TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1844.

At the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made by the authority therein provided for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop :

"And whereas the benefices or churches, mentioned and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, are all situate in populous parishes; but, being respectively in the patronage of the patron or patrons named in the sixth column of the said schedule, they are not within the provisions of the several Orders of your Majesty in Council respecting grants in augmentation of benefices and churches out of the monies in our hands under the said recited Act, so far as such provisions relate to unconditional grants; and, in order to bring them within such provisions, the said patrons desire to transfer their rights of patronage in such benefices and churches respectively, in manner hereinafter mentioned :

"We, therefore, recommend and propose, with the consent of the bishops of the respective dioceses, and of such present patrons respectively, and also with the consent of the proposed patrons respectively named in the seventh column of the same schedule (in testimony whereof all the said consenting parties have signed and sealed this scheme), that the patronage of and right of nomination to such benefices and churches shall respectively become and be transferred to and absolutely vested in such proposed patrons so named in the said seventh column, and their respective successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls within the said parishes, or otherwise, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act."

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1844.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes where such assistance is most required.

"Whereas, under the authority of the said recited Acts, we have, from time to time, prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council certain schemes, in which we have recommended and proposed that certain grants should be made, in augmentation of the incomes of certain benefices and churches, in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations therein mentioned; which schemes have been ratified by Orders of your Majesty in Council, and such Orders have been duly gazetted:

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the schedules hereunto annexed, marked A. 1, A. 2, A. 3, and A. 4, fall within the first of such classes, subject to the respective limitations in the said Orders mentioned; and that all the said benefices and churches are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective annual amounts stated in the last column of the said schedules respectively:

"And whereas from the source set opposite to the name of each of the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B., in the sixth column of such schedule, the benefaction stated in the seventh column of the same schedule has either been paid to us on account of such benefice or church, or permanently secured to the incumbent thereof, as therein respectively specified; and we have satisfied ourselves that the said last-mentioned benefices and churches fall within the second of such classes, as limited by the said Orders; and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented, by the respective annual amounts, stated in the last column of the same schedule:

"And whereas by reason of the appropriation of certain fees arising within districts recently assigned to certain new churches, the incumbents of the several benefices mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked D., will sustain an annual average loss to the amounts respectively set opposite the names of such benefices in the last column of the same schedule, and it is in our opinion expedient, that compensation to the same amount should be made to such incumbents:

"And whereas in the case of Paulton, contained in the said schedule marked B., a benefaction was long since paid over to us, for the joint purpose of providing a house of residence for, and augmenting the income of, the said living, but the precise amount available for such augmentation of income could not be ascertained until the completion of such house; and such house is now completed:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices and churches so described in the said schedules, marked respectively A. 1, A. 2, A. 3, A. 4, B. and D. the fixed annual sum set opposite to the name of such benefice or church, in the last column of the said schedules respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November

n each year; and that the first such half-yearly payment shall, in each case, be made on the first day of November next; except in the case of Paulton aforesaid, the incumbent whereof shall, on such last-mentioned day, receive five such half-yearly payments of the annual sum mentioned in the said schedule B.; and that in case of a vacancy in any of the benefices or churches contained in the said four schedules having already happened during the period over which the payment so recommended and proposed extends, or hereafter happening on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the incumbent making the vacancy, or his personal representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.”

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to provide for the government of Her settlements on the coast of Africa, and in the Falkland Islands," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to establish all such laws, institutions, and ordinances, and to constitute such courts and officers, and to make such provisions and regulations for the proceedings in such courts, and for the administration of justice, as may be necessary for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects, and others, within the said present or future settlements, respectively, or any of them; any law, statute, or usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction within divers countries and places adjacent to Her Majesty's forts and settlements on the gold coast, in Africa, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all judges, magistrates, assessors, and other officers duly appointed to exercise the said power and jurisdiction in the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty, within the countries and places aforesaid, shall, in the exercise thereof, observe, until further order, such of the local customs of the said countries and places as may be compatible with the principles of the law of England, and, in default of such customs, shall proceed in all things, as nearly as may be, according to the said law of England; and, in further pursuance of the powers by the said Acts of Parliament vested in Her Majesty, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to appoint the settlement of Cape Coast Castle and the colony of

