FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1844.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third (cap. 54), intituled "An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable, and the bounties and allowances to be granted, upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandize into or from the United Kingdom, in vessels of the United States, and in Portuguese vessels; and also respecting the duties and charges payable upon vessels of the United States, and upon Portuguese vessels; and likewise respecting the repayment of certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the Act now in recital:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty (cap. 113), intituled "An Act to amend the laws of the Customs," after reciting as hereinbefore is recited, and also that, subsequently to the enactment of the hereinbefore recited Act, Her Majesty and Her royal predecessors had made and concluded, with divers foreign Powers, treaties containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act; and that doubts had arisen whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said recited Act did apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other foreign Powers, and that it was expedient that such doubts should be removed; it is hereby enacted and declared, that from and after the ratification of any treaty theretofore made by Her Majesty or any of Her royal predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, or of any treaty which might thereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, with any such foreign Power, in which treaty had been or should be contained provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things in the said recited Act contained, did and should apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such foreign Powers, respectively, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as to the trade and shipping of the said United States, and of the said kingdom of Portugal; and, by the said Act now in recital, it is enacted and declared, that the said recited Act did not extend, and should not be construed to extend, to grant or to confer upon the trade or shipping of the said United States, or of the said kingdom of Portugal, or of any other foreign Power, or to the subjects of such states or kingdom, or of any such foreign Power as aforesaid, any other or greater advan.

tages than such as should have been stipulated for, and granted to, the said United States, the said kingdom of Portugal, or any such other foreign Power, by the respective treaties subsisting and in force between them, respectively, and Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; or Her royal predecessors; but that the said recited Act should be so construed and applied as to give full and complete effect to such respective treaties so long as the same should respectively remain in force, and should provide such, and only such, indemnity as therein mentioned, to such bodies politic and corporate, and other person as were therein mentioned, for such losses as they should respectively sustain by the execution of such respective treaties :

And, for the prevention of uncertainty therein, it is enacted by the said Act now in recital, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the foreign Powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting ; and that the Act now in recital, and the said recited Act, shall apply and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid, in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of Her reign, declare, that such treaties as in the same Act are mentioned, containing provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act of the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, are now respectively subsisting between Her Majesty and the following foreign Powers, that is to say : His Majesty the King of Hanover, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, and His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Oldenburg :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, September 26, 1844.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John Methold, of Beamish-park, in the parish of Chester-le-street, in the county palatine of Durham, Esq. second son of Henry Methold, Esq. by Dorothea his wife, eldest daughter of Sir John Eden, late of Windlestone, in the said county palatine, Bart., all deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Morton John Davison, formerly Morton John Eden, second son of the said Sir John Eden, Bart., late of Beamish-park aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Eden only, instead of that of Methold, and also use and bear the arms of Eden only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect;

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Admission of Goods into the Isle of Man, free of Duty, under the Provisions of the Act 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43.

WHEREAS we did, by virtue of the powers vested in us by the Act of the 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs in the Isle of Man," order and declare, by our warrant of the 26th ultimo, that all or any articles legally imported into the Isle of Man, and not enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, and upon which the duty of £15 per cent. is thereby imposed, shall and may, from and after the 5th November 1844, be imported into the Isle of Man duty free, so long as this our order, or any part thereof, affecting such articles, shall continue in force:

And having had again under our consideration the subject of this matter, we, being three of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby revoke and determine so much of the said warrant as admits the importation of such goods free of duty, from and after the 5th day of November 1844, and do declare that the payment of such duty shall not be enforced from the date of the passing of the before-mentioned Act of 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43:

And we do further direct, that this our order be duly published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, in accordance with the provisions of the 3d section, of the said Act: for which this shall be your warrant:

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, this 20th day of September 1844,

Signed HENRY GOULBURN.
ALEXR. PRINGLE.
ARTHUR LENNOX.

