to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, by

Donkin, of Westow, near Malton, in the county of York, surveyor, as arbitrator hereby nominated by the said William Cockburn, John Pickering, of Derby-street, in the city of Westminster, surveyor, as arbitrator hereby nominated by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and Arthur Morgan, of the Equitable Assurance Society, of London, Actuary, as arbitrator nominated by the said William Cockburn and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners jointly; that, by way of instructions to the said arbitrators, the following be the data upon which the amount of the said annual sum is to be calculated; first, the said arbitrator shall proceed to enquire into and ascertain, as near as may be, the amount of the net annual reserved rents and fixed annual profits in each particular case of each of the said decanal estates respectively hereby agreed to be given up by the said dean, after making all proper and reasonable deductions thereout, including the expences of collection, but exclusive of the income tax; and secondly, they shall, in like manner, proceed to enquire into and ascertain, as near as may be, the net annual improved value in each particular case of each of the same estates respectively, after making such deductions as aforesaid; and thirdly, they shall proceed to calculate, in each particular case, the term or probable duration of interest which was to come or was unexpired on the twenty-fifth day of December last under each separate lease, whether for lives, or for years determinable on lives, or for years absolute, of the decanal estates and the different parts thereof respectively, according to the terms of the said leases respectively, as the same appear from the schedule hereunder written; and fourthly, at how many years purchase the reversion expectant on such term or duration of interest in the premises comprised in each such lease would be fairly worth to sell, and, in each particular case, the said arbitrators shall proceed to deduct the net amount of the annual reserved rent and other fixed annual profits from the net amount of the improved annual value so respectively ascertained as aforesaid, and shall multiply the remainder of the said last-mentioned amount by the number of years purchase at which the value of the reversion in each such case shall be so calculated as aforesaid, and shall then proceed to calculate the amount of such a perpetual annuity as in the estimation of the said arbitrators would, on the twenty-fifth day of December last, have been purchaseable with the gross aggregate of the products of such multiplication as aforesaid, and shall then by their award in writing under their respective hands, or of the award of any two of them (the said Arthur Morgan, or his successor, hereinafter appointed, being one), and without the necessity of stating or referring to any of the matters or calculations hereinbefore directed to be ascertained or made as aforesaid, fix and determine the amount of the annual sum to be paid to the said dean during his incumbency as aforesaid, at the sum of the said perpetual annuity, and of the said annual reserved rents and other fixed annual profits; and it is hereby further declared and agreed, that in case the said

Donkin should die, or refuse, or become incapable to act as arbitrator, before such award shall be made as aforesaid, then the said William Cockburn shall forthwith nominate and appoint some other person to be arbitrator, in the place or stead of the said

Donkin, and so, from time to time, in like manner upon the decease, or neglect, or refusal to act, of any arbitrator succeeding to the place of the said