Sierra Leone as British colonies, to which it shall be lawful for any person having authority derived from Her Majesty in that behalf, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause any person charged with the commission of any crime or offence, the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to any judge, magistrate, or other officer of Her Majesty within the countries and places aforesaid, to be sent for trial, or in order that sentences, passed within such countries and places as aforesaid, may be carried into effect within such colonies:

And the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, bearing date the fourth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, reciting, among other things, an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales;" and further reciting, that Nathaniel Richard Clarke, Esq. and Richard Wildman, Esq. the barristers appointed, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' list of the city of Lincoln in the then present year (the said city of Lincoln being one of the boroughs included in Schedule A.), did, within sixty days after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough should be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did in due manner apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned in conjunction with the name of such borough in the said schedule; and the said barristers had duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that was to say:

"City of Lincoln.

"We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed, by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the "regulation of the municipal corporations of England and Wales;" to revise the lists of citizens of the city of Lincoln, do, by virtue of such appointment, hereby divide the said city into two wards, to be called the Minster Ward and Bridge Ward, respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary line of the said wards, and the portions of the said city to be included therein, respectively, as follows, that is to say:

"The Minster Ward shall comprise and consist of the parishes and places undermentioned, that is to say, Saint John, Newport; Saint Nicholas; Saint Paul; Saint Mary Magdalen; Saint Margaret, with the Palace-precinct; Saint Peter, in Eastgate; Saint Michael; and Saint Martin: and the said ward to be called the Bridge Ward shall consist of the parishes and places undermentioned, that is to say, Saint Peter, at Arches; Saint Swithin; the Liberty of the Monks; Saint Benedict; Saint Mary le Wigford; Saint Mark; Saint Peter, at Gowts; and Saint Botolph; and we do hereby apportion nine councillors to each of the said wards:"

And further reciting, that the division and assignment so made by the said barristers appeared to be, in certain particulars, liable to objection; therefore His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, did thereby disapprove of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said city; but, nevertheless, His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, did order, that the particulars of the division and assignment so made by the said barristers should be published in the London Gazette, in order that such force and validity might be given thereto as is authorized and directed by the said Act:

And whereas it was deemed expedient to remove the objection which existed to the said division and assignment so made by the said barristers, who were thereupon directed to determine and set out afresh the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs should be divided, and especially as to the said city of Lincoln:

And whereas the said Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, the said barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, have determined and set out afresh the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the several wards into which it is expedient that the said city of Lincoln should be divided, and the town councillors thereof, and the said barristers have duly transmitted a report of the particulars of the number of councillors so reassigned to the several wards, in the words following:

"We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of the municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the list of citizens of the city of Lincoln, having, by virtue of such appointment, divided the said city into two wards, and such division not having been approved of by His said late Majesty, and we having been duly required further to consider and inquire into the circumstances, do, upon such further inquiry and consideration, humbly report to Her Majesty the Queen, that it will be expedient to divide, and we do, therefore, hereby divide the said city into three wards, to be called the Upper Ward, the Middle Ward, and the Lower Ward, respectively; and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portions of the said city to be included therein, respectively, as follows, that is to say:

"The Upper Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Paul; Saint Mary Magdalene; and Saint Margaret, with the Palace-precinct, in the Bail and Close; and Saint John, in Newport; Saint Nicholas, in Newport; Saint Peter, in Eastgate; and Saint Michael:

"And the Middle Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Martin, Saint Swithin, and the Liberty of the Monks:

"And the Lower Ward to consist of the parishes of Saint Peter, at Arches; Saint Benedict; Saint Mary le Wigford; Saint Mark; Saint Peter, at Gowts; and Saint Botolph:

"And we do hereby apportion six councillors to each of the said wards:

"And we recommend the under-mentioned councillors to be assigned to the under-mentioned wards, respectively, that is to say, John East, Joseph George Doughty, Thomas Newton, Charles Ward, Henry Williams, and Robert Swan, to the Upper Ward; John Sharpe, William Parry, Robert Dawber, Michael Penistan, William Marshall, Edward William Rudgard Rudgard, to the Middle Ward; and Thomas Michael Keyworth, Richard Sutton Harvey, Richard Whitton, John Key, George Calder, and Anselm Odling, to the Lower Ward:

"As witness our hands, this thirty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, (Signed) "N. R. Clarke.

"Richard Wildman."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the proposed alteration and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of councillors reassigned to each, respectively, as set forth and recommended in the above report of the said barristers, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.