The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's docks, dock-yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," power is given to us, from time to time, by order or notice in writing under our respective hands, or the hand of our Secretary, to order at what place or places, within or near all or any of such ports, harbours, havens, roads, roadsteads, sounds, channels, creeks, bays, or navigable rivers, no private ships of war, transports, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, shall come or be laden with, or having on board thereof, any quantity or quantities of gunpowder exceeding five pounds weight in the whole:

And whereas we have deemed it necessary and expedient, in pursuance of the last-mentioned Act, to order, and we do hereby order, that, from and after the 10th day of October 1844, no private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, shall come or be laden with, or have on board thereof any quantity or quantities of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole, in any place or places in the river Thames above Barking Reach.

Given under our hands this 26th day of September 1844,

W. H. GAGE.
W. GORDON.

By command of their Lordships,
John Barrow.

Trinity-House, London, September 24, 1844.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, of the eighth year of Queen Elizabeth, intituled "An Act concerning sea marks and mariners," and also by virtue of divers ancient grants and charters, and particularly of a certain grant, dated the 11th day of June, in the thirty-sixth year of Her said Majesty, whereby the beaconage and buoyage and the office of beaconage and buoyage were, upon the surrender thereof into the hands of Her Majesty by Charles Lord Howard Baron of Effingham, then being Her Majesty's Great Admiral of England, granted unto the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strond, the said Corporation is entitled to erect and maintain such and so many beacons, marks, and signs for the sea as to them shall seem most meet, whereby dangers may be avoided, and ships the better come to their ports without peril; and whereas it has been intimated to the said Corporation of Trinity-House, by Mr. William Bush, of Union-street, Deptford, in the county of Kent, in writing, under date the 20th day of September instant, that he has been engaged for several months in erecting, on the Goodwin Sand, lying off the east coast of the county of Kent, "an iron column, with the twofold object of fixing thereon a red light, for the guidance of mariners, and for boring the quicksand, to ascertain its depth, with the ultimate view of erecting a more permanent light-house;" and farther that, "on or before the 1st of November next, he shall shew, at the top of the column, a brilliant red light;" and whereas the erection of such column, and the exhibition of a light thereon, being an unlawful violation and infringement of the power and authority vested in the said Corporation of Trinity-House by the Act of Parliament and Royal Grant aforesaid, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation do hereby give notice to the said William Bush, and to all persons, workmen, and others, acting with, or under the direction, or by the orders of the said William Bush, in erecting the column before-mentioned, and in exhibiting a light therefrom, that such their proceedings are unauthorized and illegal; and they do farther hereby require him and them forthwith to desist therefrom.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

Office of Mixed British and Portuguese Commission, No. 94, Mount-Street, Grosvenor-Square, September 25, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the payment of the Titulos, issued by the Mixed British and Portuguese Commission, due on the 1st of October next, together with the interest accruing to that date upon the remainder of the series issued for each claim, will commence on the 1st of October, at the office of the said Commission, and be continued on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from eleven to three o'clock.

All parties holding more than one series of Titulos will be required to fill up a form, which will be delivered upon application at the office, giving a list of the Titulos they hold, with the interest due upon each, calculated separately, at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, from the date of issue to the 1st of October 1844.

THE Next of Kin (if any) of Charlotte Philips, late of Felcourt, in the parish of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, Spinster, deceased, who died on the 22d day of April 1840, are requested to apply to Messrs. Gregory and Son, No. 12, Clement's-inn, London, Solicitors, where they may hear of something to their advantage. The said Charlotte Philips had a life interest in certain Government Annuities, under the will of Sophia Hamilton, late of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, deceased, who died in the year 1808, and application is about to be made to the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, for letters of administration of the estate and effects of the said Charlotte Philips on behalf of one of the parties l.o.v. entitled to the said Annuities.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Jackson v. Milfield and others, and Jackson v. Milfield, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in four lots; as to lots 1, 2, and 3, at the George Inn, Kingston-upon-Hull, on Thursday the 24th day of October 1844, at two o'clock in the afternoon; and as to lot 4, on Friday the 25th day of October 1844, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Swan Inn, in Barton-upon-Humber, in the county of Lincoln;

The freehold messuage and shop used as a blacksmith's shop, in Trinity-house-lane, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the occupation of James Marshall, and the shop and house adjoining, used as a paint shop, in the occupation of — Gardner; also the freehold messuage used as a public house, and known by the sign of the Bonny Boat, in Trinity-house-lane aforesaid; also the freehold messuage in Carr-street, parish of Seacroft, Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, late in the occupation of M^{rs.} Milfield and others.