Donkin; and further, that in case the said John Pickering should die, or refuse, or become incapable to act as arbitrator, before such award shall be made as aforesaid, then the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall forthwith nominate and appoint some other person to be arbitrator, in the place or stead of the said John Pickering, and so, from time to time, in like manner upon the decease, or neglect, or refusal to act, of any arbitrator succeeding to the place of the said John Pickering; and in case either the said William Cockburn, or the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as the case may be, shall make default in nominating and appointing an arbitrator in the stead of any arbitrator so dying, or neglecting, or refusing, or becoming incapable to act as aforesaid, for twenty-one days, after notice so to do from the other of the said parties, it shall be lawful for such other of the said parties to make such nomination and appointment; and if the said Arthur Morgan shall die, or become incapable to act in the matters aforesaid, before such award shall be made as hereinbefore mentioned, then the actuary for the time being of the Equitable Assurance Company, London, shall be, and is hereby, nominated and appointed by these presents as arbitrator, in every respect and for all purposes, in the place and stead of the said Arthur Morgan; and it is hereby further declared and agreed, that as well the final award as the decision upon any preliminary matter or calculation of the arbitrators, for the time being, or any two of them (the said Arthur Morgan, or his successors, in the matter of this arbitration being one), shall be final and conclusive, and neither of the said parties shall be at liberty to question the same on the ground that the amount of the said annuity or annual sum has not been fixed or determined according to the mode hereinbefore expressed, or on any other ground whatsoever; and the said dean hereby undertakes, at his own expence, on the application of the said arbitrators, for the time being, or any two of them, to produce to them all documents in his custody, possession, or power, and also to give to them all the information and explanation they may require, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, in relation to the said decanal estates, or any of them, or in any wise bearing upon any of the matters or things to be enquired into or ascertained as aforesaid; and it is further stipulated, that this agreement shall be performed with all convenient speed, but time shall not be deemed of the essence of the contract, nor shall the computation of the annual sum to be paid to the said William Cockburn as aforesaid be liable to be varied by any event happening in the mean time to affect any of the leases of the said decanal estates, or the value of the dean's interest therein, but that, upon the execution of these presents, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, in equity, be considered the owners of the said estates and premises from the said twenty-fifth day of December last, and the said dean as the owner of the said annual sum to be ascertained as aforesaid, commencing and being computed from the same time; provided always, that, in case at any time or times either before or after such award as aforesaid shall be made and executed, and during the incumbency of the said dean, it shall be ascertained that any rights or interests belonging to the said deanery have been omitted in the said schedule to these presents, then and in that case such addition shall be made to the annual sum to be paid to the said dean during his said incumbency as, regard being had to the mode of computation hereinbefore prescribed, shall be equivalent to the rights and interests so omitted as aforesaid, upon the said dean surrendering, conveying, and assuring the same rights and interests, as from the said twenty-fifth day of December now last past, to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, their successors and assigns as aforesaid; or in case it shall be found that any rights or interests have been included in the said schedule to which the said dean was not, or the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners claiming under him shall not be rightfully entitled, then and in that case, a proportionate deduction shall be made out of the said annual sum to be paid to the said dean as aforesaid, and in either case, such addition or deduction shall have relation, in account to the said twenty-fifth day of December now last past, and the amount thereof shall and may be enquired into and ascertained by the person or persons appointed, or to be appointed, as hereinbefore mentioned, in like manner, as if the matter of such further enquiry had been included in the reference hereinbefore agreed to be made, and shall or may be made the subject matter, either of their original award, or of any further or supplemental award or awards, as the circumstances of each case may require; provided that nothing herein contained shall alter or affect the rights or interest of the said dean as a member of the chapter of York, or in or to any advowsons or rights of patronage or presentation belonging to him in right of his said deanery, or in or to the house of residence belonging to the said deanery, with the appurtenances at present in his own occupation, or his liability in respect thereto to any claims for present or future dilapidations, or otherwise; and lastly, that the costs of this agreement, and also of the expences of making the several enquiries, reports, and award as aforesaid, shall be borne by the said dean and Ecclesiastical Commissioners in equal proportions; the costs of all deeds and assurances for conveying, assigning, and assuring the said estates and premises to or in trust for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall be paid by them, and the costs of the undertaking to be given by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for payment of the said annual sum, shall be borne by the said dean; in witness whereof the said William Cockburn hath hereunto set his hand and seal, the day and year first above written.

The Schedule to which the foregoing Agreement refers.

The rectory of Kilham, containing the townships of Kilham and Swathorpe.

SECOND AGREEMENT,

Endorsed upon the foregoing.

“Whereas Donkin (the person mentioned in the within written agreement to be thereby nominated as an arbitrator by the within named William Cockburn, in the matter of reference within expressed), having declined to act as arbitrator in the said matter of reference, and the said William Cockburn having declined to appoint any other person to be arbitrator in his place, it is, therefore, understood and agreed by and between the said William Cockburn and the Ecclesiastical

Commissioners for England, that as well the final award as the decision upon any preliminary matter or calculation already come to, or to be hereafter adopted, by the within named John Pickering and Arthur Morgan, or their respective successors, to be appointed as within mentioned, in the matter of such reference, shall be of as full force and effect to all intents and purposes as if the said

Donkin had acted as arbitrator, in pursuance of the within written agreement; and whereas it has been found impracticable by the said John Pickering and Arthur Morgan immediately to complete their valuation of certain portions of the decanal estates within mentioned, and it is, therefore, further agreed between the said William Cockburn and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said John Pickering and Arthur Morgan, or their successors, may make an award as to and concerning such part of the said decanal estates as they shall be prepared to include therein, and which they shall specify in a schedule to such award, and to fix the equivalent amount of rent charge to be paid to the said dean for his interest in the same estates under the within written agreement, and so, from time to time, to make a further award or awards as to and concerning the other or others of such estates to be specified in a schedule or schedules thereto respectively as soon as circumstances shall conveniently permit, and every such award shall be considered in itself final and conclusive as to the estates comprised therein, and the amount of rent charge to be paid in respect thereof; in witness whereof the said William Cockburn hath hereunto set his hand and seal, the fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean of York, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme, together with the schedule thereunto annexed, has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.