Also seven freehold cottages in a street called Newport, in Barton-upon-Humber, in the county of Lincoln, with the plot of ground behind the same, used as a garden, containing 508 square yards, in the respective occupations of John Milfield, — Nottingham, — Chapman, — Hamilton, — Clay, — Green, and another.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the chambers of the said Master, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Richard Jackson, Solicitor, Hull; of Mr. W. C. Robinson, Solicitor, Hull; of Messrs. Shaw and Newstead, Solicitors, Ely-place, Holborn, London; of Mr. Edward Lambert, Solicitor, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, London; of Messrs. Fielder, Johnson, and Master, Solicitors, Duke-street, Grosvenor-square, London; of Mr. Thomas Daniel, Auctioneer, Hull; and at the places of sale.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Walker versus Cross, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Gray's-inn Coffee-house, Holborn, London, on Friday the 11th day of October 1844, at twelve o'clock at noon;

All those valuable leasehold lead mines, called the Bog Mines, situate in the parishes of Worthen and Wentnor, in the county of Salop, lying about fifteen miles south west of Shrewsbury, part of which mines are held for a term of which ten years were unexpired on the 24th day of June last, partly under a lease from the Right Honourable Charles Augustus Earl of Tankerville, Charles Lord Ossulton, and John Arthur Lloyd, at a royalty of two twentieths, partly under a lease from the said Earl of Tankerville and Charles Lord Ossulton, at a royalty of one tenth, and the remaining portion of such mines is held under a lease from Henry Lyster, Esq. for a term of which seventeen years were unexpired on the 25th day of March last, at a royalty of one tenth during the now unexpired residue of the said term, subject to a reduction to a royalty of one twelfth, in case the lessors should expend and use in coals for working an engine or engines or other machinery at or in the said mines for the purpose of pumping water from the works and raising the ore gotten therein, or should expend in some other power or method of working such engine or engines or other machinery (but not including the cost of putting up or repairing any such engine, &c. or the wages of any men employed in or about the same), the sum of £50 at least in each calendar month; and all those valuable leasehold coal mine and lime works at Pontesbury, in the said county of Salop, held under two leases from the Reverend Hamlet Harrisson, for terms, fourteen years each of which were unexpired at the 1st January 1844, at a royalty of 1s. 4d. per ton, and a reservation of seventy-two tons of coal per annum if demanded, 2s. 6d. per kiln for limestone, 2s. per thousand for bricks, and £1 10s. 0d. a-year for every bank and mound raised; and also all those lead smelting works, comprising three furnaces, situate at Pontesbury, and near to and adjoining the colliery, held under lease from Mr. John Lawrence and others, for an unexpired term of ten years from the 19th of November 1843, at the yearly rent of £55; together with all the pumping and winding engines, whinsies, ropes, chains, and all other implements and utensils as now being and at work upon the several mines and premises.

The leases of these lead mines, which adjoin the celebrated Stiperstone Rocks, comprise several thousand acres of mineral ground, in which there are a great number of rich and valuable veins that have not yet been explored, several are now in due course of working, and the large engine on the Bog vein, constructed on the Cornish principle, has ample power for drainage of the whole.

These mines are now in due course of working, and are capable of great extension, and all the engines and other machinery are in excellent condition, having been lately erected by the Colebrook Dale Company without regard to expence.

At the colliery, which is situate only a short distance from the mines, three seams of coal have been opened out and are now supplying the engines at the mines and the smelting works with coal, and are well situate for a country sale; the head smelting works, for the smelting of the ores, is situate close to the colliery, and on the high-road to Shrewsbury.

The smelting works adjoin the colliery, and are very conveniently situated, and fitted up for smelting all the ore produced at the mines.

Also a farm, with a valuable right of sheep walk, and ten cottages attached to the mines, at the low rent of £45, held under lease from Henry Lyster, Esq. for a term, of which seventeen years were unexpired at the 25th March 1844.

Should a purchaser wish to enlarge the mining operations, a further extent of mineral ground may be obtained immediately adjacent.

Particulars and conditions of sale will be printed, and may be had (gratis) at the Master's office, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; Messrs. Sharpe, Field, and Jackson, No. 41, Bedford-row, London; Messrs. Chester, Toulmin, and Chester, Staple-inn, London; Messrs. Laces, Myers, Rigge, and Roscoe, Solicitors, Liverpool; Mr. John Walker, Solicitor, Chester; and at the mines.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Foster against Hobhouse, Bart. and others, the mortgagees, annuity creditors, or other incumbrancers of the trust funds under the will of the Right Honourable George Gordon Lord Byron, deceased (who died, in Greece, on or about the 19th day of April 1824), are, on or before the 20th day of November 1844, to come in and establish their claims before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an indenture, bearing date the 5th day of September 1844, and made between James Christopher Royston, of Codnor-park, in the county of Derby, Gentleman, of the one part; and John Cutts, of Chesterfield, in the same county, Gentleman, and Thomas Lee, of Crich, in the same county, Grocer, of the other part; the said James Christopher Royston did release and assign all his real and personal estates and effects unto the said John Cutts and Thomas Lee, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, upon trust, for sale, as therein mentioned, and from the moneys to arise from the sale of the whole or any part of the said estates, to discharge the several mortgage incumbrances affecting the same, and from the residue of such moneys, upon trust, to pay the several persons, creditors of the said James Christopher Royston, who should come in and execute the same indenture within two months from the date thereof, the whole of their debts, if the same should be sufficient for that purpose, but, if there should not be a sufficient sum of money realized from such sales, upon trust, that they the said trustees should pay such moneys to the said creditors ratably and proportionably, and according to the quantum of their said debts, in full satisfaction of the same; and in the said indenture is contained a proviso, that the said real estates (except a small portion thereof, as therein mentioned) should not be sold under the aforesaid power, unless and until the rents and profits to arise therefrom should be insufficient to discharge the interest of certain mortgage securities therein referred to, and other payments, and also the several debts of the persons who should execute the said deed, by instalments of five shillings in the pound yearly, until the whole were paid, with interest thereon; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that such indenture was duly executed by the said James Christopher Royston, John Cutts, and Thomas Lee on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of Michael Jessop, Solicitor, Alfreton, and now lies at the office of Messrs. Lucas and Cutts, Solicitors, Chesterfield, for the signatures of the creditors of the said James Christopher Royston.

TO be sold by auction, at the Fleece Inn, in Darlington, in the county of Durham, on Tuesday the 8th day of October 1844, at two o'clock in the afternoon, by order of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District Court of Bankruptcy, before Mr. Baker, one of the Official Assignees of the said Court; Messrs. Small and Brough, Auctioneers;

All those extensive and highly valuable premises called or known by the name of the Fleece Inn, most advantageously situate in the centre of the large and populous town of Darlington, in the county of Durham, and established for several generations as one of the first commercial houses on the great north road; together with the excellent stabling, brew-house, tap-rooms, and every convenience requisite for such an establishment.

Further particulars may be obtained on application to Mr. Baker, Official Assignee, at his office, No. 57, Grey-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; Mr. J. Brown Simpson, Solicitor, Richmond, Yorkshire; Messrs. Kcenlyside and Harle, Solicitors, 16, Westgate-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; or to the Auctioneers, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Harriot, of Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, Beer Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 21st day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. John Whitley, Solicitor, High-street, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either wholly or partly, by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation or appraisement, or otherwise, as to the said assignees shall seem most beneficial for the said bankrupt's estate, five shares to which the said bankrupt was entitled of and in a certain Company called the Southport Butts Company, and also all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in at any auction and reselling by public auction or private sale; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act in the conduct and management of the estate and affairs of the said bankrupt as they may think advisable.
